HEMPHILL

MARGARET YOUNG, (Y.A. 23) Married: ANDREW HEMPILL, (About 1777) (-1780). (Margaret's brother, Wm. A. Young, Jr., was born (10/31/1743 at Union, Md, and died 12/27/1820 at Wilkes- ton (Newcastle), Penna. Her parents were Wm. Young, Sr., and Mary White (Y.A. 2). Andrew Hemphill is Unknown, but there are many Hemphills in the Shen Valley district of Penna, and many are buried there in Cemeteries, with Hamills- Youngs-Davidsons, etc. (See Page Y.A. 23-Family A-Young Section).

HEMPHILL

DR. JAMES ROGERS YOUNG, (Who is Unknown-but possibly of Young) (Family J-Young members, of which went to South Carolina), Married: JENNIE LIND MOFFATT, (1882-1918) (Wm. A. 522-5), and they lived at Anderson, South Carolina. (See Page Ham- (A-522, (Item A-522-5)-Family A-Hemphill Section-McCALLA GENEALOGY).

ELDER

RIFLE CARRIED BY WILLIAM YOUNG, JR. IN REVOLUTIONARY & 1812 WARS.

This rifle belonged to Capt. William Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) and was carried by him in the Revolution and War of 1812. About 1924-30, this rifle was in the possession of Mr Joseph Stuart Young, (Y-A- ) of Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna., and its authenticity was vouched for by Mr W.Y. Small, (Y-A- ) of St. Charles, Iowa, and Mrs Harriet Marks, (Y-A- ) of Bloomton, Iowa. (See Family "A," Data Page following page Y-A-21.)

This rifle possibly may have also belonged to William, Jr.'s Father, who was William Young, Sr. (Y-A-2), and have been carried by him in the French-Indian wars, but this is not definitely known.

This Capt. William Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) was born 10/23/1743, at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland, at the family farm or estate. He died 12/27/1820, at Wilmington, now Newcastle, Penna., and is buried, with his wife, in Meshannock Cemetery, at Wilmington. His wife was Mary Elder, sister of the Elizabeth Elder who married his own brother, John Young, (Y-A-25). John and wife are also buried at Meshannock.

William and John both served thru the Revolution. They were both captured and held on the prison ship "Jersey," and were rescued about a year later, more dead than alive, sucking bones when found. They were both badly stooped over in after life, in consequence, as the prison ship decks were only a few feet high--not tall enough to stand up straight.

The soldiers led by Capt. William Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) in the Revolution came to him again at the time of the War of 1812 and said: "Captain, here be your men, ready to serve! Where ye lead, we follow!" And they served together again thru the War of 1812.

Both William and John, (as well as other members of the family) were friends of Washington's. They advised Washington not to enter into the battle of Head-of-Elk, but he went ahead, and was defeated. Washington's Diary is said to have an entry like this: "William Young invited to dinner tonight. 7 bbls. of rum delv'd to cellar." (See Family A, Data Sheet following page Y-A-21).

It is supposedly 250 years old and well preserved. Supposedly came from Scotland, and passed from daughter to daughter.

Mary Young (Mrs John MacCandless-Y-A-213) born 1791, Dalta, brot to Wilmington, Penna. Mary H. MacCandless (Mrs Smith-Y-A-214) brot to Neokuk, Iowa. William J. MacCandless (Mrs Albert MacCandless-Y-A-215-6) brot to Chicago. Now owned by Helen Young MacCandless (Y-A-215-21) 2313 Calumet Ave, Chicago.

THE MEANING OF THE NAME YOUNG.

Our own Youngs were Scotch. For 200 or 300 years, clear back into Scotland, they have been intermarrying with the Elders-Scotts-Stuarts. So know that the older or elder family of the Royal Stuarts took the name "Elder" and so became our Elder family. The Compiler has often wondered if the name Young might, in the same fashion, be really the younger family of the Royal Stuarts, thus taking the name in the same way. However, this has never even been suggested by historians, so far as the Compiler knows. At any rate, the Youngs originated at Arr, Scotland, and the name has been clearly defined through Scotland, England, Ireland and America.

German: German immigrants, carrying the name "Jung" have in many cases changed to the English equivalent of "Young," thus using our same name. These Germans have no possible connection with our Youngs.

French: At the time of the Norman Conquest of England, many of the Norman French settled in Southern England, particularly near the Channel Ports. Among them was a well known family of the lesser French Nobility by the name of "Jeune," which means young, as in "jeune fille" (young lady). In the course of time these semi-noble "Jeunes" anglicized the name to Youngs. They were presumably Catholics. We suspect that many of them emigrated to the Baltimore region, and while they have no legends like ours, nevertheless here in America, some of them have, to a certain extent, mixed with Elders-Youngs-Stuarts-Scotts. You will find, strange tho it may seem, some of these same names, who are Catholics, mixed in with these purely French-Catholic-Jeune "Youngs." The Compiler suspects that many of our Scotch folk just naturally gravitated to these Youngs, became Catholics, and lived among them. Remember, that it is just as natural for Youngs-Stuarts-Elders-Scotts to get together as for ducks to take to water.

There is, for example, a well known family of Elders in the Cincinnati-Louisville region, who have been Catholics for generations, and are noted Editors of Catholic publications. Remember, also, that our Scotch Youngs of Baltimore--a very kindly people--knew the Lords Baltimore, and aided them in founding Baltimore, and were very helpful. So it is perfectly natural that some of these Youngs may have gone with the Norman-French "Youngs."

Chinese: The Chinese have a name which sounds like "Jung," and some of them, anxious to be good Americans, have changed the spelling to read "Young." These, of course, have no possible connection.

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE YOUNGS.

Our own Youngs are a kindly, helpful, friendly people--unique as being absolutely without hate. They can usually be recognized by an unusually friendly, kindly smile, and an up-looking head, with a twinkle in the eye, which can always be recognized, once having been seen, as the smile of a genuine Young. Wherever you find them, you will always find this remarkable, kindly, friendly smile. The Youngs are far from being a stern, hard people, and there is seldom a "sour-puss" among them.

This does not mean that they were not fighters. In every war, from the French-Indian colonial wars down, the Youngs-Elders have been exceedingly valiant fighters, and like steel in their adherence to liberty, Christianity, Freedom and Fair-play. But aside from war times, they have been friendly, helpful people, and that friendly smile is always in evidence.

This helpfulness has caused many a family Legend to come down from the Baltimore days, when as well-to-do ship owners, they brought over so

INTRODUCTION--Page 2. HAMILL GENEALOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

Many, not only of the Young-Elder-Stuart-Scott names, but of so many other names. And histories, it is said, record many of these kindly acts, as for instance, the bringing of the McCormicks free of charge, and the refusal to indent them for passage money, or to punch their ears in indenture, because the McCormicks "were such good, Christian people."

OUR YOUNGS IN SCOTLAND-ENGLAND-IRELAND.

Our Scotch Youngs originated, as stated, at Ayr, Scotland. They were Baronets, and well-to-do land owners. In nearby Paisley and Elderslie, in County Renfrew, were the Elders, who are so closely associated with them. The Scotts were related to Sir Walter Scott, of Buccleuch, Scotland, and early day Scotts and Elders spoke of being Cousins of Sir Walter's. The Stuarts were of the Royal Stuart line, but many changed to the spelling Stewart.

Clear back into Scotch and English history, and even after 1800 in American history, our Youngs have intermarried times without number, with the Royal House of Stuart, with the Elders (who were older or elder branch of the Royal Stuarts), and with the Scotts. These Stuarts were of the Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots, line. Wherever you find our Youngs, in the earlier days, they are intermarried with and associated with the Scotts-Stuarts (Stewarts) and Elders.

Our Youngs, in many cases, emigrated to the North of Ireland, where they were likewise wealthy land owners. Others went South into England. They were mostly United Presbyterians and Presbyterians. Some were victims of Roman Catholic persecutions of those days, and again emigrated to the land of freedom, America, where they might worship without interference. Our own Youngs evidently became wealthy ship owners in the old country, for they are said to have furnished some of the ships which brought over the Calvert colonists to Baltimore. Our own legends state definitely that they were ship owners, that they were friends of the Calverts, that they brought over some of the Calvert Catholic colonists for the Lords Baltimore. This may be why our Youngs settled in Baltimore.

Margery (Margaret) Stuart (Stewart), wife of the first David Elder, (see Elder Genealogy, #1) was a nobleman's daughter, and their daughter was Mary Elder, wife of Capt. William Young, Jr (Y-A-21), so our Mary Elder Young (Y-A-21) was Grand-daughter of a Scotch noble.

OUR YOUNGS MIGRATE TO AMERICA.

The date of our Young's first settlement in Baltimore is unknown. It is not until several generations later that these dates commence to be proven. The Elder Genealogy dates the Capt. William Young, Jr-Mary Elder (Y-A-21) marriage as taking place in 1777, and this is said to have occurred in Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Md., which was a farm or country place or estate of our Youngs. Their daughter, Mary Young, (Mrs John MacCandless-Y-A-215), was born in 1791, and from our own Young-MacCandless-Hamill records, we know that this occurred in Baltimore, presumably in the Baltimore town house.

Going back a little, the Elder Genealogy dates Capt. William Young-Jr (Y-A-21) as being born in 1743, but our own family records are more specific, giving the exact date as 10/23/1743, and saying this occurred at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland.

This is the earliest date about which we can be sure, and further information and dates will have to be based upon careful research.

However, William, Jr's father was supposedly William, Sr, who died in Lurgan Twp., Franklin Co., Penna, in 1755. Note that his son was born in Elkton, Md, in 1743, and that 10 years later, the Father died in Lurgan Twp., Penna. The father was said to be living there at the time. However, the Youngs were certainly making headquarters in Maryland long after that, for Mary Young was born in Baltimore in 1791. Six years later, in 1797, is the date our legends say that they appeared in the Wilmington-Mon Valley district in Western Penna, although the Elder Genealogy dates this as 1800.

So pending further careful research in the Baltimore region, let us say that they were in and about Baltimore for several generations, up to shortly after 1791. That certain Youngs branched off and went to various points in Penna, like Lurgan Twp., Lancaster, Lebanon and other sections, from which our legends say the Youngs wrote letters in which they mention visiting "Cousins." And they emigrated to the Wilmington-Mon Valley district in Western Penna about 1797-1800.

What a pity it is that fire and bad luck have destroyed many fine Young records, that would have given us all this data, complete with dates, clear back. We would then have all this information, specific and exact, and published in the Penna Archives, N.Y. State Archives, etc.

OUR YOUNGS HELP BUILD BALTIMORE.

In the year 1941, at the time these pages are written, we have only Family Legends and surmises to suggest the earliest beginnings of our Young Family in America. These legends have been handed down from generation to generation. In the main, they and similar legends in other branches of the family, have so often proven substantially correct. But there are many parts which may be mere fancy. So the Compiler will have to list Legend, Fancy and Fact together to start the warp and weft of the fabric of our family history. Giving a proven fact here, a definite historical reference there, and the rest only Legend, until the woven cloth of known facts finally emerges.

So, forgetting dates, let us see what Family Legends suggest about our Youngs of Baltimore.

Our Baltimore Youngs were wealthy ship owners. They knew the Calvert family, who were the Lords Baltimore. They furnished some of the ships which brought over some of these Catholic Lord Baltimore colonists. And they aided the Calverts in founding the Colony of Baltimore, although our Youngs were Protestant Presbyterians, and so far as the Compiler knows, remained Protestants. When the Youngs settled in Baltimore, in the very earliest days, their connection with the Royal Stuart group was said to have been thoroughly well authenticated, and they were of the Jacobean group in political cast.

Our Youngs presumably had a town house in Baltimore, and are known to have also had a farm or country estate at Head-of-Tlk (Elkton), Maryland. Elkton is in the N-E corner of the state, in Cecil County, just over the Penna state line from Philadelphia, which is about 40 miles away. They are said to have sailed their sloops from Baltimore to the Tlk River, and up the river to this farm, thus having easy transportation in the days when travelling was hard. This farm or country estate at Elkton figured much in family history and they were very fond of this evidently comfortable place. The Compiler's Mother remembers seeing letters from Capt. William Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) about his longing to be "back in my home in Head-of-Tlk, and also Baltimore," and saying that he wished that he had never left it and come into the wilderness of Western Penna. He wrote this after some children had been killed by savage Indians.

Owning ships, our Youngs came especially to Baltimore in the earliest days. And being very kindly, helpful people, they brought over, so our legends say, so many early settlers. The legend regarding the McCormicks, which is also quoted in some historical work, has already been mentioned.

INTRODUCTION--Page 4. HAMILLE GENEALOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

And they are said to have brought over many others, both of our own people, and other families. Many of those aided by our Youngs are said to have become prominent in Colonial history.

Down into Revolutionary War days, there have always been persistent legends of friendship of our Youngs with Gen'l Washington. The legends about the Battle of Red-bank, and about Washington's Diary are given on the Data Page following Capt. William Young, Jr.'s page, which is Y-A-21. The Philadelphia "B" Family also have similar legends, and still have a hand mirror given them by Martha Washington. The last Chicago survivor of this Phila branch was Mrs George F. Baldwin, who was the daughter of Mary Young (Mrs Wm Marsden Scott), born in Philadelphia. Mrs. Baldwin at her death in 1929, left this hand mirror to a younger Cousin and the information about it is given on the Data Page following Mr. Mrs Geo. F. Baldwin's page, which is Y-B-111. This hand mirror was given directly to Mrs Baldwin's Young ancestor by Martha Washington. William Young, (Y-A-21), and his brother John Young, (Y-A-25), were, of course, friends of Washington's.

REBECCA YOUNG AND MARY YOUNG PICKERSGILL--FLAG MAKERS.

A Rebecca Flower Young, (whose husband was a William Young), made some of the first flags of the Revolutionary War for General Washington. Her daughter, Mary Young Pickersgill, made the famous flag which flew over Ft Mifflin, near Baltimore, when the British bombarded it in 1814. This latter flag was the one which gave us our beloved National Anthem, for a Francis SCOTT Key wrote the famous and honored song about this flag. Now there is nothing in 1841, to definitely connect this Rebecca Flower Young-William Young-Mary Young Pickersgill family with our own Youngs, except that this Young family came from Penna, it is thought from Lebanon or Lancaster, or some such place. And our Youngs were constantly visiting "Cousins" in similar places in the early days. And our Baltimore Youngs are thought to have constantly branched off from Baltimore, and to have settled at such places in Penna. So there is nothing---new---to definitely connect us. But the reader will be struck, as is the Compiler, by the same old Young-Elder-Scott-Stuart teamwork---a Scott writing a song, about a flag made by a Young. Copy of an article about this "Baltimore's Betsy Ross" follows a few pages later, in the Introductory section.

OUR YOUNGS SCATTER FROM BALTIMORE.

It would appear that our Youngs branched off from time to time, to various points in Penna. William Young, Sr (Y-A-2), was found in Lurgan Twp., Franklin County, Penna, in 1753, and died there. David Elder lived near there, at Dry Run, North of Chambersburg, and it may be that this Young went there and settled temporarily because of the usual Young-Elder association.

At any rate, most of our own Youngs appeared in the Wilmington neighborhood of the beautiful Onon Valley, about 1797-1800, or thereabouts.

The Compiler has visited, very briefly, the Cemetery at Onon Valley, Penna, where many Youngs are buried, side by side and row on row, with Elders-Stuarts-Scotts. The main Cemetery, of course, is Heshamock, 20 miles North, at Wilmington, which the Compiler has never visited.

Here, at Wilmington, in the beautiful Onon Valley, our Youngs were joined by Judge John Young, of the "J" Family, who founded, with their aid, the city of Youngstown, Ohio, about 20 miles west across the Ohio state line.

According to Legend, one of our Baltimore "A" Youngs secured a land grant from William Penn, and settled in Philadelphia. We believe, but as yet do not know definitely, that his descendants are the "B" Young family, listed in this section.

The "C" Young Family, also listed in this section, are also thought to be an offshoot of our Baltimore Youngs, descended from one who settled in Loudoun County, Virginia. This will have to be proven later.

The Compiler has written many letters to present day Youngs in Baltimore and Elton. But he has never thus found any of our Youngs. They all seem to have gone. However, two kindly ladies of the name Young lived in Elton, knew nothing of our Young history, and said their Youngs came from somewhere in Virginia.

FIRE AND STRANGE HAP. SINCE DESTROY YOUNG RECORDS.

Years ago the Compiler's Mother, Mrs Albert McCalla (Eleanor Nancy Hamill -H-185-6), and all her family, had made many researches in Young records, and had many fine documents, bibles and other records. Dr William H. Egle, M.D., the eminent Genealogist who headed the famous Penna State Library at Harrisburg, had also collected many fine deeds, wills, photos and other historical records on the Young family.

Dr Egle found our Young records exceedingly interesting, and intended to publish all he had in the Penna Archives, making the record much more complete, and very authoritative. He felt, as others do, that the Youngs have been a remarkably worth while family, with an exceedingly interesting history, and so much to be proud of. So Dr Egle had secured such a mass of new data from various Penna sources, he obtained all sorts of information from various Youngs, and all of our Young family contributed every original record that they had. Thus Dr Egle would publish all this, with pictures, etc, in the Penna Archives, for a permanent and authoritative record.

In his enthusiasm, Dr Egle had been studying much of this data at his home, endeavoring to establish all Young connections clear back. But he was taken very ill, and died suddenly. His wife, thinking that the Harrisburg Library was fireproof, rushed all these records to the library, and notified all Dr Egle's correspondents. But on the same day which brought to my Mother the announcement from Mrs Egle of her kindly action for the supposed safe keeping of these records, the papers all carried details of the destruction of the Harrisburg Library by fire.

Thus, before it could be published, the famous Harrisburg Library burned--and every invaluable Original, every deed, will, Photo, every bible, every record--was destroyed.

Of course, other libraries duplicated volumes as far as volumes were in print, but nothing could be done about Genealogical records on which there were no duplicates. This was before the common use of Photostat prints, and no duplicates or copies had been made of much of this data.

This hit my Mother so severely, for she had delved so deeply, and had so readily contributed every original that she had, and so had all her sisters, and every kinswoman.

THE ALBANY STATE LIBRARY ALSO BURNS.

Then later, the State of New York had many Young-Elder, and also Hamill records, for while our Youngs were not those of New York, yet their Library at Albany had many records which would throw much light on Young affairs in the early days. Also, some of our Youngs were intermarried with "Palatine" ancestors, and Pres. Theodore Roosevelt had asked that any who had any connection with the "Palatines" to send their records to the Albany State Library for copying and connecting. We had sent all we had and they were most enthusiastic. My Mother, and some members of her family, including my sister Helen, on their return from a trip West, had stopped off at Albany, and had viewed this material, spread out on tables, being made ready for the printer.

My Mother was told that a help our records were to the searchers, and how they had helped to clear up many a missing record. Mother wished to take our material back, because those records were all she had on these lines, and the originals should not have been sent, but photostat copies should have gone instead, and she was so afraid of losing them by fire, or other loss.

The library researcher said "the whole State of N.Y. is back of the fireproofing of this Albany library," and that he would very soon give us copies of all records connecting with ours clear back to "Adam's Grandfather," and also photostatic copies of every record, etc. She and her party took the train that night at Albany, but when she reached Chicago the next morning, the papers had headlines "Albany Library Gutted by Fire---Total Loss!" And that's that.

So just before these New York and "Palitinate" records went to the printer, an A.I. State Library at Albany, N.Y. also burned. Everything, including originals, was lost.

EVEN A TRUNK IS "LOST IN TRANSIT."

Mrs William Marsden Scott (Mary Anna Young--Y-B-11), of the Philadelphia "B" Family, had many old records, which presumably would have traced her family clear back thru Phila to our Baltimore Youngs. She was elderly and in poor health, but she often discussed family connections with the Compiler's Mother. As to the probable connections between our "A" Family and her "B" Family, she often said: "Of course, we're the same!" After Mrs Scott's death, her daughter, Mrs. George F. Baldwin (Y-B-111) packed all these old records in a trunk, to be sent on to Chicago, there to be carefully gone over by herself, the McCallas, and others interested in Young family history.

This trunk full of "B" Family records was "lost in transit" with all data.

TAKE EVERY PRECAUTION WITH YOUNG RECORDS.

The Compiler hopes that all these evil and strange happenings may arouse the sporting blood of several Youngs, who will undertake to again trace down Young records bit by bit--taking care to see to it that the findings are not burned or lost. The compiler suggests copying each new find at once, making 4 copies (an original and 3 carbons). Rush one copy to the Compiler. Send another copy to some interested Young for safe keeping. And keep the remaining copy. Also, have at least 4 Photostat or Photo Prints made of every Will, Deed, Bible birth etc. page, and scatter these 4 prints immediately into similar safe places. Keep the original Wills, etc., in bank vaults---where they won't burn---and send Photo prints, Photostats and copies instead. In this way, you won't have all your eggs in one basket---which certainly does not pay with Young records.

A lot of research could be done in Baltimore, and Elton (Cecil County) in Maryland, and at Bryson and Wilmington (Newcastle) in Pennsylvania. Also at the points where the "B" Family lived, like Phila and May's Landing, and also where the "C" Family lived, like Cumberland, Ohio, and Loudoun County, Virginia, etc. Remember that the records destroyed were largely PAUNA records, and that the Baltimore and Elton regions are still virgin fields for research. But remember also that the libraries, Court Houses, etc., in Baltimore and nearby are probably none too fireproof, so get your records copied as fast as possible, with complete record of where you got your information (name of library or Court House, and WHERE located, Name of Book, Author, Publisher, Year Printed, Volume, Page, etc). Then scatter these copies as fast as possible into places where they won't burn. Don't ever take a chance with Young records. Are there not some Youngs who will get their dander up over all these strange set-backs, and who will grinly undertake to do the research job all over again as thoroughly as did those of the past generation? Only let us hope that the youngs of this generation will take every precaution and will not put all their eggs in one basket. Scattered eggs do not meet disaster so easily.

Regarding those strange happenings that destroyed Young records, the Compiler sometimes suspects that because the Youngs, in their blindness, aided in the establishment of a great Roman Catholic settlement at Baltimore, that all hell has turned out to destroy records, burn libraries, and keep us from having definite proof that we are descended from those kindly, Christian Youngs of Baltimore. Whatever the cause of this continued "bad luck" against Young records, there were some ungrateful gentlemen who said; in the war of 1812, "...~~here be your son, ready to serve.~~....." And the Compiler believes there are some youngs of this generation, who also are ungrateful, and who will tackle this research again, and get results. Let us hope so.

A family that is as kindly, as helpful, as smiling, and as worth while a Christian family as the Youngs, and a family that has done so much from the very earliest days, to help build this mighty Republic, deserve a more completely worked out Genealogy and history than this. So it is hoped by the Compiler and others, that some of the present day Youngs may become interested, and may get together a much more complete record one of these days---"for the good of all the Kinfolk." Even later, possibly it might be published, and scattered into libraries everywhere, for the benefit of the whole large Young family.

It is suggested that those seeking a definite grasp on the history of these three families, read through the following pages in this Young Section:

On Family A--(Our own):

On Family B:

On Family C:

Read the two Introductory Pages--Page C and the Data Page following.

It is also suggested that the reader scan the H Family page in the back of this section.

All of our "A," and probably all of the "B" and "C" descendants, are entitled to use the Scotch Plaids of the Stuart or Royal Stuart type.

With the kindest of best wishes to all young descendants everywhere, and the hopes that this brief and incomplete Young record may be helpful and stimulating, I am, Sincerely,

The Compiler:

YOUNG FAMILY NOTES.

Of the various Young Families shown in this Young Section - Families "A" - "B" - "C" and "J" are assumed to trace back to the same original family in Ayr, Scotland. Families "H" - "K" and "L" might be found to trace back also to our Ayr, Scotland family.

Dr William H. Egle, MD, the eminent head of the Penna State Library, at Harrisburg, Penna, is said to have had interesting records showing the descent from the Royal Stuarts clear down to our own Youngs. What a pity that this library burned, just when all these splendid Young-Elder-Scott-Stuart(Stewart) records were to go to the printers, to be printed in the Penna Archives. All were destroyed.

One of the quick ways of determining family relationship, is by the comparison of Family Legends. For example, Family "A" have legends of friendship with George Washington, and our Wm. Young, Jr, is said to have advised Washington not to fight the disastrous Battle of Head-of-Elk, (See Data Page Y-A-21), and then, there is said to be the old entry in Washington's Diary of: "William and John Young invited to Dinner tonight; 7 bbls. of rum delivered to cellar." (See Data Page Y-A-21). In like manner the Young Family "B" have similar legends of friendship with Washington, and also with the Lewis family, who were intermarried with the Washingtons, and Mrs G.F. Baldwin left at her death, a hand-mirror given to her "B" Family Youngs by Martha Washington, wife of George Washington. (See Data Page B of Family B).

The Scotts, who were so often associated with our Youngs-Elders-Stuarts (Stewarts), were of the same family as Sir Walter Scott, of Ayr, Scotland, later of Buccleuch, Scotland. Kinsmen of a generation or so ago, spoke of Sir Walter as "Cousin." In Sir Walter Scott's "Tales of a Grandfather," he speaks of his own people - and so many of these he mentions are family names, and similar to those of our own ancestors. Mrs Smith Hamill, (Nancy McClellan MacCandless-H-125-the daughter of Mary Young(Y-A-213) of Baltimore), would read the "Tales" to her Grandchildren, and would explain who the various persons were whom Scott wrote about.

Both our Youngs and MacCandlesses, while in North Ireland, were at the Siege of Londonderry, at Flodden Field, and at the Battle of the Boyne, before coming to America.

There was a Rev. Young, who was a Missionary to the Hawaiian Islands in the early days, and who presumably came from Penna. He was associated there in Hawaii with a Rev. MacCandless, who also supposedly came from Penna. They were said to have been of our two families, and Mrs Smith Hamill(H-125), is said to have stated that this Young and MacCandless were ours - but this has not been verified. It is said that a descendent of this Rev. Young built the Alexander Young Hotel in Honolulu, Hawaii, and that in 1930, descendents of both families were living in Honolulu.

Mrs Gertrude Spitzer, (of Family "J") said that there were many fine Young records at York, Penna - probably on the "J" Family, but possibly also on our "A" Family. These old records are said to trace clear back to Ayr, Scotland. We know, of course, that the "A" Family, thru the generations, branched off to Phila, Penna, also to Lebanon-Lancaster-York, Pa, as well as to Wilmington(Newcastle), Lawrence Co, Penna. And we know that the "J" Family had this branch come South from Worcester, Mass-Peterboro, NH, to York, Penna. Unfortunately, in 1947, we have no trace of these various branches settling in these towns, but there are remembrances of old letters from the Baltimore "A" Family, mentioning visits with Young and Elder "Cousins" in these localities, and living for a time with them. Also, the Mary Young Rickersgill, and her father, William Young, who made the flag that flew over Fort Mchenry, about which Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star Spangled Banner" - lived for many years in Phila, Penna, and so it is said, also at Lebanon, Pa, as well as coming back again to Baltimore (SEE NEXT PAGE).

to live. So some Young descendant should search out all those fine records at York, Penna, add them to this Young Section, and also be one step nearer full proof that this Mary Young Pickersgill was of our Youngs.

Plaids: Our Young-Elder-Stuart(Stewart) families, and descendants, are entitled to wear the following Stuart Plaids: Royal Dress Stuart Plaid, (white background); Hunting Plaid(scarlet background); Old Stuart(dark green on blue ground); Victoria Stuart Plaid(similar to Royal Dress Stuart). The Elders, (who were Old Stuart, or Elder Stuart), wear the Old Stuart Plaid.

Mary Stuart, Queen of Scotland, became a Roman Catholic while a young Queen in France, and many of her kinsfolk became Roman Catholics also as it is said. The Compiler's Grandmother, Mrs Smith Hamill, (Nancy McClellan MacCandless-A-125), took the unusual view that she believed, from old family talks, that the Catholic Youngs dated from that time, and that the Norman-French, "Jeune" Youngs, (Family "N") intermarried with some of our Youngs way back at that time. We have no verification of this, and it is believed doubtful. However, some of our Scotch Protestant Youngs did come to Baltimore, Md, (where our Family A Youngs also lived), and became associated with the Roman Catholic Youngs of Family N. Also, some of our own Scotch Elders, whose own records describe themselves as Scotch, and from our own Paisley, Scotland, became Roman Catholics, and are now the noted Catholic publishers - the Elders of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gilbert Stuart was the noted Portrait painter of the Revolutionary days - who painted the famous picture of President George Washington. His relation to our own Stuarts(Stewarts) is not known. He also painted many portraits of wealthy and prominent Youngs of the Revolutionary period. Among such portraits were those of:

Judge John Young, (1762, Glasgow - 1840, America) of Pennsylvania, who was the son of a well-to-do Merchant of Glasgow. In office with Sir Walter Scott's father. Came to Philadelphia in 1780. Married Martha Barclay in 1794. Was Judge of 10th District of Penna in 1806. Was very distinguished looking, and he and his wife were painted by Stuart in 1800.

John Young, (English) (1755-1825). Was Keeper of the British Institute, and a mezzo-tint engraver of famous paintings. A very handsome young man, who was painted by Stuart.

Robert Young, (1748-1814). Was an Officer in the Revolutionary and 1812 Wars, and US Senator from Virginia. Was painted by Stuart in Washington in 1805.

(For further data - See Family "N"-Young Section).

The MacCandless records, (See Page A-5, MacCandless Section), speak of Mary Young, (Y-A-213), as being born in Baltimore. They also speak of Mary Young as coming from Cumberland Valley, Penna, in Franklin Co, and between Shippensburg and Strasburg. This would be North of Chambersburg. These Youngs of Family A were apparently at several places in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna, both while they were still making their headquarters in Maryland, (Balto & Elktion), and later. Capt. Wm. Young, SENIOR (Y-A-2), died in 1753, in Lurgan Township, then in Cumberland Co, now Franklin Co, Penna. Remember that their close kinsfolk, the Elders, (of Family A), were at Fannet Township, just South of Dry Run, also in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna. (See Introduction to Elder Section). So search should be made for records of our Youngs in various parts of Cumberland - now Franklin - County, Penna.

HAMILT GENEALOGY---YOUNG SECTION.

Introduction.

SOME OF THE KNOWN YOUNG MIGRATIONS TO AMERICA.

FAMILY "A"--(OUR OWN): The point of origin of our own Scotch Young family is ANK, Scotland. The ANK, so often intermarried with our Youngs, came from Ansley and Elorslie, Scotland, which were near Ayr. They were said to have been wealthy land owners in Scotland, and some were involved in Roman Catholic persecutions and fled to North Ireland and thence to America. Some were said to have gone to the South Coast of England, to the same town near Cowes and the Isle of Wight, where lived the Calverts, Lords Baltimore. This latter supposition is not known definitely, however. At any rate, they were Baronets, and became wealthy ship owners. They settled in Baltimore, Maryland in _____. They are said to have furnished many of the ships which brought over the Calvert, Lords Baltimore, colonists to Baltimore, and thus they helped in the founding of the great Catholic colony of Baltimore. They also are said to have brought over so many other Youngs to settle in America, and many others. They are said to have brought over the McCormick family, of Reaper fame, who settled in Virginia, and afterward came to Chicago. The McCormicks were poor, and history quotes them as refusing to indent the McCormicks for passage money, or to punch their ears as a sign of indenture, because, as history quotes our Youngs as saying, the McCormicks "were such good, Christian people."

This branch of the family may usually be recognized by a most kindly, tolerant smile, by an absence of hate or prejudice, and by the fact that in the earlier days, they were always connected with, intermarried with, and buried with, the Elders-Scotts-Stuarts (Stuarts), with whom they have intermarried for hundreds of years. They were said to be, through the Scotts, related to Sir Walter Scott, of Buccleuch, Scotland.

Our own branch of the family scattered through Penna, most of them settling in the Eron Valley district of Penna, when it was a wilderness, about 1797-1800. This Eron Valley district is just east of the Penna-Ohio line, running from Bainington (Newcastle), thru Mt Jackson, New Galilee, to Eron Valley, Penna. They helped found all this settlement. Judge John Young, of the "J" Young Family (from Worcester, Mass) came and lived with them, called them "Cousins," and with their aid, founded the city of Youngtown, Ohio, just across the state line. Another branch of the family is said to have secured a land grant from William Penn, and to have settled in Phila. It is thought that family "D" is this same family. There is also a "C" Family from Loudoun County, Virginia, who are also thought to be an offshoot of our Baltimore "A" Youngs, although, as far as traced in 1941, they do not show the Elder-Scott-Stuart intermarriage trace. These latter Youngs, in their western migrations, intermarried with families of German extraction.

Our own family "A" were mostly United Presbyterians and Presbyterians.

FAMILY B: (Philadelphia): This family is descended from a Young who built the first ship ever built on the Delaware River. It is thought that they branch off from our Baltimore "A" Youngs--but this is not as yet proven. They were mostly Episcopalians.

FAMILY C: (Loudoun County, Virginia): It is likewise thought that this family branch off from our Baltimore "A" Family--but this is not yet proven.

FAMILY H: (Culpeper County, Virginia): We have only a fragment, concerning Almar Young. There was an intermarriage with the Rumfrey Family, probably the same Rumfrey as in Family "C"--and there are other Rumfrey intermarriages listed in the Elder Genealogy on Elders-Youngs.
(SEE OTHER SIDE)

(3/25/1941)

FAMILY J: (Worcester, Mass and Peterboro, N.H.): Descendants of JOHN YOUNG of North Ireland, who was born in 1645, near Londonderry, came to Boston, Mass, about 1713, with 14 persons in his family, and located at Worcester, Mass. A descendant, JUDGE JOHN YOUNG, (who was oldest son of Dr. John Young of Peterboro, N.H.) settled near our own Baltimore Youngs in the Shen Valley district, Penna, and called them Cousins, and with their aid, in 1797, started the founding of Youngstown, Ohio, 20 miles away, across the Ohio state line). In those days the relationship between the Baltimore "A" Youngs and these Worcester, Mass, "J" Youngs was seemingly established, and the two branches came together in the Shen Valley district. This Judge John Young shows very clearly the family characteristics of unusual kindness, with the usual Young smile, but without the upturned head. It is probably the same family back in the old country. A descendant of this "J" branch of the Youngs is MR. Israel G. Spitzer, 3974 So. Lake Park Ave, (Phone Oakland 4995), Chicago, Illinois. Mrs Spitzer's Grandmother was Mary Young of York and Richfield, Penna, who intermarried with the Penna Dutch.

FAMILY K: (Maine): Five Young brothers landed at _____ Maine, about the year _____. They went West, and separated, and never re-joined each other again. Descendants of 1 brother settled at Strafford, Vt., whence in 1850, they homesteaded 200 acres near Kaneville, Kane County, Illinois. A descendant is Mr Frank K. Young, Threshing Machine Dealer, of Kaneville, Ill., who gave a historical collection and War of 1812 collection to the Aurora, Ill. Library. His Grandfather was Mr. _____ Young, who was born 1/27/1798 presumably at Strafford, Vt., and died 5/23/1869, presumably at Kaneville, Ill. This Grandfather's sister married Abner Skinner at Lowell, Mass. Apparently know nothing of the Baltimore Youngs, or of the Stuart-Scott-Elder intermarriages, or the other Young legends. It might be that Family "J" and Family "K" would prove to be the same if traced back far enough.

FAMILY N: (Roman Catholic Youngs of Baltimore): These Youngs lived mostly in Baltimore, Washington and Virginia. They mostly descend from a Benjamin Young, who was Land Commissioner under the Lords Baltimore, and who grew very wealthy. They can always be differentiated from our Baltimore "A" Family because they were Catholics, and because they intermarried with such families as the Notleys-Lorders-Carrolls-Ligers etc. However, they did have some association with the Stuarts, and names so common among our "A" Youngs. Names associated with them have among them: Benjamin Young, Notley Young (died 1802), Mary Young, his daughter, Abraham, William and George Young, Robert Young who was Senator from Virginia. However, there was a Judge John Young (born 1762 in Glasgow, died 1840 in America) who lived in Penna, but who had been in office with Sir Walter Scott's father. He was a very distinguished looking Judge of the 10th Penna district in 1806, and his picture was painted by Stuart, in 1800. We suspect that this Young was of our own Youngs.

Some of these Youngs were supposedly brought over by our Youngs, and settled in Penna, Virginia, Maryland, etc., many of whom became quite prominent later as Judges, etc., who are mentioned in history, but have not been traced.

HAMILTON GENEALOGY---YOUNG SECTION.

This family of Mary Young Pickersgill is not thought to be directly related to our Young "A" Family. However, her Youngs are said, by skilled Genealogists connected with the "Star Spangled Banner Flag House" at 844 E. Pratt St. Baltimore, Md., to have come from Penna. So later it may be proven that her Youngs and ours are the same. But our Youngs have intermarried with the Biders-Stuarts-Scotts for 250 years clear back into Scotland. And here is a Francis Scott Key writing our patriotic song about the flag made by a YOUNG.

"BALTIMORE'S BETSY ROSS."

Story of the Birthplace of the Flag that waved over Ft. Mchenry, when it was bombarded by the British in 1814. By Mrs Arthur Barneveld Bibbins. From National Republic Magazine, December 1923, Page 54:

"Who made the flag that waved over Ft. Mchenry, near Baltimore, on that famous night during the War of 1812, which inspired Francis Scott Key to write our National Anthem, 'The Star Spangled Banner.' It was MRS MARY YOUNG PICKERSGILL in her home in Baltimore, 844 East Pratt St., corner of Albemarle, where she lived from 1770 to 1857. Thanks to the organization of patriotic men and women, known as the Star Spangled Banner Flag House Assn., money is being raised by popular subscription to preserve this historic old home as a shrine which may be visited by the people of America, just as they now visit the Betsy Ross home in Philadelphia, Washington's home at Mt Vernon, and other places that figured in our early history.

There was no suitable flag to place on the fort that guarded Baltimore .....where can we get a flag?....Commodore Barney and Genl John Stricker stepped forward....and announced there was a woman....best flag maker in America....inherited flag making art from father who had made flags during Revolut. War....her name is MARY YOUNG PICKERSGILL....related to both Commodore Barney and Genl Stricker. "Mary," said Genl. Stricker, "the British are going to try to capture Baltimore. Must have a flag to wave over that fort. 'Mary Pickersgill, will you make that flag?' 'If you men will fight as hard as I am going to work on that flag, the British will be licked before they get started.'"

Direct evidence of the making of the flag-is handed down to us by Caroline Pickersgill, daughter of Mary, who says: "The flag being so very large, my mother was obliged to obtain permission to spread it out in the neighboring malt house, opposite the mansion of Charles Carroll of Carrollton. It was this flag of Mary Pickersgill's, 'The Star Spangled Banner' as Francis Scott Key gallantly called it, that he so eagerly looked for thru the gray dawn of Sept. 14th....the original flag, long preserved by Col. Armstrong's grandson, Eben Appleton, now rests in the Smithsonian Institut. at Washington.

Mary Pickersgill came from famous Revolutionary stock. One Uncle was Col. Benjamin Flower, Comm. Genl. of Revolut. Stores at Philadelphia. Her mother, Rebecca Flower Young, made the first flag of the Revolution under General Washington's direction. Six weeks later, Rebecca Young's little daughter, Mary, opened her eyes on the grim, troublous days of the swift approaching Revolution.....whether Rebecca Young was the maker of those first flags of the new Navy, as well as that sent by Hopkins to Barney in Baltimore, we cannot tell....Caroline Pickersgill emphatically stated later, "My Grandmother, Rebecca Young, made the first flag of the Revolution under General Washington's direction, and for this reason my mother was selected by Commodore Barney and Genl Stricker to make the "Star Spangled Banner."

Washington reached Phila 5/22/1776, and had a great review of troops May 27th....little Mary Young was but 3 months old at the time, but it cannot be doubted that her patriotic mother, Rebecca Young, took her baby daughter where her brother, Colonel Flower, was in the front rank....."
(SEE OTHER SIDE)

(5/25/1941)

STAR SPANGLED BANNER FLAG HOUSE ASSN. (Home of Mary Young Pickersgill)

Mr Paul H. McCalla, Chicago, Illinois. Baltimore, Md, 8/15/1930.
Dear Sir: First let me advise you that your Family Book was sent to me several days ago by Mrs Bibbins, and I have read same and this day have forwarded to Mr Hugh Charles Hamill, 310 N. Market St., Ligonier, Penna. I was much interested in the book, and appreciate the publicity you have given to our Flag House in Balto. I am working on the Genealogy of the Key family, but have taken up the Young family only as it relates to the living descendants of William Young, the father of Mary Young Pickersgill. The only descendant by the name of Young is Wm A. Young, 5832 Baltimore Ave, Philadelphia, Pa, who would probably be interested in your book. I notice that you have a picture of Tudor Hall in Southern Maryland, which the Balto. Sun published as the "birthplace" of F.S. Key. This is a mistake, as Francis Scott Key was born Aug 1st, 1779 in Carroll County, Md, near a small place called "Bruceville," about 20 miles from Frederick, Md. He is buried in Mt Olivet Cemetery, at Frederick, Maryland.

I have never seen a picture of the Young home near Elkton, Md. The Youngs are very numerous in this section, and I have never heard of any Genealogical work on the family. I have your letters of July 3rd, 19th and Aug 10th, to Mrs Bibbins and the Flag House, and have tried to cover all your questions except a complete copy of the Young family Bible, which is locked up in a case at the Flag House. When I have the opportunity, I will copy same and send it to you, together with what Genealogical data I have. It has been too hot to do any digging this Summer, but we are having our 1st rain in 40 days tonight, so hope we will have relief. With best wishes to you in your work, I remain, Very truly yours, WALTER W. BOWEN, Treasurer.

NOTE BY THE COMPILER: Now, in 1941, it is hoped to send the Balto. Flag House one of the copies of the Young Section of the Hamill Genealogy. This may help them in tracing Young records on Mary Young Pickersgill, and also other Youngs seeking information there, may be led to exchange information on Youngs. This little folder is to go to them soon, and will contain information on Families "A"-"B"-"C" and "H."

The Compiler: Paul Hamill McCalla. (H-125-65).

HAMIL GENEALOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

Introductory Section.

Additional Letters about "Flag House" and Mary Young Pickersgill.

"Dear Mr McCalla:

Baltimore, Md., 7/17/1930.

Your interesting inquiry reached me just as I was leaving for the shore. I forwarded you our "Flag House Guide" with its data regarding Rebecca Young and her daughter....Mary Young Pickersgill....The old Young Bible as in a glass case in the "Flag House." These Youngs were a Phila family with connections in Baltimore....Rebecca Young coming there in 1785..... They seemed to live in the "Flag House" quite early. Her daughter Mary married John Pickersgill, an Englishman, in 1795, and died 1805, leaving a daughter, Caroline, afterward Mrs John Purdy.

The Bible mentions that the father of Rebecca Young was buried in Maryland in 1789, so she evidently had connections there and probably with your branches of the family, as there are several Youngs mentioned in old directories. I think probably your Youngs are the Southern Maryland and Annapolis branch....Mr Beers (our Treasurer), is much interested in Young and Key genealogy....Have not yet discovered kinship between Mary Young and Francis Scott Key....would be happy to know if it exists. Hoping your records may come to light again, Sincerely, MRS ARTHUR BARNHART BIBBINS, (Ruth M. Bibbins), Historian, Flag House Assn, 844 E. Pratt St., Baltimore, Maryland. (Her residence is: 2650 Maryland Ave, Balto, Md.)

"Dear Mr McCalla:

Baltimore, Md., 8/15/1930.

Your Family book was sent to me several days ago by Mrs Bibbins, and I have read it and have forwarded to Hugh Charles Merrill, Ligonier, Penna. I was much interested in the book, and appreciate the publicity you have given our "Flag House" in Baltimore. I am working on a Genealogy of the Key family, but have taken up the Young family only as it relates to the living descendants of William Young, the father of Mary Young Pickersgill. The only descendant by the name of Young is Mr Wm A. Young, 5632 Baltimore Ave, Philadelphia, Penna, who would probably be interested in your book. I notice that you have a picture of Tudor Hill in Southern Maryland, which the Balto. Sun published as the "birthplace" of Francis Scott Key. This is a mistake, as Francis Scott Key was born Aug 1, 1779, in Carroll County, Maryland, near a small place called "Bruceville," about 20 miles from Frederick, Md. He is buried in St Olivet Cemetery, Frederick, Md.

I have never seen a picture of the Young home near Elkton, Md. The Youngs are very numerous in this section, and I have never heard of any genealogical work on the family. I have your letters of 7/3, 7/10, 8/10, to Mrs Bibbins and the Flag House, and have tried to cover all your questions except a complete copy of the Young family bible, which is locked up in a case in the Flag House. When I have the opportunity, I will copy same and send to you together with what genealogical data I have.... With best wishes to you in your work, I remain, Very truly yours, WALTER W. BEERS, Treasurer Balto. Flag House Assn, 844 E. Pratt St., Baltimore, Md."

"Dear Mr McCalla:

Baltimore, 3/18/1930.

Have read your interesting book on Youngs, etc., sent to Balto. to our Mr Beers, who is also deeply interested....wrote Mrs Young to secure photos of Elkton homestead. Think Mr Beers may not see kinship of Mary Young Pickersgill and Francis Scott Key....it may be clearer later. His (Francis Scott Key's) Aunt or Great-Aunt married Dr C. Scott of Annapolis, where he lived while attending St John's College....Sincerely, MRS ARTHUR BARNHART BIBBINS, Balto Flag House, 844 E. Pratt St, Balto, Md."

(4/1/1941)

"Dear Mr McCalla:

Philadelphia, Penna, 1930.

The Baltimore Flag House has, among other relics, the custody of the Young family Bible, that contains much that cannot be completely deciphered. The patience and energy of Miss Bibbins and Mr Beers of the Assn. has been responsible for a very complete record up to John and Ann Young of pre-revolutionary days, and the story of the Flag, as contained in the "Flag House Guide to Historic Landmarks of Balto." I am trying hard to complete a Geneological chart that I started some-time ago, but have up to this time found little to add to the information already published, but I hope to put it in shape, easy to read. I would be glad to keep in touch with you....Mrs Wm S. Hinds, Jr, 3740 Tudor Arms Ave, Baltimore, Md, has an old "My Family Bible" that shows Young connections and a Coat of Arms of the Youngs, painted on Porcelain. Yours truly, WILLIAM ALEXANDER YOUNG, 5632 Baltimore Avenue, Philadelphia, Penna. (Asst City Engineer, Dept of City Transit)(descended from Mary Young Pickersgill)."

"Dear Mr McCalla:

Baltimore, Md. 5/15/1930.

I received interesting book of my kinfolk. I have quite a few records of the family, but with many gaps I have never been able to fill, so your records look especially interesting. Mother was very glad to see it, too. Would like to see it in print. Thanking you for trusting me with such a valuable book, JOHN CALDWELL HINDS, (Mrs James L. Hinds), 3740 Tudor Arms Ave, Baltimore, Maryland. (Descended from Mary Young Pickersgill, and related to Wm Alex. Young, whose letter is given above)."

FRANCIS SCOTT KEY - AUTHOR of "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

(From an old Newspaper Clipping-Name of Paper and Date Unknown):

Francis Scott Key, lawyer and author, born in Frederick County, Maryland, Aug 1, 1779, died in Baltimore, Jan 11, 1843. Early in life Key became District Attorney for the District of Columbia. He was an eloquent advocate and a poet of ability, but unfortunately, most of his poetry was written with no thought of its preservation. In 1814, when the British attacked Washington, they took prisoner Dr Beanes, a dear friend of Key, who at once planned to secure his release. President Madison placed a vessel at Key's disposal, and sent with him John S. Skinner, the agent for the exchange of prisoners.

Upon the arrival of the force under Skinner, the British General consented to the release of Dr Beanes, but stipulated that the entire party should remain where they were during the attack upon Baltimore. Skinner and Key were sent on board H.M.S. Surprise, but were soon restored to their own vessel, from which they witnessed the bombardment. From their position, the flag on Fort Mifflin could be seen, save when obscured by smoke or darkness. Just before day, the firing ceased, and the prisoners looked anxiously to see which flag floated over the fort. "The flag was still there."

Key immediately wrote the draft of the song, "The Star Spangled Banner." Subsequently, when Key arrived in Baltimore, he gave the song to Captain Benjamin Hades, stating that it was to be sung to the tune of "Anacreon in Heaven." It was immediately put into type, and Hades carried the first proof to an old tavern adjoining the Holliday Street Theater, where actors and literary people were always to be found. Here the verses were read, and Ferdinand Durong, being appealed to by the crowd, mounted a chair and sang for the first time "The Star Spangled Banner." It caught like wildfire, and the fire is burning yet. May it never die out!"

(From: The Chicago Sun-2/26/1944):

"Our National Anthem: To the Editor: Here is a suggestion which I hope in time will find favor all over our land: In singing "The Star Spangled Banner," when only one stanza is used, why not sing the last instead of the first? The first two stanzas are of historical interest only, while the last contains the very heart of the song. It is full of meaning for us, both while we are in war, and for all time. To refresh your memory:

"Oh, thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand,
Between their loved home and the war's desolation,
Blessed with victory and peace, may the Heaven-rescued land,
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust."
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave, O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Several mistakes doubtless will be found in this YOUNG record when proper researches are undertaken on the YOUNG branch of the Family.

For example, there are several William Youngs and John Youngs shown, of different generations. We know about William Young (Y-A-21) and John Young (Y-A-25), and about Larry Young (Y-A-213) of Mon Valley, Penna (primarily of Wilmington, now Newcastle, Penna.)

Only on these Y-2 and Y-21 pages, containing the records of William, John and Larry Young do the records get down to more exact facts.

Hope that someone -- soon -- can trace all this Young record more completely.

(Compiler's Note: This page is largely suppositional, and is based on Family Legends, except that John Young, Sr., (Y-A-2) is mentioned in the Elder Genealogy. This Colonel John ("A") might have been the Emigrant who first came to America - but in 1950 we have absolutely no record of which generation first came to America.

These Youngs of this generation supposedly lived in Baltimore, Md., and had a Farm or Estate at Head-of-Elk, (Elkton), Maryland. Supposedly, in a later generation, most of them moved on west to Turkey Township, Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna. Here they were near their Kinsmen, the Elder Family, who lived at Rath Valley, near Dry Run, in the same locality. (See Elder Section - Family A - Hamill Genealogy). The Compiler's Mother, Mrs. Eleanor Nancy Hamill McCalla, (A-125-6), who was a Granddaughter of Mary Young, (Y-A-213), spoke of often seeing letters from old Youngs visiting with "Cousins" in various parts of Penna. They were evidently great travellers, and evidently some lived in Penna, while others remained in Maryland.

It is not known whether Colonel(?) John acquired his title of "Colonel" in the old country, or for service in America. He might have served in the French-Indian Wars, and so have acquired this title - but we have no record whatever of such service).

"GENEALOGY OF DAVID ELDER AND MARGERY STEWART."

Compiled by Prof. Thomas A. Elder, M.A., Oberlin College, Wooster, Ohio.
Privately printed, 5/20/1905. (A Pamphlet of 52 pages, 6x8 inches.)

"The ANCESTRAL Seat of the ELDERS was Elderslie, County of Renfrew, near Paisley, Scotland. They had a "coat of arms." Some of them came directly to America, others first emigrated to Northern Ireland, and thence to America. Probably the first of the name to come to America was Robert of Paxtang, who, according to Dr. W.H. Eagle's genealogy, was born about 1679, in Scotland, emigrated from Lough Neagle, County Antrim, Ireland, where he had previously settled about 1730, to America, locating in Paxtang township, then Lancaster, now Dauphin County, Penna, five miles north of Harrisburg.

The subject of this work, DAVID ELDER, with Robert Elder, probably his brother, came to America 1754-1760, from Lough, Island or Inch, or Lough Swilly, County Donegal, Ireland. His wife, Margery, (or Margaret, all the family names following appear as Margaret) Stewart is said to have been a nobleman's daughter, to have been highly educated, and to have been very skillful in fancy needlework.

David and Robert Elder settled in Path Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin County, Pa, near Dry Run.

David Elder's children claimed to be cousins of Sir Walter Scott, but whether the relationship was through the Elders or the Stewarts, we have been unable to determine. All the descendants of David Elder have long ago left Path Valley, but many of Robert Elder's descendants still live there. The early Elders were all Presbyterians.

William Young, and John, his brother, who married Elizabeth Elder, were sons of William Young and Mary White. William Young lived in Lurgan township, Franklin County, Pa, in 1753. His other children were Elizabeth, married John McConnell, Margaret married Andrew Hemphill, and Gilsey married Daniel Slaymaker.

The Youngs were Scotch. They were wealthy land owners in the North of Ireland, whence they came to America, and settled in Maryland. They removed to Mercer Co., Pa, about 1800. They were slave owners, and their slaves, Bob and Peg, are buried at Heshannock Cemetery. They are said to have been baronets. They were involved in the Roman Catholic persecutions, and came to America to escape them. They were Presbyterians in their faith.

(Compiler's Note: The Elder Genealogy claims Wm. Young, Sr (Y.A.2) was living in Lurgan Township, Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna. when he died in 1853. However, his eldest son, Wm. Young, Jr (Y.A.21) was born presumably at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland, in 1743. Also, Wm. Young, Jr's (Y.A.21) 3rd child, Mary Young, (Y.A.218) was born in 1781, supposedly in Baltimore, Maryland. So let us assume that the main part of the family of Wm. Young, Sr (Y.A.2) was still living at Head-of-Elk (Elkton) and in Baltimore, Maryland, but that some of these Youngs had already begun to move west to Lurgan Township, Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna - to be near their Anfolk, the Elder family, who lived there at Rath Valley, Dry Run. (See Family A-Elder Section-Harill Genealogy) Let us assume that William, Sr (Y.A.2) had gone to Lurgan Twp. to visit some members of his family, and his Elder Anfolk, and died there. It is supposed (and seems likely). 2/10/1950.

that after 1792, the last of the Youngs had left Maryland and moved on to Lurgan Township. Then in 1793-1800-1804 some of these young children had moved on to Indian Run, Wilmington (now Newcastle), then in Dorcer (now Lawrence) County, Penna. These Youngs were Presbyterians).

DATA SHEET.

To Follow Page - Y-2.

Captain(?) William Young, Sr. (Y-2): The Elder Genealogy, Page 4, says:

"William Young and John, his brother, who married Elizabeth Elder, were sons of William Young and Mary White. William Young lived in Lurgan Township, Franklin County, Penna., in 1753. His other children were Elizabeth, married John McConnell, Margaret, married Andrew Hemphill, and Gilsey, married Daniel Slaymaker.

The Youngs were Scotch. They were wealthy land owners in the North of Ireland, whence they came to America, and settled in Maryland. They removed to Mercer County, Penna., about 1800. They were slave owners, and their slaves, Bob and Peg, are buried at Hoshannock Cemetery. They are said to have been baronets. They were involved in the Roman Catholic persecutions, and came to America to escape them. They were Presbyterians in their faith."

John Young, (Y-25). The Elder Genealogy, Page 26, says: "John Young removed from Cumberland County, Penna., to Mercer County, Penna., about 1804. He was a private in Capt. Abraham Smith's Company, Col. William Irvine's Regiment, 6th Battalion, Penna. Infantry, Revolutionary War, enlisted Feby. 4, 1778."

Penna. Archives: 15-564-___, and 12-152-___, show William Young's Revolutionary Records. Also, various Kinfolk, who are his descendants, are in the Daughters of the Revolution on his war record, the numbers of their Applications being as follows: #35,315, #32,353, #69,104. Penna. Archives: 25-742-___, Capt. Moses Carson's Company to Range Frontiers, Wm Young, Private, 7/9/1770---8/9/1773. Also, served in War of 1812. Franklin County History, (Pa), Page 149, Land Warrants, 12-16-1735. Surveys 4/15/1738 in Pennsboro Twp., Lancaster County, now Southampton Twp., Franklin County, occupied by William Young. He was a Taxable of Lurgin Twp. Franklin County, (then a part of Cumberland County), in 1755. (from the Shen Valley District).

Mrs Albert McCalla, (Nancy Eleanor Hamill---H-125-6---Mother of the Compiler), (who was a Grand-daughter of Mary Young who married John MacCandless) said that William Young, Jr. (Y-21) wrote letters about his longing to be "back in my home in Head-of-Blk (Blkton) and Baltimore," and saying he wished he had never left it, and come into the wilderness of Western Pennsylvania. He wrote this after some children had been killed by Indians. Mrs Albert McCalla also spoke of seeing many letters written by these Youngs visiting "Cousins" in various parts of Penna, such as Lancaster, etc. They seemed to travel and visit a lot. This does not alter the fact that we believe that in general, they came West to the Shen Valley Penna. district about 1800. Irrespective of where some of them lived or visited in the interim, we believe that they came originally from Baltimore, Md., (where we believe they had a town house), and from Head-of-Blk (Blkton), Md., (where we believe they had an estate or farm). We do not know the approximate time of their leaving Baltimore. Bear in mind that Capt. (?) William Young, Jr. (Y-21) was born at Head-of-Blk, Md. in 1745., and that his daughter, Mary Young, (Y-213) was born in Baltimore in 1791. This would certainly indicate, that irrespective of where some of them may have lived, died, visited or stayed in the interim, that they were using the Baltimore-Blkton vicinity as headquarters, at least in 1745, and as late as 1791. The latter date is 3 or 10 years before they appeared in the Shen Valley District, (at Blkington, etc), Penna.

The Shen Valley, Penna. District: This includes such towns as Williamsburg, Wilmington, which has now grown to be Newcastle, Pa, and where Hoshannock Cemetery is located. It includes also the towns of Mt Jackson, Shen Valley, New Galilee, Penna, etc. The Cemetery at Shen Valley, Pa, contains (3/5/1941)

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

BY

W. H. CHAPMAN

Author of "The History of the United States of America," "The History of the United States of America," etc.

The history of the United States of America is a story of the growth of a great nation from a small colony of English settlers. The first settlers came to the New World in search of a better life, and they found it. They built a new society, one of freedom and opportunity, and they made it a great power. The story of the United States is a story of the struggle for freedom, of the fight for the rights of the individual, and of the triumph of the American spirit. It is a story of the growth of a great nation, of the development of a great people, and of the achievement of a great dream.

so many of these Youngs, buried side by side with their Kinfolks, the Elders-Stuarts (Stewarts)-Scotts, with whom they have intermarried for hundreds of years in America, in Ireland and Scotland. The Shen Valley District also includes Bethel Church, where Mary Young (Y-213) is buried with her husband, John MacFarlane.

According to family legend, and to the best knowledge of the Compiler, these of our Youngs came, supposedly originally from Ayr, Scotland. There they were near their Kinfolk, the Elders, who lived in nearby Eilerslie and Paisley, Scotland. They were said to have been Baronets and wealthy land owners. Later, supposedly, they were wealthy ship owners, and are said to have been friends of the Calverts, Lords Baltimore, and were said to have brought over many of his colonists. There is a rumor, not authenticated, that at one time some of them lived in the same city in Southern England, near Cowes and the Isle of Wight, where the Calverts lived, at the period when they were ship owners.

As ship owners, however, they brought over many Youngs, and others, in some cases without charge. They also brought over the McCormick Family, (of Deapor fame), who afterwards settled in Virginia, and in later years came to Chicago. History says that they brought them over without charge, refusing to "indent" them, or to have their ears punched as a sign of indebtedness or indenture, because, (as history quotes our Youngs), the McCormicks were such "good, Christian people."

Youngstown, Ohio, was founded by Judge John Young, of the Worcester, Mass., and Peterboro, N.H. Youngs, (family "J") who visited our Youngs at Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna, and with their aid, founded Youngstown, O.

LETTER FROM MRS J. H. BERG:

"4/13/1951 - YOUNG FAMILY - Copies to Mr Paul H. McCalla, 2380 Cottage Gr-ove Ave, Chicago, and to Mr George W. Hemphill, 929 Ontario St, Oak Park, Ill. From Egle's Notes and Queries Annual Volume 1899: William Young, (Sr- Y-A-2) who died there that year, in 1753 is mentioned in the list of taxables of the Township of Turgan, Franklin County, then a part of Cumberland County, in the year of 1753. From the records of Cumberland County, Letters of Ad-ministration were granted March 6, 1753 to John Davis, and Elizabeth Young, (Y-A-22) on the Estate of William Young, (Sr-Y-A-2), deceased.

In the release of John Young (3rd-Y-A-25) and wife Elizabeth of Southampton Twp, Franklin Co, Penna, to William Young, (Sr-Y-A-21) of the above mentioned location, of a certain tract of land that was agreed for by my late father, William Young, (Sr-Y-A-2) and Richard Peters, Esq, and conveyed by said Richard Peters since my father's death to the present William Young, (Sr-Y-A-21), parties or eldest son to the said William Young, (Sr-Y-A-2) deceased; bearing the date of June 6, 1761. The above release is dated August 10th, 1804. From the release and deeds are found the names of six children of Will-iam Young, (Sr-Y-A-2): William, Jr (Y-A-21); John (Y-A-25); Elizabeth (Y-A-22), who married John McConnell; Margaret (Y-A-23) who married Andrew Hemphill; unknown (a girl named "Giles" Y-A-24) who married Daniel Maynaker; and another un-known daughter (????).

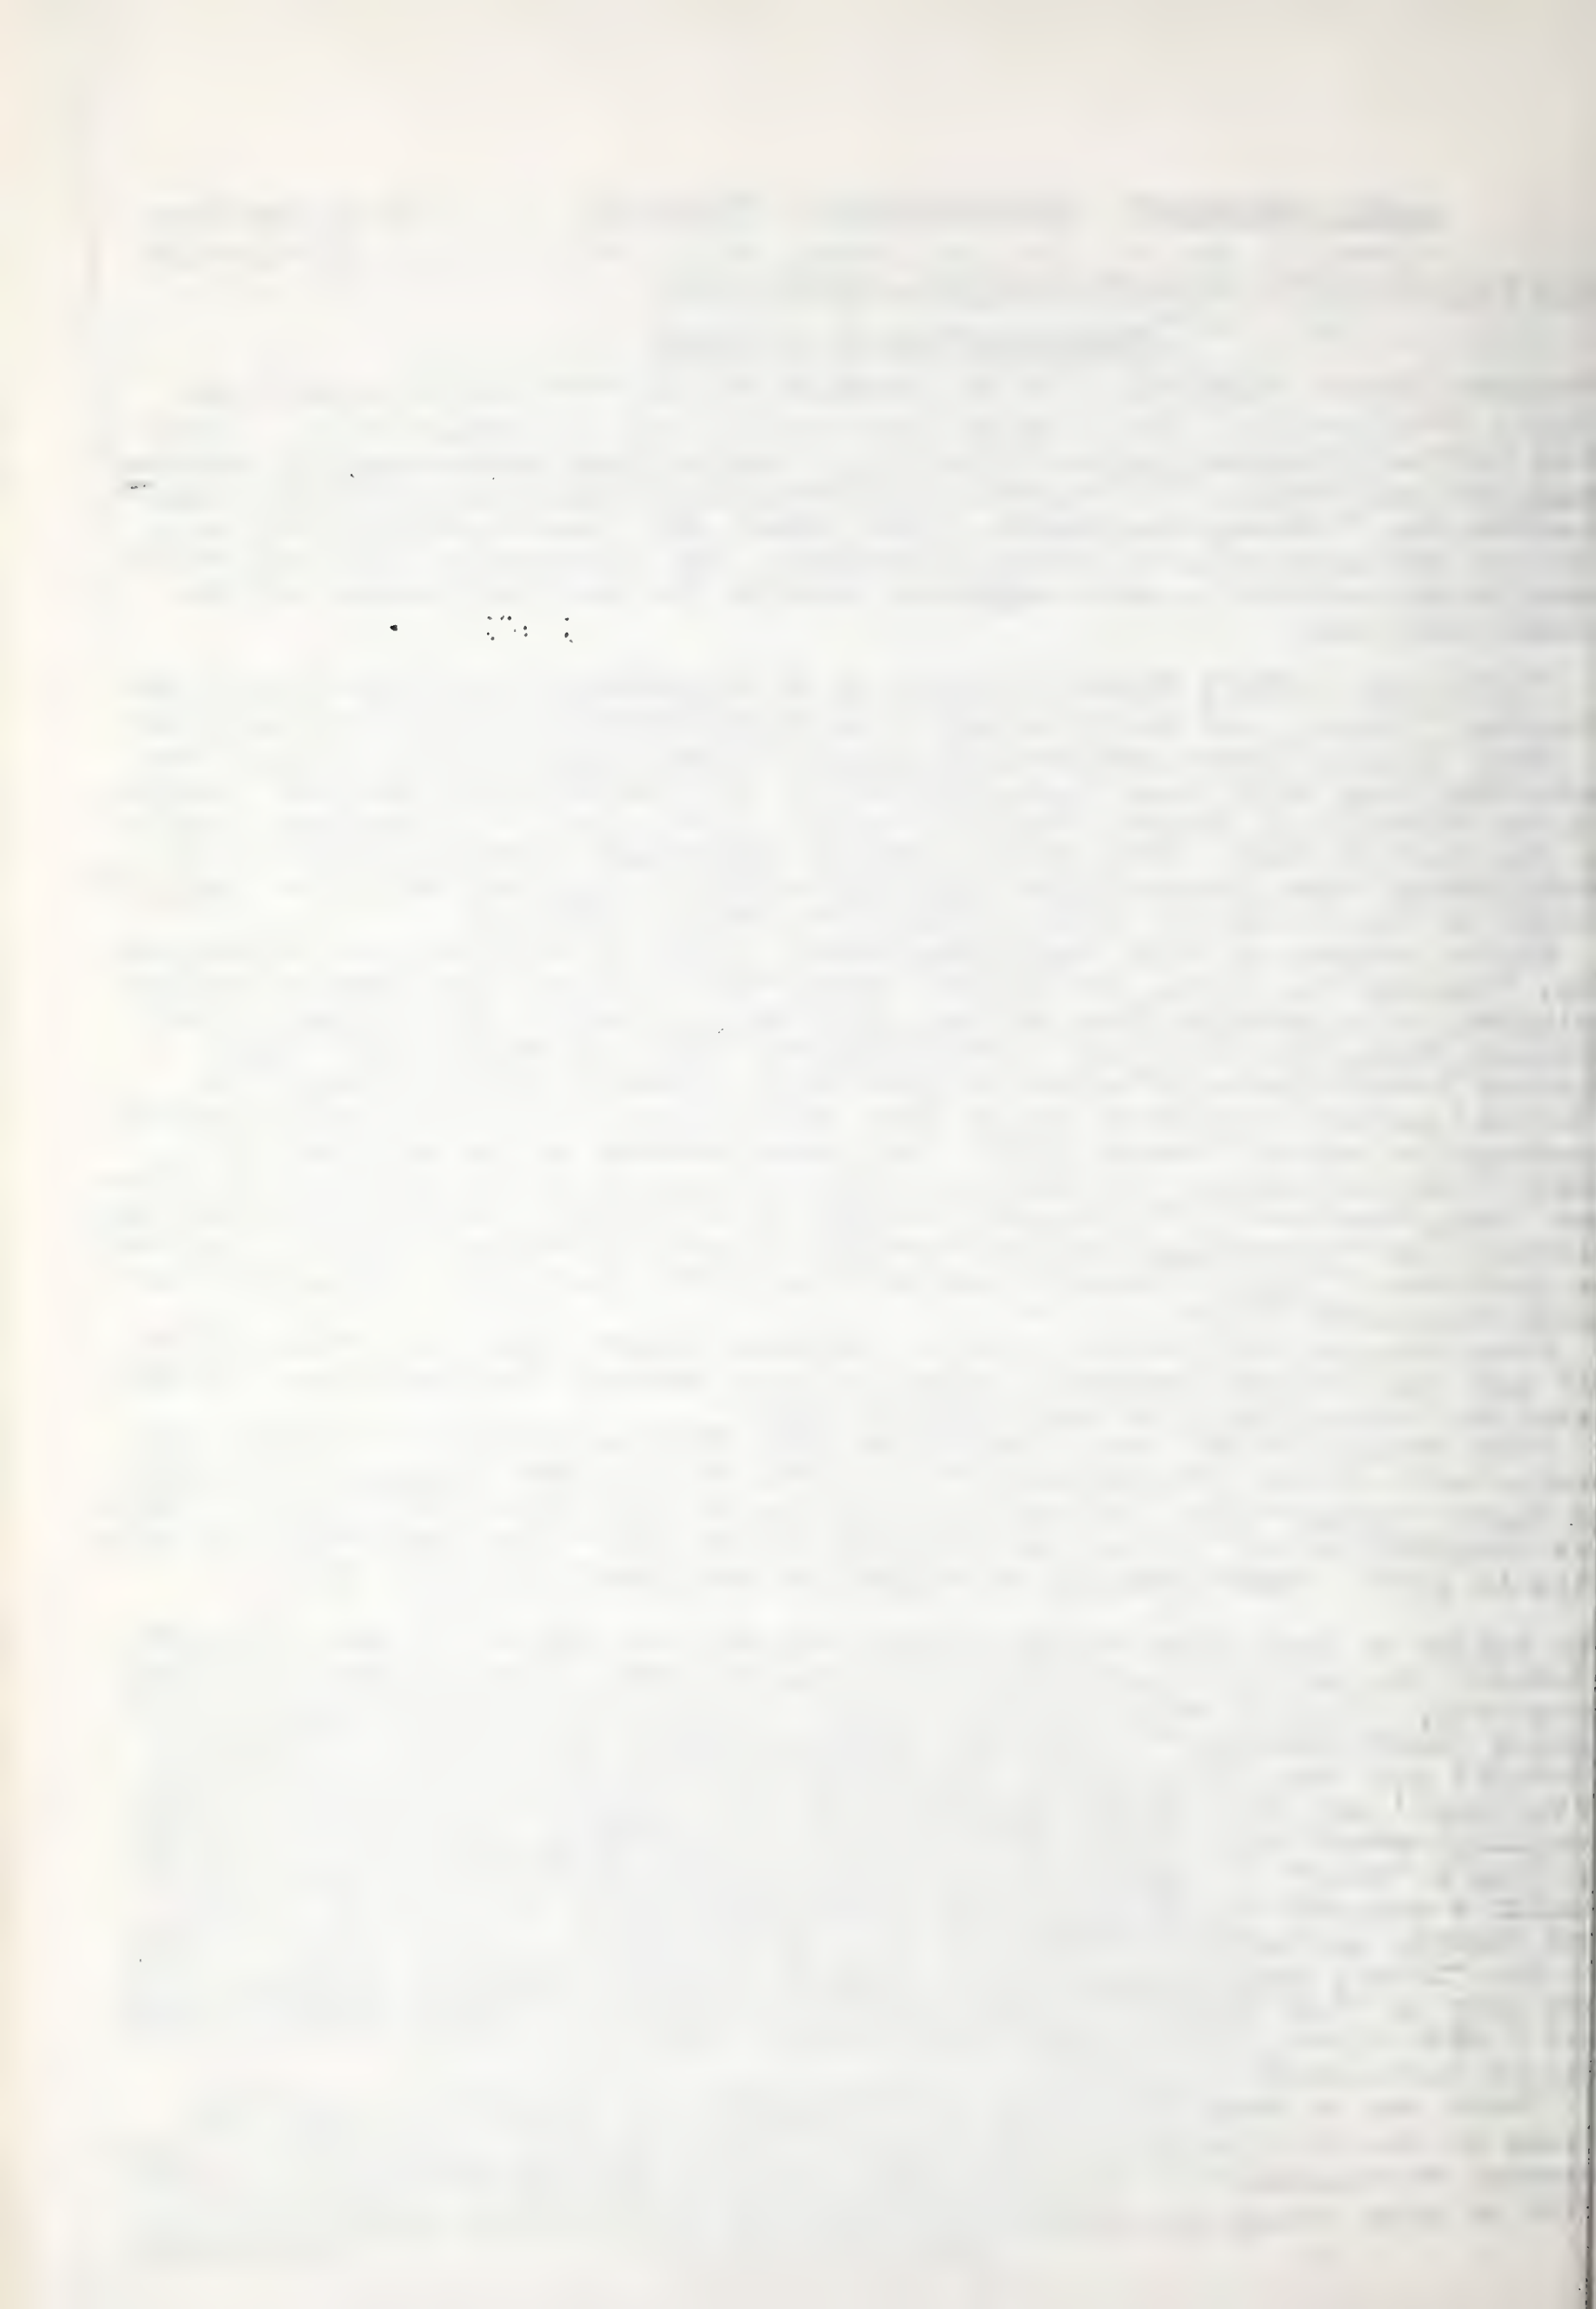

From time to time, it is shown in Franklin County Deeds that William (Y-A-21) and John (Y-A-25) bought in their sister's shares. The Plantation was sit-uated in Turgan Twp, Franklin County, (Penna).

John Young, (Y-A-25) was a Private in Col. William Irvine's Regiment, 6th Penna Batt. of the Revolutionary War. He was in the 3rd Company, commanded by Capt. Abraham Smith, and mustered into service in January (???) 1776. And-rew Hemphill (Y-A-23) served as a Private in the 1st Batt., Cumberland Co. Mil-itia in 1777. John McConnell was Capt. in Cumberland Co. Batt. 1776.

The writer of this note wanted to know who was the wife of William Young, Sr, (Y-A-2). You may both have this reference, but since I had to copy it for my note book, I may as well make you a copy. The deed you found in the Franklin County Court records, Mr Hemphill, which was dated Oct 7, 1779; Elizabeth (Y-A-22) and John McConnell of Cumberland County, Penna, release to William, (Jr-Y-A-21) and John Young (3rd-Y-A-25) of the same place. Witnesses: Andrew Hemphill (Y-A-23) and Robert McConnell. It was evidently on the deeds mentioned in Egle's Notes. I was going to see if we have the Court records here for it wouldn't surprise me if 1783 would record the release of Margaret (Y-A-23) and Andrew, to William (Y-A-21) and John Young (Y-A-25). As the song sounded at the library last night, I had a book of early Pennsylvania baptisms, and had come to Mary Young (Y-A-215), daughter of William Young (Sr-Y-A-2) baptized but I didn't have time to find the place or date. I'll get it next time. She may be the unknown daughter.

There was at least one other Andrew Hemphill in Penna during the late years of the 18th Century, and I suspect that he might be the father of your Andrew, Mr Hemphill. He was a Methodist Minister in York County, Penna from 1781 to 1819. Since the list of your Andrew's children was copied from the (???) (???) (???) (5/20/1951).

fly-leaf of a book of Sermons, it seems logical. I have never been able to find anything more about him - but I have a note jotted down which reads:
"Rev. Andrew Humphill died Aug 27, 1887, age 60. Buried at Donald, 8/27/1887.
Rev. Humphill lived in Baltimore County, Maryland."

- There is nothing here that we didn't know, unless it may establish a general date of the young man's residence in Franklin County, (Penn.), but I thought it worth telling. Very truly yours, Emma M. Lang, 2531 Chamberlin Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin.

Captain William (A?) Young, Jr, (Y-A-21) was a Farmer. Some say he had the middle initial of "A" (?). He lived near Indian Run, Wilmington (Newcastle), then in Mercer Co, now in Lawrence Co, Penna. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was born at Head-of-Elk, (Elkton), Maryland, and lived there and in Baltimore, Md - probably until after 1791-2 - after which he moved on west to Morgan Township, Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna. From there, he moved further west to Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna - about 1797-1800.

This family were Protestants - probably Presbyterians - and should not be confused with the Baltimore Roman Catholic Youngs, who were of French descent. (See Family N-Young Section).

HAMILL GENEALOGY - YOUNG SECTION - FAMILY A:

Date Page on CAPT. WILLIAM YOUNG, JR. - MARY ELDER.

(1905) - by Dr Thomas Alexander Elder, M.A., M.D., (Elder A-221-23), Wooster, Ohio.)

"William Young, and John, his brother, who married Elizabeth Elder, were sons of William Young and Mary White. William Young lived in Murgan Township, Franklin County, Penna, in 1753. His other children were Elizabeth, married John McConnell; Margaret, married Andrew Hemphill; and Gilsey, married Daniel Slaymaker.

William Young, Jr, and his Young Family: The Young Family had a town house in Baltimore, Md, and a Farm or Estate at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Md. William Young, Jr (Y-A-21), was probably a Farmer at Elkton, and may also have been in business in Baltimore. After he finally settled at Wilmington Penna, he was a Farmer. His daughter, Mary Young, (Y-A-213), was said to have been born in Baltimore in 1791, whereas her Father, William Young, JUNIOR (Y-A-21), was said to have been born in Elkton in 1743. This Young Family probably left Baltimore shortly after 1791-2 - after the birth of Mary - and moved West to Murgan Township, Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna. There were probably Uncles and Aunts of Wm. Young, JR, there - for the Father, William Young, SENIOR, (Y-A-2), had died there in Murgin Township way back in 1753, and these Baltimore Youngs were evidently going back and forth from Baltimore to Murgan Twp. Also, many of their Elder relatives lived in Pennett Township, near Murgan Twp. (See Pages A-2, A-12 & A-21 in ) (Family A, and Page B-5 in Family B, in the Elder Section).

It is also probable that the Wm. Young, JR, family moved on West to Indian Run, Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna, between 1797-1800. The other brother, John Young, (Y-A-25), did not move to Wilmington, Pa, until 1804. However, it is highly probable that various Young children left Elkton and Balto, Md, in previous generations, and settled at Murgan Twp, Penna, and that there was much visiting back and forth between the latter place and Baltimore-Elkton, Md. Also, that when the Youngs left Balto - say after 1791-2 - that they spent several years in or near Murgan Twp, before going on West to settle at Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna. There are traces of our Balto. Youngs visiting at many points in Penna - evidently with relatives - but their movements are not known. There is need for much Research on the Youngs-Elders at Baltimore and Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Md, and also in Cumberland (now Franklin) County, Penna. (Note by The Compiler-3/29/1948).

The MacCandless Family records speak of Mary Young, (Y-A-213), as being born in Baltimore, Md. They also speak of Mary Young as living in Cumberland Valley, Penna, (now in Franklin County), and between Shippensburg and Strasburg. This would be South of Chambersburg. Her Father, Wm. Young, Jr, (Y-A-21), was in the Revolutionary War, and married Mary Elder, daughter of David Elder, who was a Justice of the Peace. Mary Young died near Mon Valley, Penna, of heart disease, at 70-77 years of age. (See Page 4-5 Family A) (MacCandless Section).

Misc. Claims: It is also claimed that Wm. Young, JR (Y-A-21), was born in Scotland - but this is extremely doubtful.

HAMILL GENEALOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

OUR OWN YOUNG FAMILY "A"

Date Sheet on CAPT. WILLIAM (A1) YOUNG, JR. To Follow Page Y-21.

Capt. William (A1) Young, Jr. (Y-A-21), was a Farmer. He served in the Penna. Militia in the Revolutionary War, and was at the Battle of Red-bank (Blkton), Maryland. It is said that he advised General Washington not to go to Red-bank, but Washington went anyhow, and the battle was lost.

The soldiers led by Capt. William Young in the Revolution came again to him at the time of the War of 1812 and said: "Captain, here be your men, ready to serve. Where ye lead, we follow." In the War of the Revolution, William, and his brother, John Young, (Y-A-25), were captured and held on the Prison Ship "Jersey," and were rescued, more dead than alive, sucking bones when found. It is said that they were both badly stooped over in after life in consequence, as the prison ship decks were only a few feet high---not tall enough to stand up straight. Certain family legends also say that William and John Young were half brothers, their father having married the 2nd time, but there is no other verification of this legend. Mrs. Smith Hamill (H-125) is said to have told her daughter, Lattie Hamill (Mrs. Robt. G. Horne) that William and John Young were also held prisoners at Ft. Mifflin(?) in the Rev. War. It may be that they were held for a brief time at this fort before being transferred to the Prison Ship Jersey.

William Young is said to have been a friend of General George Washington, and it is said that Washington's Diary has an entry something like this: "William Young invited to dinner tonight. 7 bbls. of rum delivered to cellar." The juxtaposition of these two items in the diary has caused considerable laughter in our family circles.

William Young's rifle, used in the Revolutionary and 1812 Wars, was in the possession of Joseph Stuart Young, of Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna., about 1824-30. A picture of this rifle is shown in the introduction to this Young Section of the Hamill Genealogy. The authenticity of the picture and of the rifle was vouched for by W. Y. Small of St. Charles, Iowa, and Mrs. Marnie Marks, of Blockton, Iowa.

Mary Elder is said to have come from Baltimore, although the Elder Genealogy shows her parents, David Elder-Margery Stewart, as being buried at Dry Run, Penna., with the supposition that they lived there. Her father, David Elder, was a Justice of the Peace (and Farmer), and is said to have been educated in Edinburgh (according to family legends). The father of this David Elder is said to have been a James Elder, who was of the older family of Stuarts, who therefore took the name Elder. The Compiler often wonders if the name Young might, in the same fashion, be really the younger family of the Stuarts, so taking the name Young. However, this has never been suggested by historians, so far as the Compiler knows. Mary Elder, according to family legend, came from Baltimore to Penna.

It is thought that a part of these Baltimore Youngs, of earlier generations, secured a grant of land from William Penn in what is now the city of Philadelphia, and became the Philadelphia branch of the Young "A" Family, which is listed in the Young Section as the "B" Family. At the present, this is just family legend, but some day we hope it will be proven.

It is also thought that another part of these Baltimore "A" Youngs went to Loudoun County, Virginia (across the river from Maryland), and became Young Family "C", whose data is listed in this Young Section of the Hamill Genealogy. These Youngs then moved from Virginia to Cumberland Ohio, and then to Washington and West Chester, Iowa. One of these earliest known Youngs married a Nancy Jane Humphrey, and in the Elder Genealogy you will note many other intermarriages with Humphreys, particularly on Page 31.

Dear Sirs:

I am pleased to inform you that the manuscript of the paper entitled "The Role of the Hydroxyl Radical in the Oxidation of Organic Compounds" has been accepted for publication in the JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY. The paper will appear in the issue of the JOURNAL dated 15 MAY 1978.

The paper is the result of a collaborative effort between the Department of Chemistry, University of Chicago, and the Department of Chemistry, University of Illinois at Chicago. The work was supported by the National Science Foundation, Grant No. CHE-7610000.

I am sure that the paper will be of interest to the readers of the JOURNAL. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or comments.

Sincerely,

Mary Young's (Y-A-213) spinning wheel, which was brought at least from Baltimore, and most likely from Scotland, England or N. Ireland, was carried into Western Penna. at Wilmington (Newcastle), Pa. about 1797-1800. Mary Young's daughter, Nancy Melancthan Macandless (Mrs Smith Hamill) (H-125), brought it down the Ohio and up the Mississippi, to Keokuk, Iowa. She, in turn, gave it to her daughter, Nancy Eleanor Hamill (Mrs Albert McCalla-H-125-3) of Chicago, where it is today, (8/25/1941), in the possession of her daughter, Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-31), and her son, Paul H. McCalla (H-125-66)--the Compiler of this Genealogy, at 2316 Columbus Ave, Chicago, Ill. This spinning wheel is considered to be at least 250 years old, and is well preserved.

Jane McGuffey, (wife of David Young--Y-A-212), born near Goltsville, Ohio, a daughter of Alexander McGuffey and a sister of Wm McGuffey, the authors of the McGuffey Readers, and Alex McGuffey, the author of the Spelling Book of that name. (From Elder Genealogy--Page 4).

A descendant of these Young-Elders is William E. Keop of Detroit, Mich, who is the daughter of William John Keop of Detroit, and Grand-daughter of Rev. Theodore Keop, one of the founders of Oberlin College, at Wooster, Ohio. On her mother's side, she was descended from a Mary Young (Elder Genealogy #4) and her husband, Robert Stewart (Elder Genealogy #146), both of whom are buried at Mercer, Penna. This Helen E. Keop wrote Mrs Albert McCalla, (H-125-3) on 6/1/1902, that a descendant of William and Mary Elder Young was living at Grove City, Penna, in 1902, and was visiting a family named Munnell, at Mercer, Penna. This Helen E. Keop has done much research on Elder and other lines, but knows little about Young Family history.

There is a Margaret Elder, who has always been considered as a "Cousin" of the McCallas (the family of the Compiler), and they have visited back and forth for years. This Margaret Elder married Prof. William Ernest Weld, DD, who is now, 1941, President of Wells College, Aurora, New York, which is one of the leading and most fashionable colleges for women. Rev. Weld and Margaret for years were missionaries for the Presbyterian Church in India, and later he was a Professor at Columbia University, New York. Margaret's father was Prof. Thomas A. Elder, of Oberlin College Wooster, Ohio, who in 1906, compiled the Elder Genealogy, upon which much of our Young records are based. Margaret's daughter, Helen Weld, was named for the Compiler's sister, Helen Wayne McCalla, and the latter has given to Helen Weld many little family trinkets and mementoes, thus passing back to the Youngs-Elders many remembrances that came down from earlier day Youngs.

There is a very beautiful Will that was found, concerned with one Lazema Stuart (Stewart) and Linnival, his wife. This Lazema is supposedly related to Mary Elder, wife of Capt. Wm Young, Jr (Y-A-21), and he may have been an Uncle or Grandfather of Mary's. This Lazema left a remarkably beautiful Will, leaving to Linnival, among other things, "1 Cattle," which is a quaint way of phrasing it. The original memo of this Will has been lost, but the Compiler also remembers that it left her too, the "bald faced mare" which she had been accustomed to drive. The Will also speaks in the most beautiful terms, of the trust Lazema felt in his wife, and of her love for him.

There is also a family tale, probably referring to Capt. Wm Young, Jr. (Y-A-21), or possibly to his Father, and concerning their two famous slaves, Peg and Bob, (who are buried at Westhammock Cemetery). He suggests that Peg and Bob be transferred to Penna, and Penna thereby made into a slave holding state, and promptly got himself into a peck of trouble, as Pennsylvania did not like the slave idea.

Data Page on CAPT. WILLIAM YOUNG, JR. - MARY ELDER:
PARKS LIVINGIA LOCALITY:

Some old records list the marriage of Mary Elder-Capt. Wm. Young, Jr., in 1777 as occurring in Mercer Co., Penna (now Wilmington (Newcastle), and now in Lawrence County). However, 1777 was Indian time he came to Lawrence Co. So it must have occurred either in Maryland, or more likely at the bride's home in Dry Run, Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. The Baltimore Youngs (Family A) evidently did a lot of travelling and visiting. It is probable that some of the Baltimore Youngs branched off and went to such places as York, Carlisle, Lebanon, etc., in Penna - and that some went to settle with their Elder kinfolk here in Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) might have been visiting among these Young-Elder kinfolk at Dry Run, (and other nearby places), and might have met and married Mary Elder. Through Elder-Young sources, we have the correct date of the marriage as 1/30/1777 - not just as 1777, as the Elder Genealogy gives it.

The MacCandless records, (See Data Page A-5-Family A-MacCandless Section), speak of Mary Young as being born in, and as coming from (probably living there for a time) Cumberland Valley, Penna, in Franklin Co., and between Shipensburg and Strasburg. Mary Young (Y-A-213) was the daughter of Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21, and Elder A-21). This would be North of Chambersburg, East of Fannetsburg (Fannett Twp), and N-E of Dry Run. Remember that Wm. Young, Senior (Y-A-2), was evidently on a visit from Baltimore to his kinfolk, or to one of his children, and died there in Cumberland, now Franklin Co., in Lurgan Township - in 1755. Search should be made for Youngs in that locality - for many missing Young records could probably be found.

The exact time of the Youngs' coming to Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna, is not clear. It was sometime around 1797-1800. In the early days, pioneers often went ahead to "spy out the land" for 1 or 2 years before they brought their families to settle. We know that Mary Young (Y-A-213) was born in Baltimore in 1791 - so the family must have been there then. We know that some of them were in Wilmington in 1797, because Judge John Young (of Young Family J), secured their help (as told in Family Legends) when he founded Youngstown in 1797. However, the Judge first left his home at Whitestown, NY, and came to what later became Youngstown, Ohio, the year before - in 1796. He came ahead to spy out the land, too, and it is probable that Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) was also there at nearby Wilmington, Penna, in 1796, also to similarly spy out his own land.

We have many references to our Baltimore Youngs as being at various points in Penna - notably at Dry Run and at Fannett's Twp, Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. Remember that Capt. Wm. Young, Senior (Y-A-2) died there in 1755, in Lurgan Township. So it would seem probable that our Baltimore Youngs came by easy stages to Western Penna. They may have left Baltimore in say 1792, and may have spent several years in the vicinity of Dry Run and Fannett's Twp. and Lurgan Twp - while the menfolk prepared the ground, built cabins, etc., at Wilmington. Then they may have finally assembled at Wilmington, Penna, say from 1796 to 1800. But during the intervening 8 years, from say 1792 to 1800, they should be searched for in these Franklin Co., Penna, localities.

Miss Helen E. Keop, (see adjoining Data Page) speaks of these Youngs as coming to Indian Run, near Wilmington, Penna. She says they are buried at the Neshannock Cemetery, 6 miles North of what is now Newcastle. She says Mary Young died near Indian Run, Penna, at about 70-77 years of age.

MISS KEEP'S DATA on WILLIAM YOUNG, JR. (Y-A-21):

(On 3/7/1930, Miss Helen Elizabeth Keep, (Y-A-21) (See also Elder Sect(ion-Page 35), of 2247 E. Jefferson Ave, Detroit, Mich. wrote the Compiler
(the following information. In some points, it does not agree with our (records. So see below the Compiler's Notes on these differences.

" WILLIAM YOUNG, (Some say John Young), Married: MARY WHITE.

"Traditions say that the Youngs were shipwrecked on the way to America, that they went to Wyoming Co, Penna, and were in the massacre there. William is said to have been killed by Indians in Luzerne Co, Penna, but lived in Lurgin Twp, Franklin Co, Penna. Children were:

1-WILLIAM YOUNG (Jr) Married: MARY ELDER (Sister of Elizabeth)
2-JOHN YOUNG Married: MARY ELDER (Sister of Mary).

Born: 7/1746 (Mercer Co, Pa) Born:
Died: 2/16/1826 (80 yrs old) Died: 5/15/1825 (63 years old).

The Youngs moved to Indian Run (Wilmington), Penna, and died there. Are buried in the old Meshannock Church yard, near Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna.
Meshannock is 6 miles North of Newcastle, which is at the North end of the Mon Valley of Penna. JOHN YOUNG was a Private in the 6th Inf of Penna, under Col. William Irvine. He was a Captain of Abram Smith's Co in the Revolutionary War, enlisting 2/4/1776. His brother, William Young, was also in the Revolution.

21-MARY YOUNG Married: ROBERT STEWART.
Born: 1785, Died: 1827. Born: 9/17/1781, Died: 1861.

3-ELIZABETH YOUNG Married: JOHN McCONNELL.

4-MARGARET YOUNG Married: ABRAHAM McFARLANE.

5-GRACE YOUNG Married: DAVID McFARLANE.

Gravestones at Indian Run, Meshannock Cemetery, near Wilmington, Pa.

(1) "William Young, died 12/27/1830" (21) "Mary, wife of William Young, died in the 80th year of his age" Oct. 5th, 1836, in the 85th year of her age.

(2) "Beneath this stone lies the body of John Young, who departed this life in the 80th(?) year of his age, Feb'y 16th, 1826."

(2) "Elizabeth Young, consort of John Young, who departed this life in the 63rd year of her age, May 15th, 1825.
Be ye also ready."

COMPILER'S NOTE: That is news about the possibility of a shipwreck - and going to Wyoming County - and William being killed by Indians. We have always believed they were in Baltimore and Elkton, Md, and branched off to other Penna points in succeeding generations.

Miss Keep lists John Young as born in Mercer Co, Penna. We have always believed he was born in Baltimore or Elkton, Md. He did not go to Mercer County, (Wilmington-now in Lawrence Co), Penna, until 1804.

We never heard of a Mary Young in this family or generation. The Mary Young-Robert Stewart she lists (and she gives the correct dates) is an entirely different Mary Young. The Mary Young she lists is of a later generation, and is described on page 30 of the Elder Genealogy - and is a daughter of John Young, (Y-A-25).

The copies of the Gravestones are very interesting. William Young, Jr's date of death is correct, but if he died at 80, this would make him born in 1740 - while we believe he was born 12/23/1743. Mrs Wm. Young, Jr (Mary Elder)
- if died at 85, would be born in 1853 - but we have her birth as 1857.

ogy-Page 35)-2247 East Jefferson Ave, Detroit, Michigan.

7/15/1926.

Paul Marill McCalla, who is a descendant of Capt. William Young, who was born at Head-of-Elk, Maryland, 10/23/1743, was a citizen of Maryland and Pennsylvania, and died at Wilmington, Penna, 8/5/1836 (buried at Washannock Cemetery, Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna.)

Revolutionary Record:

Was in Revolutionary War with brother, Capt John Young. Was a Private 7/8/1776, 8/9/1776. Also served with Capt. Moses Carson's Co. to Range Frontiers. Served in the Penna Militia. Was at Battle of Head-of-Elk. He and brother were personal friends of Washington, and are mentioned in Washington's Diary, such as: "William Young invited to dinner tonight. 7 bbls of rum delvd. to cellar." At battle of Head-of-Elk, he advised Washington not to go there, but Washington went on, and battle was lost. William and John were prisoners on Prison Ship Jersey, and were rescued more dead than alive, sucking bones when found. They were badly stooped over in after life in consequence. Afterward, in War of 1812, the men led by William Young came to him and said: "Captain, here be your men, ready to serve. Where ye lead, we follow." This William Young served in the Revolutionary War, and his gun is in the possession of Joseph Stuart Young, and vouched for by W.Y. Small of St Charles, Iowa, and Mrs Nannie Marks, Blockton, Iowa.

Additional facts on the family

The Youngs were Scotch, and were wealthy land owners in North Ireland, from whence they came to America, and settled in Maryland. They moved to Mercer County, Penna., about 1800. They are also said to have been Baronets. They were Presbyterians, and were involved in the Roman Catholic persecutions and came to America to escape them. Were at one time also said to have had large land holdings in Philadelphia.

The MCGUFFEY READERS and SPELLERS:

(From: The Chicago Sunday Tribune-9/20/1947-"When Chicago Was Young" Column (by Helma Clark. (A letter by Martha Freeman Amund, omitted this week, will appear next Sunday).

"I hold in my hand - a calf bound volume about 7 by 4 inches in size, its cover decorated with roughly drawn pictures and with the name "S.J. Medill" scrawled more than once. The book, copyrighted in 1848, is now in the possession of Col. Robert R. McCormick. Samuel J. Medill was born in Stark County Ohio, in 1841, and at the age of 9 entered the printing office of his brother Joseph, who was publishing the Coshocton, (O), Republican. Printers ink was in his blood and when he was still a youth he was working on the Daily Forest City of Cleveland. He caught his education when he could, as did many of the young people of his time. He had some schooling in Canton, Ohio, and he put his name, with the address, "Canton," in this book. In 1859 he came to Chicago and worked in the office of the "Northwestern Prairie Farmer. He had a brief war experience, and later two years at Beloit College. He was at one time Sports Editor of the Chicago Tribune. Later, under his brother Joseph, he became Managing Editor. He died in 1883.

Such briefly is the history of the man who as a boy studied the old McGuffey's Fourth Reader, one of a series which moulded the character of the youth of America in the middle and latter half of the 19th century. It was used even later, for Carey Orr, Tribune Cartoonist, tells me he studied McGuffey's Readers in a country school near Lima, Ohio. He can quote the lessons about "Hugh Idle," who learned that idleness doesn't pay.

Now for the man who wrote these famous books. William Holmes McGuffey (1800-1873), born in Washington County, Penna, was an educator of note, and held important positions in colleges in Ohio and Virginia, but it is as the compiler of "Readers" that he is best known. It is estimated that there were 122 million copies of his books sold. (These included a "Speller," which his brother, Alexander, wrote). The books proclaimed the reward of virtue and the punishment of vice. Every lesson had a moral attached. But they also offered the young reader selections from the classics, and gave him a taste of good literature.

The book studied by Samuel Medill contained, as its title page states, "Elegant Extracts in Prose and Poetry." Among the authors whose contributions were used are: Bryant, Longfellow, W.P. Willis, Mrs Hemans (who wrote "The Landing of The Pilgrims"), "Miss Edgeworth" (lady authors apparently didn't like to have their first names used), and "Miss Beecher," presumably either Catherine or Isabella, for both were literary. It was probably the latter (later Isabella Beecher Hooker), as she was a noted educator. Sarah J. Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, also is represented in this book.

Many Bible selections are included in the little volume and a scene from "The Merchant of Venice," in which Shylock demands his pound of flesh. All in all, it seems pretty stiff reading for boys and girls of 11 and 12, especially as it is not illustrated. Samuel Medill did his best to make up for this deficiency by marking it up with ink and altering words, erasing syllables, to give it a different meaning. Thus, the word "Europe," having its first syllable blotted out, becomes "rope," and by taking off the last three letters, the word "heathen" is rendered "heat." The inventive school boy, then as now, could somehow alleviate the boredom of the classroom.

Mark Sullivan in "Our Times" says it is likely that McGuffey is responsible for the reputation of Americans for kindness to animals, since he drove home this lesson in his "Readers." Theodore Roosevelt read McGuffey, for he mentions in one of his speeches, a "McGuffey heroine, named "Maddlesome Mattie," who was always snooping around into other people's belongings, (SEE OTHER SIDE) (1/18/1948).

but who got her come-uppance when she looked into her Aunt's snuff box, and in consequence almost snatched her head off. Mr McGuffey puts it more elegantly, but that was what happened to Lattie.

McGuffey was brought by his parents to Ohio in 1803, where the family settled on a farm near Youngstown. His mother was his earliest teacher, but he was later sent to study with a Presbyterian minister, who taught him Latin. He graduated from Washington College, and at intervals taught school, chiefly in Kentucky. In 1828, he was elected to the chair of Languages at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, and it was while he was on the faculty there that he was asked to compile a series of Readers. In spite of his erudition, he could speak the language of children, and he always tested his moral tales on the youngsters of his acquaintance before putting them in the school books.

From Miami University, he was called to the Presidency of Cincinnati College, and soon began to be known as a speaker on moral and Biblical subjects. Though licensed as a Presbyterian minister, he never took a settled charge, but he often occupied pulpits. For five years, he was President of Ohio College, Athens, Ohio, and then went to the University of Virginia, where he spent the last 20 years of his life. Here he died and was buried on the campus, his grave being long unmarked. It seemed as if he might be forgotten, but in late years interest in his work has been revived, and in June, 1941, a monument was erected in his memory at Oxford, Ohio.

(From: Chicago Sunday Tribune-10/19/1947-"When Chicago was Young" Column, by Herma Clark.

"McGuffey Reader Here. So much interest has been shown in the account of William H. McGuffey and his Readers, that we add the following, which will answer some of the questions asked:

Is there a ready market for old McGuffey Readers? The Readers do not command a high price. There are a good many offered and a trusted book dealer in Chicago tells us that even the first and second Readers, which are most in demand, are sold at $2. a copy, or thereabouts. A book dealer in Marietta, Ohio, has on hand, according to his advertisement just received, sets of these interesting old books (eight volumes) which are reprints of the 1879 edition. The set is $8.75 postpaid. Another dealer in Columbus, Ohio, has the McGuffey books "at a price in the reach of all book lovers." These are reprints, of course, but are identical with the original readers in pictures, texts, etc. We shall be glad to give addresses of these dealers on receipt of stamped, addressed envelope....."

John MacCandless, Sr., was a Farmer, and settled in Beaver Co, Penna, in 1809, near Knox Valley, Penna. He is said to have come from Westmoreland County, and Butler Co, Penna, before that. It is said by some that the family had been shipowners, and had owned docks in Philadelphia (or Penn?). John MacCandless, Sr., was a Soldier in the War of 1812, and was supposedly a Private in the 40th Regiment of Penna, and Sergeant in Capt. David Clark's Co, 136th Penna Regiment. He received Bounty Land in Mahaska County, Iowa. This family was United Presbyterian.

Y-A-213.

The genealogical records furnished by Miss Helen Bliz. Keep (Y-A-253-611), of Detroit, Mich. - speak of these Youngs as settling at Indian Run, at Wilmington, Penna., also near Neshamock Cemetery. Therefore, the vicinity in which they lived may also be spoken of as "Indian Run, near Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna." Wilmington, which they helped found, is now a part of, and has grown to be, Newcastle, Penna.

These Youngs are all buried in Neshamock Cemetery, 3 miles North of Newcastle, Penna. - except that Mary Young MacCandless is buried with her husband in Bethel Church Graveyard, 4 miles North of Shen Valley, Penna.

Mary McCandless's marriage date is also given in some old records as 8/ /1811. This must be a mistake, as her first and only child was born on 10/10/1810. So the date of 12/7/1809, as given in the MacCandless records, is probably the correct date.

Mary Young was said by her daughter, (H-125), to have been a beautiful woman, with dark auburn hair. She was said to have been very bright, and very jolly and kind. Family legends say that Mary Young, before she was 18 years old, became Guardian for 13 neighbor's orphan children. The old laws of that day were that orphan children had their parent's estates seized by the State, and were raised by the State. Three neighbor couples died during a sudden cholera epidemic, leaving 13 orphan children. Mary Young, hearing that these 13 children were about to be taken to Court, indignantly rushed to the Court herself, accompanied by her Negro Nanny, and offered herself as Guardian. Her father, Capt. Wm. Young, Jr., upon hearing of the matter, backed her in her humanitarian efforts, and gave money to finance the work until her inheritance was due on her 18th birthday.

Mary Young rented a home, staffed it with servants, and after her inheritance came, paid all expenses until the children were grown - and able to marry and support themselves. The State of Maryland never paid her back a cent from the Estates of these children's parents - but kept the money. This occurred possibly at Road-of-Elk (Elkton), but more likely in Baltimore, Maryland.

The MacCandless records speak of MARY YOUNG as being born in Baltimore. They also speak of MARY YOUNG as coming from Cumberland Valley, Penna., near Franklin County, and between Middletown and Strasburg. This would be North of Chambersburg. Her father was William Young, Jr., who was in the Revolutionary war, and who married Mary Elder, daughter of David Elder, who was a Justice of the Peace. MARY YOUNG died near Union Valley, Penna., of heart disease, at 76-77 years of age.

William MacCandless, (son of John) had a large family, and moved to Oregon, and all trace has been lost.

Nancy McClellan MacCandless, (daughter of John), who married Smith Hamill (H-125), mother of Eleanor Nancy Hamill (Mrs Albert McCalla-H-125-6), of Keokuk, Iowa, and Chicago, Illinois.

John MacCandless, Jr., moved to Mahaska County, Iowa, on a farm. His wife, Mary Sankey, was a sister or first cousin of Ira Sankey, the famous Evangelist Singer, who was associated with Dwight L. Moody, who did much Revival work as Moody and Sankey. Ira Sankey was also a close friend of Nancy McClellan MacCandless, who married Smith Hamill (H-125).

Jane (Jennie) MacCandless, (daughter of John MacCandless) had 1 daughter, who was Nancy Jane (Jennie) McClellan, who married John Smith Hamill (H-121-3), and who was a member of St Mary's Episcopal Church, Kansas City, Mo. (See Hamill Genealogy, Page H-121-3 for this record). Jane MacCandless, husband, William McClellan, (sometimes spelled MacClelland), was a nephew, or a close relative, of her father's (John MacCandless') first wife, Nancy McClellan.

Dr. Robert MacCandless, MD: His children and place of residence are unknown. Lost all trace.

James Kennedy MacCandless visited at the home of Smith Hamill (Nancy McClellan MacCandless--H-125) in Keokuk, Iowa, but it is not known where he lived.

(See Hamill Genealogy--Page H-125--Also Young Section.)

PARENTS OF JOHN MACCANDLESS.

Robert MacCandless (or William MacCandless???) was supposedly the father of John MacCandless. Birth and death dates are unknown. He married Mary Kennedy, date and place unknown. They had 5 children. The first was James MacCandless, but it is not known when he married. The second child (given name unknown), married a Somerville. The third child, (given name unknown), married a Woolf. The fourth child, (given name unknown), married a Swail. The fifth child was John MacCandless, who married, (1st) Nancy McClellan, and 2nd, Mary Young.

See Penna Archives, 2-3-747, James MacCandless, listed as Sub-Lieut. in York County, Penna, on 5/12/1777.

According to Family Legends, four MacCandless brothers came from Ireland, and landed in America about 8/8/1738. Three of them married three Kennedy sisters. The brothers went from Scotland to Ireland, and from thence to America. They settled in Lawrence and Beaver Counties, Penna., and later in Pittsburgh. As a family, they owned very valuable oil lands which they sold just before oil was discovered, the buyers taking millions of dollars from the property. Before the Revolutionary War the MacCandless family were said to have been prominent, wealthy men. The MacCandless family are also said to have come from Paisley, Scotland. Later they owned a bleaching green in Ireland.

Mary Kennedy is said to have been related to Sir Walter Scott.

Helen Wayne McCaill (sister of the Compiler) says that Grandmother Nancy McClellan MacCandless (Mrs Smith Hamill-H-125) said that Robert MacCandless

(SEE OTHER SIDE)

(4/1/1941)

(who was Father of John MacCandless--H-4-215), came in 1762, to be with elder brothers, who had either been born here, or had been here for some time. We have no other verification of this.

MISC. NOTES ON MacCANDLESS FAMILY.

There is a Dr. O. Hiram MacCandless, M.D., 99th & Wornall Road, Kansas City, Missouri, with offices in the Argyle Bldg.; who is supposedly descended from one of the other original MacCandless brothers. Dr. Hiram is an excellent Physician, and a genial, kindly man, and has several times visited the home of the Compiler (Paul Hamill McCalla) in Chicago, and is interested in family history. He also knew and visited the Keokuk Hamills, who are descended from the MacCandless family. He has a son, Howard Lewis MacCandless, who lives in San Antonio, Texas (in 1931). A partial record of this descent is given in the MacCandless Section of the Hamill Genealogy.

The MacCandless Family of Honolulu, Hawaii: This family are descended from a MacCandless of Pennsylvania, who was one of the best known missionaries in Hawaii, going there with one of the Penna Youngs, who was associated with him. These MacCandlesses are supposedly descended from one of the original MacCandless brothers who emigrated to America. One of these Hawaiian missionaries wrote the Compiler's Mother, Mrs Albert McCalla (Eleanor Nancy Hamill--H-125-C) of Chicago, in 1900, saying that she had a daughter, Amy MacCandless, who wished to get into the Daughters of the American Revolution, and wishing information about the MacCandless Family.

There was a Joseph Archibald MacCandless, who about 1924-1930, was living at 944 North Main Street, Ottawa, Kansas.

to end of Page H-213-3

Smith Hamill was born on the historic old Hamill farm, 3 miles N. of Moon Valley, Lawrence Co., Penna. He is said to have secured his early mercantile training in the store of his Grand-Uncle Cotton or Coffin, in Pittsburg. He founded the S. Hamill Grocery Co., Keokuk, Iowa, Wholesale Grocers and Coffee Roasters--which in 1941 is still going strong after 90 years. It is said to have been founded in 1852. He also helped found the Iowa State Insurance Co., of Keokuk, Iowa. He was also an early member of the Iowa State Legislature from Keokuk.

One version has it that he was married by Rev. James Wright, and another version has it that he was married by Rev. David Lurie, Pastor of the Assoc. Presby. Church, of Beaver Valley Presbytery, Moon Valley, Penna, for those records see: "Hist. of Beaver Co., Penna, Page 463." Another version has it that he was married at Lancaster, Penna--but this is very doubtful.

Sylvia Crawford Franklin, (H-124-13) said: "Smith Hamill taught school for a time at Coal Ridge School House. It is said that he swam the Big Beaver Creek on January 30th (in mid-winter) to marry Nancy M. MacCandleless."

Nancy McClellan MacCandleless: It is said that Nancy MacCandleless' people had helped Carnegie in his younger years. He had a great desire to buy his mother a new heavy silk bombazine dress, and with his first money, he did so. Later he brought his mother to Keokuk, Iowa, and stayed part of the time with Mrs Augusta Milbourne and with the Smith Hamills. He expressed gratitude and spoke proudly of the dress, which she wore. She later told Mrs Milbourne and Mrs Hamill, that the dress was out of style but that she would not think of depriving Andrew of his satisfaction of having been able to buy it for her. Mrs Carnegie, Mrs Milbourne, and Mrs Smith Hamill--all very jolly--laughed greatly over this incident. Years later, as a wealthy ironmaster, Mr Carnegie built and owned the bridge across the Mississippi at Keokuk, Iowa. It is possible that part of the impelling motive for this may have been his early day visit to Keokuk.

Major General D.W. Mac C. Nancy MacCandleless is #34, and Smith Hamill is #130. "Smith Hamill was the founder of Smith Hamill Co., Wholesale Grocers, Keokuk, Iowa. He was a member of the Iowa Legislature in the formative period of the State. He was a broad-minded and philanthropic man, and a patriotic citizen."

The Keokuk, Iowa, home of Smith Hamill-Nancy McClellan MacCandleless was exceedingly hospitable, and was visited by nearly every Hamill-McClellan-Young-Davidson-MacCandleless, etc., who ever came West. It was headquarters for all the Hamills in the West, and Mrs Hamill knew all the ins and outs of family history, and just who was who. What a pity that she did not write it down for the benefit of all our family records.

Born: 4/1/1899 at _____ Born: _____

Died: _____ Died: _____

Matilda C Welsh is a sister of J.A. Welsh, a well-known citizen of Lawrence Co, Penna. She is the daughter of _____ Welsh, who was in the _____ business, who lived at _____, in Lawrence Co, Penna, and his wife (Maiden Name) _____ Welsh. She is the granddaughter of _____ Welsh, who was in the _____ business, who lived in _____ State, _____, and his wife (Maiden Name) _____ Welsh.

Thomas Spears Young was left fatherless when he was 6 years old. He lived in Union Township, Lawrence Co, Penna, and learned the Carpenter trade, which he followed for 25 years. Then he became a farmer in Union Twp, and also in Pawnee County, Kansas, where he lived for 3 years. He belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church of New Castle, Penna, and he was treasurer of Union Twp. School Board for 3 terms. He was a member of Shenango Lodge #195, Odd Fellows at New Castle, Pa, of which he was a member for 35 years.

"Page 898-Thomas S. Young, a representative agriculturalist and prominent and-useful citizen of Union Township, serving at present as treasurer of the Township School Board, was born November 10th, 1847, and is the son of James and Mary Spiers Young. He first of the Young family to come to Lawrence Co, was William Young, his Grandfather, who brought his family from Lancaster Co, Penna, in 1806, and settled on a wild farm in Union Township. Here he built a log house in the woods and set about clearing his land, living for many years in the old pioneer style. James Young, father of Thomas S, was born in Lancaster County. He resided on the homestead farm until his death, in August-1853, leaving his widow with a family of children, three of-whom survive, namely: Joseph, residing in "eshannock Twp; Thomas S. and James S, residing in New Castle. The mother of these children was born in Scotland. She survived her husband until 1895, dying in her 88th year.

Thomas S. Young was left fatherless when he was but 6 years of age, but he was fortunate in having a-capable, wise and frugal mother, and he remained with her in Union Twp, and after he had attended school through boyhood, learned the Carpenter trade. This trade he followed for some 25 years, since giving it up, devoting his attention to farming, both in Union Twp, and in Lawrence Co, (SEE OTHER SIDE). (7/4/1950).

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

FROM THE FIRST SETTLEMENTS TO THE PRESENT TIME

BY JAMES M. SMITH

NEW YORK: PUBLISHED BY J. B. LIPPINCOTT & CO.

Printed by J. B. Lippincott & Co.

The history of the United States is a story of the growth of a nation from a small group of colonies to a great republic. It is a story of the struggles of the people for freedom and justice, and of the triumphs of the American spirit.

The story begins with the first settlers who came to the New World in search of a better life. They found a land of opportunity, but also a land of hardship and danger. They fought for their survival, and for the right to live in peace and freedom.

As the colonies grew, they began to assert their independence from England. They fought the Revolutionary War, and won. They established a new government, and a new way of life.

The story continues with the expansion of the United States across the continent. It is a story of discovery, of exploration, and of the triumph of the American spirit over all obstacles.

The story ends with the present time, when the United States is a great and powerful nation. It is a story of the achievements of the American people, and of the promise of a better future for all.

Kansas, where he lived for 3 years. On June 25, 1878, he was married to Matilda C. Welsh, who is a sister to J.A. Welsh, who is a well-known citizen of Lawrence County. Mr and Mrs Young have 1 daughter, Ida Helen. With his family, Mr Young belongs to the 1st Methodist Episcopal Church at New Castle. In his political views, he is not in perfect accord with any of the great parties, and claims his right to vote independently, as his judgment dictates. He takes a lively interest in public matters, particularly those pertaining to his own section. He is serving his 3rd term as a member of the Union Township School Board, of which he is Treasurer. He belongs to Shenango Lodge #195, Odd Fellows, at New Castle, having been connected with this organization for over 35 years.

Her address is: Mrs J.H. Berg (Bessie Hemphill), 2531 Chamberlin Ave, Madison, Wisconsin. J.H. Berg is in the ----- business.

This Andrew ----- Hemphill had ----- Children; and was in the ----- business.
His last Tax Record was in Franklin Co, Penna, in 1786. He probably left Penna about 1786 and moved to Ohio, but he may have gone by the way of the Carolinas, as his son married a North Carolina girl. He served in the Revolutionary War, (7/31/1777 to 1778) in Capt. Noah Abraham's Co, in defence of Philadelphia.
This data - on the descent of ----- Hemphill - is very scanty, and is based on letters from Mrs J.H. Berg, (Bessie Hemphill), who appears to be a descendent. The letters are given in full, in Hemphill Family
"M" Hemphill Section - MacCalla Genealogy.

A POSSIBLE ERROR:

(Letter to the Compiler - dated 2/10/1952 - from Mrs Joseph H. Berg, (Dessie (Hemphill) (Desc. of Y-A-23 & Hemphill Family "A"), 2531 Chamberlin Avenue, (Madison, Wisconsin.

(Compiler's Note: This letter seemingly indicates that it was another Andrew Hemphill who married Margaret Young. Also that the Andrew Hemphill, (who (was Mrs J.H. Berg's ancestor) had as his wife a Rebecca. The Will lists 4 children, but no James Hemphill was mentioned. This is not final proof of error of these records. Father and son might have had a disagreement, and James might not have been mentioned in the Will for this reason. Only further research will show the facts. Here is the new letter):

(Letter of 2/10/1952): "Dear Mr McCalla: I haven't replied to your letter in which you suggested a numbering system for me to use, but I do thank you. I have started on it. I am sure you will be interested in this from "Your Family Tree," Edited by Frances Strong Helman, Indiana, Penna, Volumes 4 & 5, Page 82. Franklin County, (Penna), Wills. Probated Dec. 26, 1790. Hemphill, Andrew. Wife Margaret. Children: Matthew, Elizabeth, John, Andrew. Executors: William Young, John Young, Thomas Snodgrass, John Knox. I have sent for a copy of the Will and all papers pertaining to it. If there is anything further in it, I'll let you know.

When I first saw that there was no James listed among the children, I was a bit crest-fallen. I have spent so much thought on Andrew and Margaret, I would be very lonely if I found out they had never belonged to me. I think though, it will prove what I have always suspected - that the Andrew on the 1790 Census is a son of the Andrew who went off the tax lists when Margaret went on, and that James and another Andrew born in 1780 are sons of the younger Andrew. I think my Aunt (Mrs Margaret Hemphill Homan - 3rd Generation) must have made her D.A.R. papers out from her father's memory, and he was nearing 80. Having been accepted, she probably never gave them another thought. Once or twice, I have found mention of a Rebecca in her letters as Andrew's wife, but since the D.A.R. record was Margaret, I just thought Rebecca was another maternal ancestor. Now I recall that I was surprised that there was no Dinwiddy in the lineage, for I seem to remember hearing them mentioned.

After hunting for such a long time for some proof of James' death in Richland or Ashland Co., Ohio, I am pretty sure that I have 'stumbled over him' in Van Wert County, Ohio. I was looking for the marriage record of one of his sons who married a Van Wert girl and found a note saying that James Hemphill Administration papers were filed in 1843, but the Probate Clerk has informed me that there are no papers that would prove lineage. The 1840 Census may help if any of the sons had set up homes. I have asked a genealogist to look for proof.

Going back to the children of Andrew Hemphill and Margaret Young. I copied material found in the D.A.R. library, a copy made from the Family Bible of John L. Hemphill, who was born in Penna in 1796, the son of Matthew and Isabel. Once before, I wrote to the present owner, Robert V. Smith, Marion, Ohio, but received no reply. I have written again now, and registered it, asking for a return receipt. I more or less held out the idea that I might know something that he doesn't.

One thing about hunting ancestors, it is always open season and you never run out of them. All I have to do now is to start looking for another Andrew, who is a perfect stranger to me. Thank you again for all the helpful suggestions you have made. Sincerely yours, Dessie H. Berg. (2531 Chamberlin Ave, (Madison, Wisconsin).

(Compiler's Note: The Executors, Wm. & John Young, appear to be the same (as William, (Y-A-21), and John Young, (Y-A-25), in Family A-Young Section- (Hamill Genealogy).

(On 5/7/1930, Miss Helen Eliz. Keep, (Y-A-253-611)-2247 East Jefferson Ave., (Detroit, Mich, sent the following to The Compiler):

"Gravestones at Indian Run, Heshamood, Concord, near Wilmington, Penna:
1) William Young, died 12/27/1830 in the 80th year of his age. 1) Mary, wife of William Young, died Oct. 5th, 1836, in the 83rd year of her age."

2) "Beneath this stone lies the body of John Young, who departed this life in the 80th(?) year of his age, Feby. 16th, 1826."

2) "Elizabeth Young, consort of John Young, who departed this life in the 63rd year of her age, May 15th, 1825. Be ye also ready."

(COMPILER'S NOTES: Miss Keep lists John Young as born in Mercer Co, Penna. We have always believed he was born in Baltimore, or Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland. He did not go to Mercer County, (Wilmington, now in Lawrence Co), Penna, until 1804.

The copies of the gravestones are very interesting. Wm. Young, Jr's, (Y-A-21) date of death is correct, but if he died at 80, this would make him born in 1740 - while we believe he was born 10/23/1743. Ann Wm. Young, Jr, (Mary Elder) - if died at 83, would be born in 1853 - but we have her birth as 1857. The dates on John Young and wife seem to check OK.

(For a more complete record of this, see Data Page Y-A-21).

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORD of CAPT. JOHN YOUNG, (Y-A-25):

(From: Page 26- "Elder Genealogy"): John Young moved from Cumberland Co, Penna, to Mercer Co, Penna, about 1804. He was a Private in Capt. Abraham Smith's Company, Col. William Irvine's Regiment, 6th Battalion Penna Infantry, in Revolutionary War. Enlisted 8/4/1776."

"John Young was a Private in the 6th Inf. of Penna, under Col. William Irvine. He was a Captain(?) of Abram Smith's Co. in the Revolutionary War, enlisting 2/4/1776. His brother, William Young (Jr) was also in the Revolution." (Miss Helen Eliz. Keep-See Page Y-A-21-Young Section).

"State Library of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Penna, 9/30/1895. To Whom it May Concern: I hereby certify that John Young was a Private in Captain Joseph McClellan's Company in the Second Pennsylvania Regiment of the Line; (See Penna Archives, 2nd Series, Volume 10, History of the Penna Line, (Page 450). Yours with respect, William H. Egle, MD, State Librarian and Editor Penna Archives." (See Page Y-A-21-Young Section)."

John Young was captured by the British, with his brother, Capt. William Young, Jr, (Y-A-21), and both were held on the Prison Ship "Jersey." Both were badly stoped over in after life in consequence, and were sucking bones when found. John Young, and his brother William Young, Jr, both also served in the War of 1812. (See also various other records of War service, etc, on pages Y-A-1 and Y-A-21).

(From: "Elder Genealogy"-Pages 50-31): "Robert Stewart was the son of William and Mary Gass Stewart. William Stewart was a First Lieutenant in Col. William Haysen's Regiment, "Congress' Own," in the Revolutionary war, in 1777, he was Adjutant. For his services he was given 200 acres of land in Indian Run, Mercer Co, Penna, where he lived until his death. Robert Stewart was a Private in the War of 1812. The Stewarts, like the Elders and Youngs, were Scotch. William Stewart came from Green Hill, Donegal,, Ireland, about 1750, and settled near Carlisle, Penna.

Mary Gass was the daughter of Benjamin and Eleanor (Galbraith) Gass, whose issue were Prudence, Mary, William and Benjamin. Their Guardians were Benjamin Chambers and John Potter, of Chambersburg, Penna. Benjamin and William Gass, brothers, came to America between 1690 and 1700. They had been tanners, on the River Bann, Ireland. They landed at Philadelphia.

The children of William and Mary Gass Stewart were: John (b 1761, d young); Benjamin (b 1762); Prudence (married ---); Simpson; Galbraith (married Elizabeth Scott-they lived in Washington Co, Pa); John (born 1769); Rebecca (b 1771, married --- Forbes); Mary (b 1774, married James Anderson). Their Grandson, Rev. John Dinsmore, was a Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly; William (b 1778, married Eleanor Knox and settled in Ohio); and Robert (who is Y-A-253). The early Stewarts were all of the Presbyterian faith.

Genealogical References: "Keep Family Genealogy," by Frank E. Best, in the Chicago Public Library, and the Newberry Library, Chicago. "Five Colonial Families," under the heading "Mack." "First Families of America."

The Elders were related to Sir Walter Scott of Buccleuch, and in the Keep Genealogy, it speaks of Elizabeth Elder, who married John Young, (Y-A-25), as being a "Cousin of Sir Walter Scott."

COMPILER'S NOTE: This is the Keep family, of which Mr Chauncey Keep of Chicago was a member. He was a Director of the Continental Illinois National Bank of Chicago, (with which E.A. Marshall (M-262-5) was connected), and also a Director of the National Lead Co., Pullman Co., US Steel Co., and an Executor of the Marshall Field Estate.

The Keep family is one of the finer families of America. They have given so many of their members to the Christian Ministry, or as Missionaries, and they have been active in all types of Christian helpfulness - in Colleges, Hospitals, Orphanages, Old People's Homes, etc. They have likewise been prominent as Financiers, Bankers, Corporation Executives, and in important business fields. Most of them have been Presbyterians or Episcopalians.

The Compiler, in his younger years, was a close friend of the family of Mr Chauncey Keep, especially of his children: Margaret Keep, (Mrs James C. Hutchins, of Chicago), Henry Blair Keep, and Katherine Keep, (Mrs Robert A. Gardner, of Lake Forest, Ill). Henry Blair Keep, a hero of World War I, gave his life when going back into No-mans-Land to rescue a wounded comrade. All these Chicago Keeps are very devout Episcopalians.

With Scott Baldwin, (Young-Y-B-111-1, Family B), also a distant Kinsman, and the Keeps, The Compiler grew up in the old South-side Chicago neighborhood, where all lived.

The original home of the Keeps was at Longmeadow, Springfield, Mass. Their fine farm was sold, and is said to be the present location of the famous Longmeadow Hunt Club.

"Report on Miss Helen Elizabeth Keep, of Hotel Tuller, Detroit, Mich:

"In a conversation with Miss Helen E. Keep, I learned these facts: Her family history is complete (could this be) and is contained in bound volumes, which can be seen and read.

She lives at the Hotel Tuller, Detroit. Had lived in her father's house at (2247 E.) Jefferson St. for 60 years. Her parents are both dead. She had a brother.

Her family originally came from Birmingham, England. She has been President of several Women's organizations and has been a member of the Women's City Club of Detroit for many years. She is not a member of the D.A.R. Her father was a member of the S.A.R. She is more interested in Colonial Dames.

She seems very cordial and nice - invited me to come and see her and we could have lunch together at the Club.

Her family history is a very long story - is included in the "Doomsday Book." I would say that she is very much alive and interested in what goes on. This conversation was over the telephone. Edna Burwell Williams, (May

YOUNG FAMILY "B."

MR YOUNG, (married MISS

He was a Master Ship Builder, and is said to have built the first boat ever

His son was RICHARD D. (A?) YOUNG SR.

and lived in Philadelphia, Penna.

These Youngs probably had Summer Home at May's Landing, New Jersey, and many of these early Youngs said to be buried there.

The first Young of this line is supposed to have been one of our Baltim-

Land-grant from William Penn, and settled in Philadelphia.
This "B" Family say the first of their line was a Shipbuilder, and built the first boat built on the Delaware River. They say he married a Miss Walker, from May's Landing, New Jersey.
They have many of our same "A" Family legends, and they have the same Elder-Scott-Stuart intermarriage trace.
Most of these Youngs were Episcopalians.

Miss Walker, who is said to have been the wife of this first Ship that many of these early Youngs were also buried at May's Landing, N.J., with the Walkers and Perkins. The Compiler many times met at the Chicago home of Mrs Geo. L. Baldwin, (Y.B.-111), a Miss Hedra Walker of Philadelphia, who was supposedly descended from this early marriage. Her

HAMILL GENEALOGY---YOUNG SECTION.

YOUNG FAMILY "B"

THE PHILADELPHIA "B" FAMILY OF YOUNGS.

To Follow Page "B"

It is thought that when these Philadelphia "B" Youngs are traced back a little further, they will join with the Baltimore "A" Young Family.

The original Baltimore "A" Family of Youngs have many Family Legends or Traditions which are also found in this Philadelphia "B" Family, which in itself, suggests a connection.

The "A" Family legends say that one of their number secured a grant of land in what has since become part of the City of Philadelphia, from William Penn, and settled in Philadelphia. The "A" Family of Baltimore were Ship Owners. The Philadelphia "B" Family legends say the first of their line was a ship builder, and built the first boat on the Delaware River. It is thought that these two were one and the same---although the "B" Family might go back one more generation before it branched off from Baltimore. But this will have to be proven later.

In the Baltimore "A" Family there have been intermarriages with the Elders-Scotts-Stuarts(Stewarts) clear back into Scotland for 250 years. This same intermarriage trace is found here in this Philadelphia "B" Family. It existed in the "A" Family clear down to the Wilmington-Lenox-Valley, Penna, days, long after 1800, and is still continuing in the Elder Family, the Elder Genealogy being full of Young-Scott-Stuart(Stewart) intermarriages. But it is not found in the "C" Family, who moved South to Virginia, although when that "C" Family is traced further back it may appear.

Most of our original "A" Youngs were Presbyterians, but were friends of the Catholic Lords Baltimore, and aided these Calverts(Lords Baltimore) in founding the city of Baltimore. But the "A" Family have remained Protestants as far as known. Most of the "C" Family were also Presbyterians, until recent times. In this "B" Family, they evidently became Episcopalians.

The legends concerning friendship with General George Washington are found in both the "A" Family and this "B" Family. In this "B" Family the Washington Legend is as follows: Mrs George F. Baldwin(Y-B-111) had at the time of her death, a small hand mirror, which was given to her Young "B" Family by Martha Washington, wife of George Washington. This hand mirror had been handed down in her branch of the "B" Young Family, and it is thought that in her Will, it was left to Mrs Mary Young Craig(Y-B-131).

This Philadelphia "B" Young Family also have a Legend or Tradition that they came 250 years ago from Cumberland, England. This might possibly apply, however, to the Pennington side of the family.

Mrs George F. Baldwin's mother, Mary Anna Young Scott(Mrs Em Marsden Scott---Y-B-11), talked often with the Compiler's Mother, who was Mrs Albert McCalla(Cleanor Nancy Hamill)(Hamill-H-125-6), and both arrived at the conclusion that the "B" Family descended from the Baltimore "A" Family. Mrs Scott often used to say, regarding her "B" Family and the Baltimore "A" Family: "Of course we're the same!"

Mrs George F. Baldwin(Y-B-111), upon the death of her Mother, and the breaking up of the old home, and all the old Bibles and family records placed in one trunk, and it was to be shipped to the Chicago home of Mrs Baldwin. Then all these old records clear back, were to be studied and pieced together by Mrs Baldwin, my Mother(Mrs Albert McCalla), my Sister Helen Wayne McCalla(H-125-61), the Compiler, and others interested. It was naturally expected that these old records would connect the two families clear back into Baltimore, as Mrs Scott(Y-B-11) had said that from her memory, she felt certain that they would. But-----

Mary Anna Pennington is said to be descended from Lord Monkhouse, of England. All these Youngs, Penningtons and Walkers said to have lived and been buried in May's Landing, N.J. The Youngs probably did not live there, but had summer homes there, and were buried there. There was supposed to be a John Pennington Walker (a descendant), who was a Teacher in the College for the Blind in Trenton, N.J. A letter there brought the reply that there was no School for the Blind located in Trenton.

Data Page on RICHARD D. YOUNG, Sr. MARY ANNA PENNINGTON.

"Concerning Madeline Colich and Madge Ramage, who were Grand-daughters of Elizabeth Young (Y.B-14) and John Raim, of the Philadelphia Youngs. They say that the father of Richard D. (or A?) Young, Sr. (Y.B-1) was Mr. — — — — — Young, who married a Miss — — — — — Walker, and was the Ancestress of Miss Madge Walker, from Mays Landing, New Jersey, who was a Cousin and close friend of Mrs George F. Baldwin of Chicago (Y.B-111). This Father, Mr. — — — — — Young, was a Master Ship Builder and built the first boat on the Delaware River at Philadelphia. This Philadelphia family have the Tradition that they came 250 years ago from Cumberland, England. However, they are supposed to be a branch of the Baltimore Young Family (Family A), and are thought to have secured a Grant of land from William Penn in Philadelphia. Mary Anna Pennington is supposedly a descendent of Lord Monkhouse, of England. John Pennington Walker, supposedly a Teacher in a College for the Blind, at Trenton, New Jersey, may know something of these Philadelphia "B" Youngs. All these Youngs, Walkers and Penningtons lived at May's Landing, New Jersey, although they doubtless lived also in Phila. At least they had Summer homes and are buried at May's Landing." (Compiler's Note: The coming from Cumberland, England, may possibly refer, more likely, to the Penningtons. The Compiler has been unable to locate the John Pennington Walker named above, as there is no such school in Trenton. The above old Statement was made by Mrs Geo. F. Baldwin (Y.B-111), and reaffirmed, after her death, by her maid, Miss Annie Iverson.

Died at 19 years of age, as a Student at Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. Was Captain of the Harvard Crew. A very brilliant, loyal, fun-loving, jolly young man, exceedingly quick at repartee, and very kind.
Buried in family vault, Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston, Mass.

All this family, from Mary Anna Young Scott, including Mr-Mrs Baldwin, down to Scott Baldwin, are buried in the family vault in Forest Hills Cemetery, Boston, Mass.

The Baldwins, in Chicago, before 1904, lived at 2429 So. Michigan Ave, and after Scott's death, about 1904, they moved to 2937 So. Michigan Ave, which was directly across the street from the residence of Mr John W. ("Bet-you-a-Million") Gates. Mary Anna Young Scott (Y-B-11) often visited here and lived at times with her daughter, Mrs Baldwin. Then, as the neighborhood changed, and after the death of Mr Baldwin, Mrs Baldwin moved to an 11 room apartment, on the 3rd floor of 3330 Sheridan Road, (corner of Roscoe St), which is directly across the parkway from the Belmont Yacht Harbor, overlooking Lake Michigan. Here Mrs Baldwin died, the last of this branch of the family.

HAMILL GENEALOGY---YOUNG SECTION.YOUNG FAMILY "B."Data From: MARY(Mo.)SCOTT-GEORGE FREDERICK BALDWIN:To Follow B-III.

George Frederick Baldwin was an exceedingly shrewd and keen, yet kindly man, and an excellent business man. He was a stock broker and financier, with memberships on the N.Y. and Chicago Stock Exchanges, his firm being Baldwin & Farnum. After Mr Baldwin's retirement, this became Farnum & Winter. He was personal broker for many of the leading business figures of Chicago. He served John W. ("Dot-you-a-Million") Gates, in this capacity for many years, and aided Mr Gates in the formation of Gates' American Steel & Wire Co., which Gates afterward sold to the U.S. Steel interest. When the U.S. Steel Co was formed, Mr Baldwin worked with Gates and J.P. Morgan & Co. to float that part of the steel stock which was assigned to Chicago, which was very successfully done.

Mr Baldwin made and lost several large fortunes on the Stock Market, but his share of the profits for his work on the U.S. Steel financing was some $1,200,000.00. When this was successfully concluded and the money in the bank, Mr Baldwin at once invested it in conservative Stocks and Bonds, and retired, saying that he would never engage in active business again, or take a chance on the stock market again. He held rigidly to this rule, and as a result, he and Mrs Baldwin retained all this fortune to the end of their lives. Mr-Mrs Baldwin and Scott, and Annie Iverson, their Maid, took an 18-month trip around the world, and travelled much after Mr Baldwin's retirement. On their world trip they collected many art objects, met the King of Sweden, and on a visit to Rome were blessed by the Pope.

Mr Baldwin was an exceedingly kindly, jolly man, and so shrewd and fair. Paul Hamill McCalla (The Compiler), always remembers an unusually good word of advice he gave, concerning business deals, and about playing fair with the other partner to the deal. "Paul," he said, "always let the other fellow make a dollar. Don't try to hog the last dollar of profit. Then your deal is much more likely to go thru quickly, smoothly and with the good will of the other fellow." His occasionally suggested advice was always so fair, kind and shrewd, that it is no wonder he was such a successful business man.

Mrs G.F. Baldwin each year visited her girlhood home in Phila, and also spent some time in Atlantic City, and some few days at May's Landing, New Jersey. She of course, also visited Boston, and went for most of the Summer to Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, in the White Mountains. While in New York, she usually stayed at Briarcliffe Manor, N.Y., a hotel about 25 miles North of New York. It is thought that many of the early day Young of this "B" Family, with their Walkers, Penningtons, etc., are buried at May's Landing, N.J., and also at West Laurel Cemetery, in Philadelphia.

Mr-Mrs Geo.F. Baldwin, in memory of Scott Baldwin, gave a very beautiful stained glass window to an Episcopal Church in the White Mountains of New Hampshire. This church was located near Bretton Woods, N.H., where the Baldwins always spent their Summers, and where a very large hotel (The Mt. Washington), is located. It is thought, but not known definitely, that this church might have been located at Peterboro, N.H. At Mrs Baldwin's death, a further sum was left in her estate to this Church, and nearly $500,000.00 was left to various Churches, Charities and worthy causes.

Scott Baldwin was a very close childhood friend of Paul Hamill McCalla who compiled this Young Genealogy, also the Hamill-McCalla-Hamill Genealogies. The Compiler is an Advertising Man, and not a Genealogist, and has merely done this to preserve the records in the possession of the McCalla-Hamill families---"For the good of the Family."

Scott Baldwin and Paul Hamill McCalla were constant visitors at each other's homes, and their "Cousinship" was mentioned, although the relation was, of course, very distant. They both belonged to the Prairie Avenue Skating Club, whose excellent outdoor ice rink was the gathering place of young and old in the old South Side "Gold Coast" district in which they both lived. Scott used to put his arms around the Compiler's sister, Helen Payne McCalla, and give her a hug, and say that she was his "sister." He always declared that because he had no sister of his own, that he had "adopted" her, and was very fond of her. After Scott's untimely death as a student at Harvard University, Mrs Baldwin was exceedingly kind to all of Scott's friends, and Paul H. McCalla was so very often a dinner guest in her home.

Scott Baldwin was Coxswain of the Harvard Crew, despite his slender build and a weak heart, and was very popular and highly regarded. He died there at Harvard while a student. He was an exceedingly quick thinker, very brainy, and very jolly and full of fun. He would have become a very shrewd business man. Another close friend of Scott's and Paul's was Henry Keep, who was also in the distant kinfolk of the Youngs--Ilders, as a Mary Young of the Young "A" line married into the Keep family connection (see Elder Genealogy). Scott, Henry and Paul were much together in their boyhood.

Scott Baldwin, prior to his death, was very fond of, and intended to marry, Miss Blanche Tapley, of Boston. Some time after Scott's death, she married a Mr. Blood, of Boston, and they, when last heard of, were living at Atlantic Ave, Swampscott, Mass. (Boston suburb).

Paul Hamill McCalla, the Compiler of this Genealogy, met at the home of Mrs George E. Baldwin, in Chicago, a Miss Elizabeth Train of Brookline, Mass (Boston suburb). He fell in love with Miss Train, and intended to marry her, but financial reverses intervened, and she afterward married a Dr Edmund Janvrin, of New York City. Her mother was Mrs Franklin A. Train of Boston, and she had been a childhood friend, and a bridesmaid at Mrs Baldwin's own wedding. Mrs Baldwin often entertained Mrs Train and her daughter Elizabeth, and Mr McCalla was so often invited to the Baldwin home. Mr McCalla's advertising work in connection with his own Calumet Advertising Agency, so often took him East, and he would run over to Boston for a while to visit Elizabeth. The Trains are related to the Winslows, Welds and Soules of Boston. Some of the most pleasant years of the Compiler's life were spent in the company of these splendid and kindly New England people, and if time could be turned back, the Compiler would "set the dial" at the period when he was engaged to the jolly, beautiful, fun-loving and brilliant "Betty" Train, and in the company of these kindly Youngs-Baldwins-Trains-Welds and others of their friends.

Cousins of Mr George E. Baldwin, who lived in Chicago, were Mr Earl Baldwin and Miss Carrie Baldwin, who in 1928-1931, lived at 448 West 62nd Street, in Englewood, Chicago, Illinois (Phone NORmal 5750).

There was a Madge Remage, and a Madeline Collich, who were living in 1929 at 2447 N. 33rd St, Phila, Pa., who are evidently related to this same connection, and were well advanced in years. It is thought that they might be Grand-daughters of Elizabeth Young-John Rehn.

West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Phila, Pa., has graves of an Ann P. Young and of J. P. Remage, who were possibly children of R.D. Young, Sr or Junior. This Cemetery might yield much data on the descent of this family, and many of the early day Youngs might be buried there. It may be that Mr E.P. Lockwood, who in the 1928-1931 period, was living at 17 Melrose Place in Montclair, N.J., is also connected here with this family.

YOUNG FAMILY "C"

THOMAS YOUNG, 1st, is found near in London County, Virginia in, (born about 1810) and lived 1810 to Cumberland, Ohio. Wife was MARY JANE HUMPHREY.
A son, Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd, married Jane Carbons, who was born near Baltimore, Maryland.
Descendants lived principally Carberland, Ohio, and Washington, Iowa.

(Data for this "C" Family first (Collected by the Compiler in 1923
(1931.)

IT IS THOUGHT THIS "C" FAMILY WILL TRACE BACK INTO FAMILY "A" SEE ALSO FAMILY "H" RECORDS---FOR POSSIBLE CONNECTIONS.

This "C" Family originally came, presumably, from Baltimore, or at least, from Maryland. We have traced them as far as the fact that the first known Young, (who was Thomas---"C") married a Mary Jane Humphrey, and that their son, Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd, (Y-C-1), married a Jane Carbons, who was born near Baltimore, Md. Note that this first known generation lived for a time at in London County, Virginia, (across the river from Maryland), and while their son, Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd (Y-C-1), was a boy of 5 years, (in 1810), they moved to Cumberland, Washington County, Ohio (near Zanesville). From there they scattered to Washington and that Cheer (Indianapolis), Mahaska County, Iowa. Descendants now live in Libertyville, Lake Forest and Chicago, Illinois, in Monroe, Iowa, and in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, etc, etc.

It is hoped that by tracing back one or two generations more, we can connect these Youngs with our own Baltimore Youngs (Family "A"), who also had a Farm or Country Estate at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), in Cecil County, Maryland.

This "C" Family of Youngs, from Washington-that Cheer, Iowa, were known to and vouched for, by my Grandmother, Mary McCallan MacCallan (Mrs.
Smith Hamill--A-125), who was born among the Youngs and Hamills near Enon Valley, Penna, and who lived and died at Kookuk, Iowa. She was the daughter of PAUL YOUNG (son John MacCallan) (Y-A-125), and was born on 8/5/1791 in Baltimore, Md, while her Father, JOHN WILLIAM YOUNG, JR (Y-A-21) was born 10/23/1743 at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland, where our "A" Family of Youngs also had a country home or farm or estate, in addition to the town house in Baltimore. This Capt. William Young, Jr. is buried in Mohamock Cemetery, Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna, and Mary Young Mac-Callan is buried about 20 miles away, at Bethel Churchyard, 4 miles North of the town of Enon Valley, Penna. Note that Mary was presumably born in the town house in Baltimore, while her Father, William, was born at the Farm, at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland.

In connection with this "C" Family, please note records of the Young "H" Family (with its own lines), also records of our own Young "A" Family. Mary Jane Humphrey ("C") probably belonged to the Humphreys of the "H" Family---and Abner Young of the "H" Family may have been an offshoot of this "C" Family and our own "A"-Family. This will have to be determined later.

(SEE OTHER SIDE)

(3/15/1941)

. This "C" Family may locate some old letter, old Bible, etc., which may take us back a generation or so more. Or some other Youngs in the East may be able to connect up with this Young Family and furnish the missing link.

SUGGESTED RESEARCH FOR FAMILY "C"

The Compiler suggests that this Family make research along the following lines to try to trace another generation or two further back:

IN GENERAL:

(1)-Write J.W. Johnson, Hendersonville, N.C., to see if he ever heard the name of the Father (and where he came from), of Thos Young, 1st ("C"). If he knows of any other daughters of "C" generation, or names-addresses of descendants, (so they may be written to), and if he can recollect any other data clear back on Youngs.

(2)-Write Mrs Alta Cillogly Atchinson, Cumberland, Ohio, on same, and if she knows of any descendants around Cumberland, etc.

IN CUMBERLAND, OHIO.

(3)-Send 25¢ to Postmaster and ask him to write you names-addresses of any named Spratt-Slater-Bocker-Young in or around Cumberland. (Also look in Phone Books of Cumberland, or write Phone Co. and enclose 25¢).

(4)-To names secured on answers to #3, write them for information, enclosing a carbon copy of page "C".

(5)-Visit Cumberland on vacation trip. Search Court House records for Will of Thomas Young, 1st ("C") which will give names of children. Also search for Deeds, etc. Make complete copy, also look for same on any other Youngs, as may be Cousins of same family. Also watch for Will of Mrs George Johnson (Nancy Jane Humphrey--"C") as she may name all children.

(6)-Search Cemetery (and Cemetery Office records) for names-dates on Young-Spratt-Slater-Bocker. Also on other Youngs, as may be descended from "C" brother, etc., and may have also moved to Cumberland.

(7)-Look for descendants of these names in town and try obtain records Bible records, etc, Daughters of Amer. Revolution data, etc. Also on other Youngs there.

(8)-Search Library for County Histories, Biographies, etc, on Youngs and on all these children, (Young-Bocker-Slater-Spratt, and any other children's names you learn), as such Biographies may give Geneological data clear back.

IN LOUDOUN COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

(9)-Send 25¢ to Postmaster as in item #3. Also search Phone Books, or write Phone Co. and enclose 25¢. The principal town in Loudoun County is Leesburg (2500 or less population). Ask for name Young only, as other children were never there. Write names and send carbon copy of page "C".

(10)-Visit Loudoun Co. on vacation. Search Court House records for Wills and Deeds, as in item #5 above--but on Youngs (Thomas' children never lived there). Thomas' ("C") own Father might have died there, and would name Thomas as his son, and give his other children's names, and possibly say where he came from, and what his wife's name was. Those other children so named might be traced (some possibly still in Loudoun Co) and descendants might have records clear back.

(11)-Search Cemeteries (and Cemetery Office records) for various towns in County. Note exact name-dates-where born, etc.

(12)-Search Library for County Histories and Biographies--on Young, and on any children of the Father of Thos. Young, 1st ("C") you can find. These might give Geneology clear back.

(SUPPOSEDLY 11 OTHER DAUGHTERS--NAMES UNKNOWN--LOST ALL TRACE--A TOTAL)
(OF 15 CHILDREN. Others say had 18 girls-1 boy-A Total of 19 Children.)

Thomas Young, 1st, was presumably a Farmer and lived near --- in Loudon County, Virginia, and moved, while a child with parents, in 1810, to Cumberland, Muskingum County, Ohio, (near Zanesville).

Nancy Jane Humphrey was of Scotch descent, her people having settled in Virginia. Her father was --- Humphrey, and her Uncle was John Humphrey, who was Colonel in a Virginia Regiment in the Revolutionary War. Nancy Jane Humphrey, after Thomas Young, 1st's death, married George Johnson and had 3 more children, who are not related to the Youngs. If she had 16 children by Mr Young, and 3 children by Mr Johnson, this would make a total of 18 children.

"Historical Notes: As yet we have no record of the family of Thomas Young. We only know that he was of Scotch Irish descent and that he died soon after the birth of his youngest child and only son, Thomas Humphrey Young.

After his death, his widow, Nancy Jane Humphrey Young, married Squire George Johnson about 1808. They had 3 children, whose families are listed below. It is probable that Thomas Young died in Virginia and that his widow married Squire Johnson there and they then moved to Ohio with the Young children that were still single. The older girls were probably married and remained in Virginia, which accounts for the fact that my mother could not remember anything about them.

The family of Nancy Jane Humphrey came from Scotland and settled in Virginia. Or it is possible that they were first in Pennsylvania and later moved to Loudon Co, Virginia. Her uncle, --- Humphrey, was Colonel of a Virginia Regiment in the Revolutionary War.

She was a very large woman, so large that she could not reach behind herself to tie her apron strings (which in those days were about 2 yards long). So it was the daily task of her little granddaughter and namesake, Nancy Jane Young, to tie her apron strings. The Compiler, daughter of Nancy Jane Young (Morrison), has in her possession a photograph of Nancy Jane Humphrey Young-Johnson and also one of her aprons.

As stated above, Nancy Jane Humphrey Young, after the death of Thomas Young, married Squire George Johnson. They had 3 children, Sam, Susan and Martha, as follows:

Sam married Fannie ---, and had children: Jim Johnson, Ezra Johnson, Wilbur Johnson, Mary Johnson (Frank), Ella Johnson (Hawk), Frank Johnson (Frank), Alice Johnson, Stella Johnson (Stanley).

Susan married Mr Carnes, and had children: William Carnes and Martha Carnes.

Martha married Mr --- Gillogly, and had children: --- Gillogly, (son), --- Gillogly (daughter), --- Gillogly (daughter), Samuel Gillogly of Zanesville, Ohio, Alta Gillogly Atchison of Cumberland, Ohio.

As Thomas Humphrey Young was a half-brother of Sam and Susan and Martha Johnson, the Young children listed on Page 3 were cousins of the Johnson and Carnes and Gillogly children listed above.

The Sam Johnson family moved from Cumberland, Ohio, to Indianapolis, Iowa, about 1860 (three years after the Young family), so the Johnson children and Nancy Jane and Rebecca Ann Young grew up together, almost as one family."

(Data Family Name YOUNG as far as known.)Data Sheet on THOMAS YOUNG, 1st. ("C") To Go After Page - "C"

(Letter to the Compiler, Paul H. Hamilton, dated 7/27/1939, from Miss J. Morrison, (Y-C-15), 400 W. 1st St., Columbus City, Ohio.)

".....Thomas Young, 1st ("C") married Nancy Jane Humphrey in Virginia, presumably Loudon County. Her people came originally from Scotland and settled and lived in Virginia. Her uncle, John Humphrey, was Colonel of a Virginia Regiment in the Revolutionary War.

This Thomas Young and wife, Nancy (Jane) Humphrey, came to Ohio, presumably about 1810. You say it was when Thomas Young, 2nd (Y-C-1) was 5 years old. I do not know where you got that. The obituary of my grandmother, Jane Carriens Young, (Y-C-1) states that she came to Ohio when she was 5 years old. The Carriens family were from Baltimore County, Maryland. Her father was Robert Carriens. They were Irish. I do not have any obituary of my Grandfather.

This may sound fishy, but Mother told me a number of times that Nancy (Jane) Humphrey Young ("C") had 18 girls and 1 boy, Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd, (Y-C-1). I think he was about the youngest child. Mother could never remember the names of any of these girls (who were her aunts), except one, Aunt Tacy Spratt. So if there is a family of Spratts living in Cumberland, Ohio, some of them might remember something more about the Young family.

Thomas Young, 1st ("C") died long before my mother was born, presumably about 1825. Then Nancy (Jane) Humphrey Young ("C") married Squire George Johnson and they had 3 children: Susan, who married Mr. Carnes, and had 2 children, William and Martha. Martha, who married Henry Gillogly, and had 2 sons, 3 daughters. Samuel Gillogly lives in Zanesville, Ohio, and Alis. Atchinson lives in Cumberland, Ohio. Why not write her? You see, she is a Granddaughter of Nancy (Jane) Humphrey Young-Johnson. The third Johnson child was Sam. His son, Jim Johnson, now lives in Hendersonville, North Carolina. He has just celebrated his 90th birthday. I got some of this information from him. He and my mother were practically raised together.

Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd (Y-C-1) must have been pretty young when his father died, as he and his step-brother, Sam Johnson were near the same age. Mother said that her Grandmother, Nancy (Jane) Humphrey Young ("C") Johnson, was a very large woman and could not reach behind her to tie her apron strings. So as a child, it was Mother's duty to tie Grandmother Johnson's apron strings. That was about all she remembered about her.

I do not think there is any doubt but that our family were closely connected with the Baltimore Youngs. The fact that Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd married a Baltimore girl, Jane Carriens, would indicate that, although they evidently married in Ohio.

The first Thomas Young ("C") must have been born about 1770."

Thomas Young, 1st ("C") is presumed to have moved from Virginia to Cumberland, Ohio, when his son, Thos. Humphrey Young, 2nd (Y-C-1) was a boy 5 years old, which would make this move about 1810. Nancy Jane Young (Y-C-15), was named for her Grandmother so we assume "C" was named Nancy Jane Humphrey.

Thomas Young, 1st ("C") lived at _____, in LOUDON COUNTY, VIRGINIA, (the Northernly tip of Virginia, across the river from Maryland). The family moved from Virginia while their son, Thos. H. Young, 2nd (Y-C-1) was a boy 5 years old--in 1810--to Cumberland, Washington County, Ohio.

Thomas Young, 1st ("C") died at Cumberland, Ohio, presumably about 1825, and his wife, Nancy Jane Humphrey Young, married as her second husband, a Mr. George Johnson, and had 3 children by this second marriage, which children are not directly related to the Youngs. These children were 2 daughters and 1 son. The first child was Susan Johnson, who married a Mr. Carnes and had 2 children, who were Evan Carnes and Martha Carnes.

All trace of the Carnes family has been lost. The second child was Martha Johnson, who married Henry Gillogly, and had 3 sons and 2 daughters. One of these sons, Samuel Gillogly, is probably still living in Sandusville, Ohio. One of these daughters is Mrs Alta Gillogly Atchinson, who lives in Cumberland, Ohio. The third child was Samuel Johnson, who had 4 children, Ezra Johnson, Jim B. Johnson, Walter Johnson and Stella Johnson (the latter is dead). The Jim B. Johnson just named is an educator and Newspaper Man, who in 1939 was 90 years old, and was living in Hendersonville, North Carolina, and was still writing for Newspapers.

It is possible that Nancy Jane Humphrey Young (Johnson) might be buried at Cumberland, Ohio, and also that the grave of Thomas Young, III, might be located there also. Cumberland, Ohio, is near Sandusville. It is our supposition that Thomas Young, Iak-Nancy Jane Humphrey were married in Virginia, and moved to Cumberland, Ohio, in 1810, but Charles E. Young, (Y-C-132) wrote on 7/21/1939: "....Nancy first married Young in Ohio. Young died and she married George Johnson....."

The letter from Charles E. Young (Y-C-132), RFD, Monroe, Iowa on 7/21/1939 to the Compiler says: "I am returning the sheets with some notations, also since writing you before I've had a letter from J... Johnson, Hendersonville, N.C. (Educator and Newspaper Man). Mr Johnson is a very bright man now in his 90th year and still writing for Newspapers. Mr Johnson says: "My Father's mother was-- maiden name-- Nancy Jane Humphrey. Her people came originally from Scotland, settled and lived in Virginia. Her Uncle, John Humphrey, was a Colonel of Va Regiment in Revolutionary War. Nancy first married Young in Ohio. Young died and she married George Johnson. They had 3 children, 2 daughters and 1 son. Susan married a Mr Carnes--lost all trace. Martha married Henry Gillogly, who had 3 sons, 2 daughters. Samuel Gillogly, a son, still lives in Sandusville, Ohio, and a daughter, Mrs Alta Atchinson, lives in Cumberland, Ohio. Samuel is the father of J.W. Johnson (This means that Samuel Johnson was the son of George Johnson, and the father of J.W. Johnson, named above). Nancy Jane Humphrey Young-Johnson was Thomas Humphrey Young's mother. He married Jane Carrens and they are the parents of Thomas Humphrey Young, 3rd, who married Mattie McCoy, and the latter are the parents of Charles E. Young who married Gertrude Jennings. If you should write J.W. Johnson you would find him a very interesting man, away ahead of men of his age. I do not know if he could furnish anything more of the people in Ohio--night if still living."

There is also a supposition among some of these Youngs, that the early Youngs of this family had been in Westmoreland County, Virginia, also.

Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd, born in 1805, moved while a boy of 5, (in 1810) with parents, from _____, Loudon County, Virginia, to Cumberland, Muskingum County, Ohio. He had a General Store in Cumberland or Rose Hill Ohio. He married in Cumberland, and about 1857-8, they moved to Indianapolis, Mahaska County, Iowa, and then in 1867-8, they moved to Washington County, Iowa, where they both died. Both are buried, however, in Indianapolis, Iowa, beside their son William.

Jane Cariens was of Irish descent, and was born in Baltimore County, Maryland, in 1810. She was brought from Maryland to Ohio in 1815, as a child of 5 years old. Jane's father was Robert Cariens.

"Historical Notes: This family lived in Muskingum County, Ohio, but received their mail at Cumberland in Guernsey County. The community or village where they lived was High Hill and Thomas Humphrey Young had a General Merchandise store there. His granddaughter, Maude Morrison, has an old record book in which he kept his store accounts from 1838 to 1841. Other communities nearby were Claysville, High Hill and Mount Zion.

His wife, Jane Cariens Young, was born near Baltimore, but came to Ohio in 1815 at the age of 5 years.

In 1857 the entire family moved to Mt Vernon, Linn County, Iowa, where the son, Robert Young, was already living. The next year they moved to Indianapolis, Mahaska County, Iowa. There is no postoffice now at Indianapolis, but the old cemetery there is in fine condition, being maintained by an endowment fund. In this cemetery are buried: Thomas Humphrey Young, and his wife, Jane Cariens Young. Also William Henry Young; Thomas Humphrey Young, II, and his wife, Hattie McCoy Young; Rebecca Ann Young and her husband, Nathan Updegraff.

In 1873 the father and mother and daughter, Nancy Jane Young, moved to Washington, Iowa.

Thomas Humphrey Young was a devoted Baptist; Jane Cariens Young was a Presbyterian.

When the family moved from Ohio to Iowa in 1857, the father and two boys, Thomas Humphrey, II, and William Henry, drove the wagons through with the household goods and stock. The mother and two girls, Nancy Jane and Rebecca Ann, came through by train. When they went to Zanesville, Ohio, to take the train, the little girls saw their first locomotive.

Jane Cariens was of Irish descent, being the daughter of Robert and Naomi Cariens. There were nine children, as follows: Christopher, Jane, Margaret, Joseph, Richard, Mary Ann, William, Rebecca and George James.

My Grandfather's old account book, referred to in the first paragraph above, shows among his customers an Even Young, a Joseph Young and an Israel Young."

Y.C-111-41.

(From: Chicago Herald-American-5/21/1940): "Isabel Young Wears Diamond of Tall, Dark, Charles Boyer. Friends are figuring that the diamond ring Charles Boyer has given Isabel Young can mean nothing less than an engagement, so the next move is up to Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Young, who will probably be announcing their daughter's betrothal officially before long.

The young man in the picture is a handsome, tall, dark boy from the South. His heroine is a sister of the former Dorothy Young, whose marriage at Lake Forest's Church of the Holy Spirit last year to John Fielding Mercer was such a decorative one. Her bridesmaids were the belles, Louise Blossom, Ann Doeber, Phyllis Peter and Lily Fleming, with Johnny's sister, Marjorie, as maid of honor, and their costumes were copies of the romantic ones in the movie "Juarez."

Now Marjorie ("Widge") Mercer is engaged to John Sheldon, with a wedding set for June 22. Romance seems to be running in the family."

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/23/1943): "Young-Wilson: At a supper party at home in Lake Forest last night, Mrs Charles W. Young announced the engagement of her youngest daughter, Louise, to Robert Hoggie Wilson, son of Mr and Mrs Percy Wilson, also of Lake Forest. Miss Young, whose father was the late Dr Young, is a graduate of Perry Hall and Pine Manor Junior College. She is now a Senior at Northwestern University. Mr Wilson attended Lake Forest Academy, and served in the Army for 3 years. He is a Senior at Kenyon College. One of Miss Young's sisters, Mrs Charles Weir, and Major Weir, missed last night's gathering, as they were unable to come from his post at Scott Field, near St Louis. Mrs Young's other daughter, Mrs John Fielding Worcester and Mr Worcester, live in Wayne."

(From: Chicago Daily News-12/23/1943): "More Engagements: Louise Young's to Robert Hoggie Wilson, son of the Percy Wilsons of Lake Forest. Daughter of Mrs Charles W. Young and the late Dr Young, Louise attended Perry Hall and Pine Manor, and is now a Senior at Northwestern. An Army Veteran, Robert is in his last year at Kenyon College."

(From: Chicago Daily News-7/6/1947): "Louise Young to Wed Aug 30: Louise Young and Robert Hoggie Wilson, whose engagement was announced last Christmas time, waited until "Louise's" mother, Mrs Charles W. Young, returned from Scott Field before settling their wedding plans. Now they've decided on Saturday, August 30th, as the date. Seven attendants will precede the bride down the aisle in the Church of the Holy Spirit in Lake Forest, that afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. Of these, two will be her sisters, Mrs Charles Weir of Scott Field, and Mrs John Worcester of Wayne. Her future sister-in-law, Mrs John Rhoades (Patricia Wilson) will be another. Marion Peter, of Lake Forest, Shirley Gible of Canton, Ohio, Mrs Helen Carter Willard Trigg, IV (Helen Wilson) of Glasgow, Ky, and Mrs W.W. Brown of Palm Springs, Calif., complete the list."

Mrs Brown, the former Barbara Stran, who visited in Lake Forest earlier in the Summer, is back on the West Coast, but will return for Louise and Bob's wedding and another in New York, in which she'll be a bridesmaid the following Saturday. Ted Wilson will be his brother's best man. After three years in Europe (the last one in Italy), Ted came home just in time to attend the Wilson-Trigg wedding. His first meeting with his future sister-in-law was when he went down the reception receiving line in which Louise, as one of the bridesmaids, stood. Incomplete so far, the usher list now includes Dr William McQuarthy of Chicago. Charles Buck of Glencoe, Judson Sewell and John Rhoades of Lake Cliff."

(From: Chicago Daily News-8/16/1947): "Out in Lake Forest Louise Young had just learned that her sister, Mrs Charles Weir, won't be able to precede her down the aisle when she's married to Robert Wilson on the afternoon of Aug 30, at the Church of the Holy Spirit. But her daughter, Nancy, will represent the family as flower girl. The bridegroom will have his nephew, Lynn Rhoades, as ringbearer. Louise' roommate at Pine Manor, Angelyn Donaldson, is coming from Knoxville, Tenn, to be a bridesmaid, and her other sister, Mrs John Worcester, will be matron of honor as originally planned. Another Kentuckian in the bridal party is Mrs R. Carter Willard Trigg, IV (Helen Wilson), from Glasgow, with Mrs John Rhoades (Patricia Wilson), Shirley Gible of Canton, Ohio, and Marion Peter of Lake Forest, and Mrs W.W. Brown of Palm Springs, Calif."

(From: Chicago Tribune-8/16/1947): "Alone-Young: Miss Shirley Cooter will entertain at cocktails today in the Kenilworth home of her parents, Mr and Mrs Paul Cooter for Louise Young and Robert Hoggie Wilson, who will be married next Saturday. Miss Marion Peter, who will be a bridesmaid for Miss Young, will give a luncheon tomorrow. Miss Young's sister, Mrs John Fielding Worcester, who will be matron of honor, will give a supper party tomorrow night. Other parties for Miss Young and her fiancé include a luncheon Mrs Frank W. Read will give Thursday in the Anshwood Club and (see other side). (8/7/1947).

the spinster dinner to be given Thursday night by Mrs Charles Duck. The bridegroom's parents, Mr and Mrs Percy Wilson will give the bridal dinner Friday in the Graceland Club. The wedding will take place at 4.30 PM in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest, with a reception afterward in the Lake Forest home of the bride's mother, Mrs Charles W. Young. Mr Wilson's sister, Mrs John Rhodes, will give a dinner in the Graceland Club at Great Lakes after the reception for members of the bridal party and young married friends, while Theodore Wilson will entertain simultaneously in the Graceland Club for Miss Shirley Gibbs of Canton, Ohio, and Miss Angelyn Donaldson of Lexington, Ky, who will be bridesmaids.

(From Chicago Tribune-9/10/1947): "Miss Louise Young and Robert Reggie Wilson repeat their wedding vows at 4.30 PM today in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest, the bride will wear the full skirted gown of lace and net and the tulle veil in which her sister, Mrs John Fielding Mercer of Waukegan, was married eight years ago, and the old fashioned diamond and pearl lavalieres which her mother, Mrs Charles W. Young, wore for her wedding. A reception will be held after the ceremony in the Lake Forest home of the bride's mother. Mr Mercer will give his sister-in-law in marriage, and Mrs Mercer will be matron of honor. Another sister, Mrs Charles Blair, was unable to come from her home at Scott Field, Ill, to serve as an attendant. Bridesmaids will be Miss Marion Pater, Mrs William William Brown, (Barbara Straw) of Palm Springs, Cal; Mrs Alice Carter Ballard Trigg, (Nelson Wilman) of Lexington, Ky; Miss Angelyn Donaldson of Knoxville, Tenn, a former Pine Manor classmate; Miss Shirley Gibbs of Canton, O, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs John Rhodes. Theodore Wilson will be his brother's best man. Ushering will be Mr Rhodes, Mr Blair, Dr William Acquarini, Judson Howell, Charles Duck, and James McAnn. Mr Wilson, who is a son of Mr and Mrs Percy Wilson of Lake Forest, will take his bride to Jamaica on a wedding trip. They will live in Deerfield."

(From Chicago Tribune-9/1/1947): "Dressed in Lake Forest Ceremony. (Picture of Bride & Groom) Mr and Mrs Robert Reggie Wilson (Louise Young) found a moment to themselves after their marriage rituals Saturday afternoon in Lake Forest. Mrs Wilson is the youngest daughter of Mrs Charles W. Young of Lake Forest, and Mr Wilson is the son of Mr and Mrs Percy Wilson, also of Lake Forest. The couple will live in Deerfield after a wedding trip to Jamaica."

Thomas Humphrey Young, 3rd, was a soldier in the Civil War, being with Company E of the ___ Iowa Regiment. Most of his army service was spent in Arkansas. Miss Maude M. Morrison, (Y-C-153) has in her possession a number of letters he wrote while in the army to his sister, Nancy Jane Young, (Y-C-15), who was the mother of Miss Maude M. Morrison. After his return from the army, he married Harriet McCoy, a school teacher, daughter of Rev. James McCoy, a well-known Baptist minister. They were unusually devoted to each other, but the army life had impaired his health and in a few years he developed lip cancer, which caused his death. Harriet and children then made their home with her parents, Rev McCoy and wife. About 2 years later, her older son died. She and Charlie continued to make their home most of the time with her parents until Charlie married. Then she made her home with him until the time of her death. She and husband were both devoted Baptists.

They lived at Indianapolis, Mahaska County, Iowa, and later resided at What Cheer, Keokuk County, Iowa, where both died and are buried in the Indianapolis Cemetery, with their infant son, Edwin.

Indianapolis, Mahaska County, Iowa was a Pioneer town, the Railroad failed to pass thru it and it disappeared. The Post Office now is What Cheer, Iowa. This Thos. Humphrey Young, 3rd, was said to have been the third Thomas, but only the 2nd and 3rd Thomas had the middle name of Humphrey.

Harriet McCoy was a School Teacher, and her father was Rev. James McCoy, a Baptist Minister. Her mother was Lavisa Nicholson (McCoy), and the McCoy's lived in Mahaska County, Iowa.

Charles Elliott Young is in the Produce business, and formerly lived in Knoxville, Iowa. But now (1941) is living at RFD, Monroe, Iowa. He has been quite interested in Genealogy and Family History, and has gathered quite a bit of the data in this "C" Family record of the Youngs.

Gertrude Jennings came from Knoxville, Iowa, and was born in Sigourney, Iowa.

Charles Elliott Young and Gertrude Jennings began housekeeping at New Sharon, Iowa. As time went on, they resided at various towns in Southeastern Iowa, among them: What Cheer, Sigourney, Harvey, Des Moines, Colfax, Knoxville, Monticuma and Monroe. They lived in Colfax for about 20 years and 8 of their children graduated from Colfax High School. The name of their farm there was "Dan Movin' Farm." Mr Young was for many years in the produce business, most of the time with Armour & Co. In this capacity he travelled a great deal and has a wide acquaintance among the farmers of Southeastern Iowa, to whom he is known as "Dad Young." He is now retired and he and his wife live at Monroe, Iowa, near their daughter, Ruth Barber. They are members of the Christian Church in which they have been very active workers. In 1940 they celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Nathaniel Morrison was the son of Mr. _____ Morrison, who was in the _____ business, and lived in _____, and his wife, _____ (Morrison).

Nancy Jane Young, (Y-C-15) was "named for her Grandmother," who was the wife of Thomas Young, 1st, (Y-"C"), so we know that her name was Nancy Jane Humphrey.

Miss Maude M. Morrison was formerly with the Capitol Life Ins Co. of the Colcord Bldg, Okla City, Okla. She is interested in Genealogy and Family History, and has gathered much of the data in this record of these "C" family Youngs, and is endeavoring to trace them further back to connect with the "A" Family. She has Compiled a most excellent and complete Genealogy on this "C" Family, from which many quotations have been taken for our own record on this "C" Family. She is living (4/25/41) at 420 N-E 12th St, Oklahoma City, Okla, and is connected with the Fire Appliance & Supply Co, 21 So. Western Ave, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Minnie Maxine Morrison: (Letter 7/27/1939, from Miss Maude M. Morrison to the Compiler): "My sister, Minnie Maxine (Belle) Morrison first married Thos. J. Brown. They had 2 children, Cecil Brown and Charles Brown, who are both dead. They were later divorced, and I do not know whether he is living. On 7/1/1922 she married A.L. Vancourek, who survived her, and now lives at 1440 N-E 11th St, Okla City, Okla."

(From Miss Maude M. Morrison's Young Genealogy--4/25/1941):

"Nathaniel C. Morrison was a Civil War Soldier. He enlisted 10/29/1862 with Company D, 9th Ohio Cavalry, and was mustered from service 7/20/1865. He was with Sherman on his march to the Sea. He and Nancy J. Young were married in Washington, Iowa, and went at once to a claim he had at Golden Belt, Lincoln County, Kansas. There the son William was born and died at the age of 5 months. They then moved to Pawnee City, Nebraska, and later to Liberty, Nebraska, where he ran a Skating Rink. In 1893 they moved to Springdale, Arkansas, making the trip in covered wagons. Edward Cross drove one of the wagons. Here they resided until after the death of Nathaniel Morrison, when his wife and daughter, Maude, moved to Oklahoma City, where Minnie was already residing.

Maude Morrison was in office work for over 25 years. For about 12 years she was Cashier in Oklahoma City for the Capitol Life Insurance Co of Denver, Colorado. She is now the only surviving member of this family and resides at 420 N-E 12th St, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Nathaniel C and Nancy J. Morrison are buried in Bluff Cemetery at Springdale, Arkansas. Minnie is buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma."

(From Letter to the Compiler dated 7/27/1939, from Miss Laura H. Harrison (Y-C-153), 420 N.E. 12th St., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.)

"I am pretty familiar with the history of the Young Family after they moved to Iowa, but before that, it is rather vague, as my Mother was only 11 years old when they moved to Iowa. She boarded the first train she ever saw at Zanesville, Ohio, to make the trip to Iowa. She and her Mother, (Jane Carlens Young--Y-C-1), and sister Rebecca (Young Updegraff-Y-C-16) went by train and the Father, (Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd (Y-C-1), and two brothers, Thomas Humphrey Young, 3rd (Y-C-13), and William (Y-C-14), drove through in wagons with the furniture and stock. They went first to Mt Vernon, Iowa, where her brother, Robert (Y-C-12), already lived. But the next year they moved to Indianapolis, Iowa, and continued to reside there and at Washington, Iowa, a nearby town.

In Ohio they resided at Cumberland, but communities or towns near them were Mt Zion, High Hill and Rose Hill. I have a letter written to my Mother by Jim Johnson (whom I shall mention later) when he was back in Ohio on a visit. The postmark on it is written with a pen "High Hill, Ohio, Aug 18, 1870."

My Grandfather, Thomas Humphrey Young, 2nd (Y-C-1), had a General Store at Cumberland or Rose Hill. I have one of his old account books from which I could give you a list of the people who traded with him, if that would be of any help.

Thomas J. Brown was a soldier in the Spanish-American War and saw service in Manila, Phillipine Islands. He and Minnie Morrison were divorced in August, 1912. They resided in Fayetteville, Arkansas, Corpus Christi, Texas, and Algona, Washington. After their divorce, Minnie took a business course and was for several years a bookkeeper in Oklahoma City.

A. Louis Vanourek was born in Czecho-Slovakia, where his family still resides. He came to this country alone at the age of 14 years and through hard work and good management, has accumulated considerable property. After the death of Minnie Belle Morrison, he remarried, and now (4/25/1941) resides at 1440 North-East 11th Street, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Maude Mae Morrison is much interested in Genealogy and Family History. She has Compiled a most excellent and complete Young Genealogy of this Young Family "C", from which much data has been obtained for our own Young Section-as relates to Family "C." Those interested in this branch of the family, would do well to write Miss Morrison.

Maude Mae Morrison was in office work for over 25 years. For about 12 years she was Cashier in Oklahoma City for the Capitol Life Insurance Co. of Denver, Colorado. She is now the only surviving member of her family. She is (4/25/1941) connected with the Fire Appliance & Supply Co, 21 So. Western Ave, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She resides (4/25/1941) at 420 N-E 12th Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Miss Maude M. Morrison wrote The Compiler on 7/18/1942: "I do not have as much data on the Morrison Family as I have on the Youngs. My Father was the youngest of a large family and his parents both died while he was quite young, so he lived around among the older brothers and sisters until he was grown, then served in the Civil War, and after that came West. So he lost contact with his family to a great extent, but after he married my Mother, she began corresponding with some of them. His Father, Nathaniel Morrison, married Anna Yanger in Allegheny Co, Penna, in 1812. In the 1790 Census for Penna, I find a James Morrison listed in Allegheny County, so it is possible he was my Great-Grandfather."

HAMILL GENEBOLOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

OTHER YOUNG FAMILIES.

In making a search along Geneological lines, the Compiler naturally discovered many other Young families in the U.S. It is not known whether these trace back to our own Youngs or not. But for purposes of record, and to assist other Young families in tracing their own Geneology, these other families, as far as their data is known, have been included in the following pages.

HAMILL GENEALOGY--YOUNG SECTION.

YOUNG SECTION "E"

ABNER YOUNG, of Fleetwood, Culpeper County, Virginia.

DATA: From Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, of September, 1938.

14266--Abner Young, of Fleetwood, Culpeper County, Virginia, was born about 1725, and married Euphemia, daughter of Thomas Humphrey of Loudon County, Virginia. Their children were: Hannah, (born about 1803, died 1852) who married about 1822 John Lakeman. Abner Humphrey (Jr) (born about 1802, died about 1860) married Mary Ann Randolph (1803-1870). Marshall married about 1850 and lived at Fleetwood. Margaret, born about 1815, moved to Quincy, Ill. Calla (born 1819) married Thomas A. McMorris and lived at Colorado Springs.

Thomas Humphries, mentioned above, is buried at Short Hills Cemetery, near Bluemont, Loudon Co., Virginia, with other members of his family. His tombstone is so defaced by time that the dates of his birth and death cannot be distinguished. The following, however, is legible: "His wife, Mary Humphries, departed this life December 5, 1811, aged 66 years. As this would make her birth in 1742, his was probably in 1740.

Thomas Humphries served in the Revolution, first as a private in Captain Henry Dudley's Co., 2nd Virginia Regt, commanded by Col. Gregory Smith. His name appears on Company pay rolls from June 1, 1778, to Nov. 1779, as shown in the record of the Pension Office, Washington, D.C. He also served as Sergeant in the Virginia Continental Line for 3 years, for which service he was granted 300 acres of land, the issue of this warrant was dated June 11th, 1784, and bears the signature of Benj. Harrison and Thomas Morris. This record is found in Book #2, Page 651, Land Office, State Capital, Richmond, Virginia.

Thomas, with a brother, Isaac Humphries, removed from Bucks Co, Penna, to Loudon Co., Va, between 1760-1770, leaving in Penna 3 brothers, one of whom was David Humphries, Lieut-Col & Aid-de-Camp to Genl Washington from June 23, 1780 to June 23, 1783. He was born 1754 and died Feby 21, 1819. History records by Act of Congress to Col. Humphries a valuable sword as recognition of his fidelity and ability. To his care the standards taken at Capitulation of Yorktown was consigned. Reference: Reitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army.

(In this connection note the Humphrey marriage in Family "C")

The Compiler wrote Miss Young on 4/27/1939, outlining some of our own records on Families "A", "B" and "C" to see if she could throw any additional light on those 3-families of ours. She replied to the Compiler under date of 7/5/1939, and the following are paragraphs from her letter: ".....You surely have some interesting names which seem to tie up to similar names in our records, but nothing has ever come to light to make me say I have anything definite.

I was interested to read of a Mary Elden, for that is a name in my Mother's line, but they did not marry any Youngs. They came to Penns., where her Father was a Minister. The mention of Jane Humphrey is also a line I should like to more clearly understand, but as the Humphrey family is a very large, no doubt it may be one of many families, who went out of Loudon County, Virginia.

I am very sorry I haven't more that is of real value to your line, but I want to send your letter to my brother, who lives in Phila, to see if he can clear up any further information. I was glad of your interest in this work, and will surely give you any information I may ever find.

(SEE OTHER SIDE)

(3/10/1941)

Forgiving pardon for my great delay, I am, Most Cordially Yours, Jane Randolph Young, (1717--18th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.--7/5/1950)

If Miss Young's MD came from Paxtang (Harrisburg), Penna, they are ours, for as the Elder Genealogy says in the introduction on Page 3:

"Probably the first of the name to come to America was Robert of Paxtang, who, according to Dr. W. H. Eagle's Genealogy, was born about 1679 in Scotland, emigrated from Lough Dangle, County Antrim, Ireland, where he had previously settled about 1730, to America, locating in Paxtang township, then Lancaster, now Dauphin County, Pa, five miles North of Harrisburg."

(Note: The first 6 pages of the Elder Genealogy are copied the Hamill Genealogy--Young Section--Family "A"--following page "Y", where (it may be examined--the Compiler.)

We happen to know, from our own Family Legends, that one of our Paxtang Elders was captured as a boy by Indians, was taught woodcraft, became a famous pole vaulter, and upon reaching manhood, again found his own people but in the French-Indian wars, organized a band of Indian Scouts, which rendered valiant service for the Colonies. Another of these Paxtang Elders was the famous "Fighting Parson of Paxtang" who, when the Revolution came along, very reverently laid down his Bible, and fought like a Tiger. When peace came, he again took up his Bible, very reverently, and "preached Christ" and Hell-and-Damnation for Sinners. They were a valiant breed---these Elders and Youngs---but very smiling and kind.
These two Elders just spoken of were the Paxtang Elders.

It is possible that this Humphrey of hers, from Loudoun County, Va, and Nancy Jane Humphrey of the "C" Family, were of the same family in Loudoun County, Virginia.

HAMILL GENEALOGY, YOUNG SECTION, FAMILY J

YOUNG FAMILY J:

JOHN YOUNG, (born 1623, Londonderry Ireland), at 96 years old, brought family of 14 to Boston Mass., in 1713, and settled at Worcester, Mass.

DR. JOHN YOUNG moved to Peterboro, New Hampshire, and became 1st Physician. His son, JUDGE JOHN YOUNG, moved to Whitestown (Utica), NY, and in 1797 Founded Youngstown, Ohio, returning 6 years later to Whitestown, NY.

JUDGE JOHN YOUNG of this Family, FOUNDED YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO.

Data: "Hist. Collections of Mahoning Valley, Ohio" - Volume 1 - Pages 61 to 64, 64 to 66. (Newberry Lib. (rary-R-892-525)).

(1935-1941) Ira Imanuel G. Spitzer, (Centennial Edition, Illinois) of Chicago. (Family "J").

These Family "J" Youngs were Scotch, and undoubtedly trace back to our same Family "A" Youngs of Ayr-Paisley-Ellerslie, Scotland. This Family "J" settled near Londonderry, Ireland. The first known, John Young, was born near Londonderry in 1623. In 1713, in his 96th year, with Son and Grandson, a party of 14 in all, he landed in Boston. They immediately settled in Worcester, Mass., where nearly all of them died and are buried. This John Young died at Worcester, aged 107 years, on 6/30/1730. His son, John Young, died there 2/26/1776, at 93 years old.

Dr John Young was born in Worcester, Mass., in 1739, and moved to Peterboro, New Hampshire, where he became the first Physician. His son, Judge John Young, was born in Peterboro in 1763, and moved to Whitestown, New York (4 miles from Utica), and in 1796 he moved on to what became Youngstown, Ohio - where in 1797 he began the Founding and Settlement of Youngstown.

Family Legends in our Family "A" Youngs say that he visited among our Youngs at Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna., and with their aid, and that of their Elder-Scott-Stuart (Stewart) Kinsmen, Founded Youngstown, Ohio - some 20 miles west across the Ohio-Penna border, in 1797. He called our "A" Youngs "Cousin," and the kinship was said to have been well understood in those days - and the "A" and "J" Families were said to be the same Youngs, but of different migrations to America, as our "A" Family settled in Baltimore, and Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland.

In 1803, Judge John Young moved back to Whitestown (Utica), NY, and became interested in the Great Western Turnpike (Utica to Canandaigua), and in the Erie Canal. His son, Wm. C. Young, was a noted RR builder, and invented RR Cross Ties, and became President of the Hudson River RR.

Mrs. Gertrude Spitzer, (See Page 3 following) said that there are many fine Young records at York, Penna - probably on this "J" Family, but possibly also on our Baltimore "A" Family, some of whom may have branched off to York, Pa., and vicinity. These old records are said to trace clear back to Ayr, Scotland. Of course we know that our "A" Family, thru the generations, branched off to Phila, Penna., also to Lebanon-Lancaster-York, Pa. - as well as to Wilmington (Newcastle), Lawrence Co, Penna. And we know that this branch of the "J" family came South from Worcester, Mass-Peterboro, NH, to York, Penna.

In 1947, we unfortunately have no trace of these various branches settling in these towns in Eastern Penna. But there are remembrances of old letters from the Baltimore "A" Family, mentioning visiting Young and Elder "Cousins" in these localities, and living for a time among them. Also, Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, and her father, William YOUNG, who made the flag that flew over St. Mchenry, about which Francis SCOTT Key wrote the "Star Spangled Banner" - lived for years in the vicinity of Philadelphia, and are also said to have lived at Lebanon, Penna., as well as coming back again to Baltimore to live. With all this, those old Young records at York, Pa., might be very desirable for some interested Young descendent to trace, and to add to this loose-leaf genealogy.

"The DESCENDENTS of JOHN YOUNG, of WORCESTER, MASS." YOUNG FAMILY J:

(From: "Historical Collections of Mahoning Valley, Ohio"-Volume 1- Pages 61 to 64. This is #F-892-525 in Newberry Library, Chicago.)

"Mrs John M. Edwards. Esq: Dear Sir: There are some points in our family history which I deem it proper to simplify and explain more clearly. They were of Scotch origin and settled in the North of Ireland late in the 16th or early part of the 17th Century, in or near Londonderry, famous in Irish history for its magnanimous endurance of siege and starvation in Irish persecutions of William the 3rd of England. Here in 1623 the first of the family whose record is known to us, was born. In 1713 he, in his 96th year, with Son and Grandson, their brothers and sisters, and sister's husbands, in all 14, landed in Boston, Mass, in the same year (1713). The whole colony moved to Worcester, where they settled, and nearly all in time died and were buried. My Grandfather, Dr John Young, was born at Worcester (Mass), in 1739, removed to Peterboro, Hillsboro Co, New Hampshire, practiced medicine and died there in 1807. My Father, John Young, was born at Peterboro, NH, in 1763, emigrated to Whitestown, New York, about 1780, and in June 1792, was married to his life-long wife, Mary Stone White, the youngest daughter of Hugh White, the first settler of original English descent, who had after the Revolution in 1785, removed with his family of a wife and 8 children (five sons and 3 daughters) from Middletown, Conn, to the wilderness, four miles East and North of Utica, (NY). Utica had then one shanty with a small family in it, but Whitestown none. There he settled alone with his whole family, on the land he had previously purchased, of good quality as it proved, and on a single tract, large enough to provide a farm for each of his 8 children, who all settled down upon them directly around him. He gave his name to the town ("Whitestown"), became in time a Judge of the Court, and died in 1812. He was a brave and sturdy old Patriarch, and by great physical strength, sound practical sense and kindness of heart, held even the Indians in wholesome fear, and lived at peace with them all.

There our Father lived until 1796, when his own land interest was removed to Ohio, and in 1797 he began the settlement of Youngstown. In 1799 he removed his family, wife and two children, John and George, to Youngstown, where two more were born to him - William in November 1799, and Mary in February 1800, both still living. In 1803, our Mother, finding the trials of her country life there, with the latch string always open and a free table to all, too great with her young family, for her power of endurance. Our Father, in deference to her earnest entreaties, closed up his business as best he could and returned with the family to Whitestown, and to the home and farm which her Father had provided and kept for them. Our Father's nominal occupation after his return, was that of Farmer, but not given much to manual labor, he soon became interested in the then Great Western Turnpike, from Utica to Canandaigua, and for many years was engaged in its construction and superintendancy, and still later on, in other public works, such as the Erie Canal, which Canal ran for miles in plain sight from our house, and upon which one of my brothers was then employed as a Civil Engineer.

He was a Mason of a high order, and brought back with him from Ohio, the prefix of "Judge," by which he was ever known and addressed. In some incidental way it came to him and remained a fixture for life. With great strength of will and force of character, he was yet full of intelligence, courtesy and kindness, a genial soul who made many friends, but few enemies that we ever heard of. Although never a professor of religion, yet he had a profound respect for all its institutions and conformed to all its outward observances. His co-operation, too, with our Mother's religious training of Irish Protestant training told well upon him in his active, enterprising life, and while he seemed to need a double measure of grace, yet have we good hope that he at last found rest and peace in the smile of the Master. He never used the rod upon his children. This branch of the home training came from the other side of the house, and always when required, with loving severity. A look and a nod were enough from him. Indeed, family government training of children meant something then. It seems to have nearly disappeared from our world, and may almost be numbered as among the lost arts. He died quietly in his home after a not long, but severe illness, in April 182____, aged 62 years, 22 years after his return from Youngstown (Ohio).

Our Mother survived him 14 years, and died at last full of hopeful hope, in September 1839, in the old home of her Father, in the village of Whites-town, NY, aged 67 years. Of the 7 children, all survived our Father and all our Mother, save one, one more, the youngest, died in 1862, aged 53 and of the 5 who still survive, 3 sons and 2 daughters, the oldest nearly 82, and the youngest in her 70th year. Very truly yours, C.C. Young, New York, Aug 25, 1875."

John Young, Sr, was of Scotch-Irish origin and in 1713 in his 96th year, his son David, Grandson, their brothers and sisters, husbands, in all 14, formed a part of the Scotch-Irish colony that landed in Boston in the same year. Dr William Young was a son of David Young, and was born in 1714 and died 1795, married Jane Foster in 1738, to this union was born 2 children: John, born May 22, 1739, Susanna, born October 9th, 1741.

Jane Young, wife of William Young, died March 30th, 1743, aged 27 years. Dr John Young married Elizabeth Smith, 2/21/1760. She was the daughter of Col. John Smith of Wrentham, Mass, born 1716, and died in Wrentham, 1793, married Elizabeth Woodstock, 1739. Dr Young was the first Physician of Peterboro, New Hampshire. The following children were born to them, all in Peterboro, NH:

John - born 3/8/1763, married Mary Stone White of Whitestown, NY.

THE SPITZER FAMILY, of YORK, Pa, and CHICAGO, ILL.

(The Compiler's Mother, Mrs Albert McGalla, (H-125-8), and sister, Miss Helen McGalla (H-125-81), of Chicago, were close friends of a distant Kinswoman, descended of this Young Family J. She was Mrs Israel G. Spitzer (Gertrude Alice Remelle), of Chicago, but born in York, Penna, and descended from Dr. John Young of Peterboro, New Hampshire, thru his daughter Anna Maria Young, who married John Branishole, of York, Penna. (This Mrs Spitzer furnished The Compiler with the following data, and after her death, The Compiler has added here the data concerning the death of her son, her husband and herself.

"Anna Maria Branishole, married in the year 1795, died in the year 1835, in Richfield, Penna, and buried in Old Nelmonds Cemetery, near Richfield, Penna, with husband and 2 children. Her children were as follows:

Anna Maria, born 1776, died 1868, married Andrew Kohler, 1817.

Frederick, born 7/11/1798, died 8/24/1831. Unmarried.

Peter, born 1804, married Eliza McConnell.

Katherine Elizabeth, born 1801, married Thomas North, 6/28/1829.

Rebecca, born 4/3/1810, died 8/21/1831. Unmarried.

Anna Maria Branishole was the Great-great-Grandmother of Gertrude Spitzer. William Young, (said to have been born in Londonderry, Ireland), who was the father of Dr John Young, was Chairman of the Worcester, Mass, Convention of 1776, and was elected Magistrate, and was Chairman of the Committee of Correspondence. Dr John Young served as Surgeon in Peabody's Regiment, New Hampshire State Troops, from the first of January 1778, was commissioned 1/17/1778, war Dept, War of the Revolution.

This Mrs Gertrude Spitzer was a member of Chicago Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and was often a visitor in The Compiler's home, being a close friend of his Mother, and sister Helen. She often discussed the Young Kinship, and was preparing a complete descent line to be included here, when she died. Her full name was Mrs Israel G. Spitzer, (Gertrude Alice Remelle), and she was born in York, Penna, the daughter of Mr --- Remelle. Her husband, Mr Spitzer, was born in Centerville, Maryland, (8/14/1876).

This Mrs Spitzer was authority for the statement that there are many fine Young records at York, Penna - probably on this "J" Family, but possibly also on our Baltimore "A" Family, some of whom may have branched off to York, Penna, and vicinity. These old records are said to trace clear back to Ayr, Scotland. We know, of course, that the "A" Family, thru the generations, branched off to Phila, Penna, also to Lebanon-Lancaster-York, Penna - as well as to Wilmington (Newcastle), Lawrence Co, Penna. And we know that this "J" Family had this branch come South from Worcester, Mass-Peterboro, Nh, to York, Penna.

Unfortunately, we have in 1947, no trace whatever of these various branches settling in these towns in Eastern Penna - but there are remembrances of old letters from the Baltimore "A" Family, mentioning visiting Young and Elder "Cousins" in these places, and living for a time with them. Also the Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, and her father, William Young, who made the flag that flew over Ft Mifflin, about which Francis Scott Key wrote the "Star Spangled Banner" - lived for many years in the vicinity of Philadelphia, and so it is said, also at Lebanon, Penna, as well as coming back again to Baltimore to live. With all this, those old Young records at York, Pa, might be very desirable for some interested Young descendent to trace.

This Mrs Gertrude Spitzer (12/1939) lived at 6212 Eberhard Ave, and about 1935 lived at 4438 Drexel Blvd, and on 3/25/1940, was living at 3974 Lake Park Ave, and from there, went to live with a friend in Engle-

He attended school, had some knowledge of Latin, Geometry, and surveying, aside from the ordinary schooling of the period. At sixteen years of age he was assistant surveyor of the Islands of Ontario, for the State of New York. The next year a rod-man, locating the Erie Canal, and participated in the ceremony of "ground-breaking" for that work at Rome, July 4th, 1817.

The next year a Cadet at West Point in a class of 125 members, and graduated #12 in his class of 1822. After 4 years given to Army life he resigns June 30th, 1826, and engages in superintending the location and construction of railroads in New York State. Under John B. Jervis, the Saratoga and Schenectady Road is built and Mr Young originates the system of cross-ties or ties as now used.

Then as Engineer and General Manager, he gives fifteen (15) years to the Utica and Schenectady Railroad, resigning that to be Chief Engineer of the Hudson River Railroad, which he pushed to completion and became its President. A lifetime given to developing the resources of his country, and one of the few minds that have created and developed the railroad system in America. W.M. MILLER, Whitesboro, New York.

THE SPITZER FAMILY RECORDS:

Before her death, Mrs Israel G. Spitzer (Gertrude Alice Remelle) (born in York, Penna, and lived and died in Chicago), went to live with a friend in the Englewood Section of Chicago. Her husband had died and her only son had died as the result of an accident - and she was all alone. She had prepared many Young records of her branch of this Family "J", and unknown to The Compiler, these had been left in such a way that we would get them. At her death, she left The Compiler's Sister, (Miss Helen Wayne McCalla-Hall) (125-61-of Chicago), 3 Pictures, a Green Rocking Chair, an old floor-type Radio - and a Chiffonier (or Chest of Drawers). She died in 1942, and it was not until 1947 that The Compiler's Sister told him that these Young records were carefully placed in a drawer of that Chiffonier - so that The Compiler could write them up in these records.

This friend, in whose home Mrs Spitzer died, is Mrs Rouben (or Lawiston) Guillman, 10131 So. Emerald Ave, (Phone Callarcrest 4554), Chicago, Ill. She supposedly still (5/30/1947) has possession of these above articles.

When Mrs Spitzer died, The Compiler and his sister were having difficulties of their own. They were faced with breaking up their large home at 2316 Calumet Ave, Chicago, due to Jew-Negro encroachments. And they were trying to dispose of their large house-full of furniture, in order to condense into a small flat in some other neighborhood - if they could find a flat, in the extreme housing shortage. They had no place to bring any additional furniture.

The Compiler's Brother, Thomas C. McCalla, Sr (Antoinette Broc) (H-125-62), of 2732 Kenwood St, (Phone Sheffield 528), Hammond, Ind, tried to send for the furniture, to take it into his own home. But this Mrs Guillian declined to let it go - and the moving van had to return empty. Shortly after this, Tom had a paralytic stroke, had to quit his position, and there the matter rests.

Mrs Spitzer had, so I believe, 3 Nieces, who were heirs to her effects. One was Mrs Lessie Henry, who lives on a farm at RD --, Loyalty, Ohio. Another is Miss Margaret Burton, who we believe lives at Conistown, Penna. This Mrs Henry wrote to Miss McCalla twice (9/3 and 9/16/1943) saying:

"....I was so disgusted with the way everything was taken over by the Guillmans that I came home with my husband....I certainly hope you were able to get the Chest of Drawers, the Picture and Radio away from her home....It is difficult to understand my Aunt leaving her affairs in such a state....There are so many things I am puzzled about....Will you kindly let me hear from you about this Chest of Drawers. Was Mrs Guillian willing for you to have this after we left? I understood this was my Grandmother's Chest, and I would much rather it were in your home than there at the Guillian's....I presume Mrs Guillian told you we were able to get the green Chair in our car....Mrs Lessie Henry, RD --, Loyalty, Ohio."

On 5/30/1947, The Compiler and his Sister, crowded into a small flat, have no place to put this furniture - even if we could get possession of it. So this data is copied into this record, hoping that some other descendant can get possession of these family Genealogical Records - and add them here. The Compiler-Paul H. McCalla (H-125-65)-2320 Cottage Grove Ave (Apt 3)-Chicago(16), Illinois. (5/30/1947).

Descendants of this Young Family "J" are said to have visited The Compiler's Grandparents, (H-125-Smith Hamill-Nancy McClellan MacCandless-the-latter a daughter of Mary Young (Y-A-213) who was born in Baltimore in 1791), at their home in Keokuk, Iowa. They visited there frequently, and compared notes on family history, and it is said that they both considered themselves in every way as the same general Young Family, probably coming from the same "A" Young Family of Ayr, Scotland - but of different migrations.

Mr Owen D. Young, former (1930) President of the General Electric Co, supposedly descends from this "J" Family. It is interesting to note that the MacCandless Family, who intermarried with our Family "A" Youngs, had one branch of the MacCandless Family found the MacCandless Lamp Co, which was later absorbed by the General Electric Co.

HAMILL GENEALOGY YOUNG SECTION FAMILY "K":

YOUNG FAMILY "K"

Five YOUNG Brothers, (Origin Unknown), Date: (1930) Mr Frank P. Young, landed at — — — — —, MAINE, about Threshing Machine Dealer, Kane-the year — — — — —. They went West, ville, Kane County, Illinois.
separated, and never rejoined each (Of this Family "K").

One Brother settled at STRAFFORD,
VERMONT, whence in 1850, he and family moved to Kaneville, Kane County, Illinois.

These Youngs of Family "K" are probably of Scotch origin, and if carefully traced back, doubtless originated at Ayr, Scotland, and are of our same Family "A" stock - and the same as Families "B" - "C" - "J" - etc. But this is not known definitely.

The history of this Young Family "K" is that five (5) Young Brothers landed at — — — — —, Maine, about the year — — — — —.
They went West, and separated, and never rejoined each other again.

The descendants of one Brother settled at Strafford, Vermont, whence in 1850, they homesteaded 200 acres at Kaneville, Kane County, Illinois. A descendant of this particular Brother, who gave this information, is: Mr Frank P. Young, Threshing Machine Dealer, Kaneville, Kane County, Illinois. The Compiler corresponded with him in 1930.

This Mr Frank P. Young gave, in 1930, his Historical Collection, and his War of 1812 Collection, to the Aurora Library, of Aurora, Illinois, (near Kaneville) - for permanent display and safekeeping.
His Grandfather, — — — — — Young, was born, presumably at Strafford, Vermont, on 1/27/1792, and died, presumably at Kaneville, Illinois, on 5/23/1869. This Grandfather's sister, — — — — — Young, married Mr Abner Skinner, at Lowell, Massachusetts.

This branch of the family do not, - apparently, have the same Legends as our Family "A" - doubtless because they were completely separated from them. They know nothing, for instance, of the Young affinity for, and intermarrying with, Elders-Scotts-Stuarts (Stewarts). They, of course, know nothing of Legends of Baltimore, and Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland, etc.

The Compiler - Paul H. McGalla, (H-125-65) - Chicago, Ill.
(1930, - and 6/7/1947).

Roman-Catholic, Norman-French, "JEUNE" Family invade England with William the Conqueror. Anglicize their name first to "YOUNCE", then to "YOUNG".

BENJAMIN YOUNG Emigrated to Baltimore, Md, became Land Commissioner for Lords Baltimore (The Calvert Family), and died 1754. Owned much land where Washington, DC, now stands. Had wife ANNA YOUNG, and Son, NOTLEY YOUNG. NOTLEY later gave much land to Found-Washington, DC.

Data: (1930) Various Reference Books in Newberry Library, Chicago.
(3/21/1930) Dr Hugh H. Young, MD, Cold Spring Lane, Baltimore, Md. (Of a (Virginia family of Youngs).
(3/24/1930) Mr Tolley A. Blava, Antique & Art Dealer, 2807 Oak St, Baltimore, Maryland.
(1930) Mr George Washington Young, Attorney, Milwaukee, Wis. (Of Family N).
(7/11/1930) Capt. I.S.K. Reeves, US Navy Medical Corps, Parris Island, Virginia. (Of Family N).

THESE ARE ROMAN-CATHOLIC YOUNGS of FRENCH DESCENT - ORIGINALLY "JEUNE"

The reader should bear in mind that Baltimore, Maryland, had two (2) separate and distinct Young Families settled there from the earliest times. One was our Scotch, Family "A" Youngs, from Ayr, Scotland, who had a town house in Baltimore, and a country home at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland. They are intermarried with and associated with the Elders-Scotts-Stuarts (Stewarts).

The other was this Family "N" who were Norman-French, settled in England, originally named "Jeune", later Anglicized to Young, and who were Roman Catholics. Benjamin Young of this family, Emigrated from England to Baltimore, Md, became Land Commissioner for the Calvert family, (The Lords Baltimore), and died in 1754.

These Norman-French, Roman-Catholic Youngs of Family "N" may be recognized and differentiated from our Scotch Youngs, (Family "A") by the fact that they intermarried with the following Roman-Catholic Families: Notley-Rozier-Carroll-Diggs, etc. They may also be recognized by the fact that they, being descended from the French "Jeune" family, have on their Crest the French phrase: "Toujours Jeune" (Always Young).

It is a bit more confusing because Family "A" have some few of our own Scotch Youngs of Family "A" - from Ayr, Scotland - occasionally associated with them. Also Elders-Scotts-Stuarts (Stewarts). The natural affinity of these 4 families seems to apply even when the other family is of the Roman-Catholic faith and of French "Jeune" extraction.

So occasionally you will find some definitely Scotch-Youngs associated with these French "Jeune" Youngs. A prominent Catholic firm of Publishers of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the Elder Family - but their own genealogical records show them as coming from Scotland, and they turned Catholic later. Many of the Royal Stuarts turned Catholic in Scotland and in France, and are naturally associated here.

Therefore, in trying to trace our own "A" Family of Youngs, from Ayr, Scotland, who lived in Baltimore, Md, and at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Md, from the earliest times - it is very difficult to keep their record differentiated from these family "N" Youngs, who were Anglo-French "Jeune" Youngs, and Roman Catholics.

Gilbert Stuart, the famous Painter, painted many of these wealthy and prominent Youngs of this Catholic family, as well as many of the Calverts. He also painted several prominent Scotch Youngs, who possibly trace back to our Family "A".

"Land Washington owned nearby to be site of factory. A Parcel of land that had not figured in a real estate transaction since George Washington deeded it to Notley Young more than 150 years ago, has fallen victim at last to the building boom that is on in Washington. It is a 10-acre tract on Glesboro Point, not far from Bolling Field, and is a part of the original tract that was designated for the National Capital. George Washington parted with it to the Young family about 1776. Since then, generation after generation has withheld it from the real estate market. Yesterday, however, Henrietta E. Ewing, lineal descendant of the family, transferred the tract through the office of Boss and Phelps to a local business man for a factory site."

This presents the Catholic viewpoint, and is a little different from the other historical records, which records show Notley Young and others as Masons, and founding Washington, DC, with a Masonic ceremony. The original Baltimore Youngs of our Family "A" were Protestants, but aided the Catholics in the founding of Baltimore. Some few of our "A" Family Youngs, and their Elder—Scott—Stuart (Stewart) Kinsmen, became Catholics. This record, of course, refers to the Family "M" Youngs.

THE CATHOLIC FOUNDERS OF THE NATIONAL CAPITAL, By Margaret B. Downing. (The Paulist Press, 120 West 60th St, New York, NY—Copyright 1917 by the Missionary Society of St Paul the Apostle, in the State of New York.)

"George Washington's majestic figure overshadows all others concerned in the establishment of the Capital of the US on the banks of the Patomac. ... Some (who gave assistance to the Catholics) were owners of the 10 square miles taken from Maryland and Virginia to form the Dist. of Columbia. Many ... rendered important service in purchasing and laying out the city, as Daniel Carroll of Rock Creek, brother of the Archbishop ... of the 16 Proprietors who owned estates at present comprising the District of Columbia, six ... were Catholics ... two were Notley Young and Daniel Carroll of Dodington, were joint Proprietors of the vast tract known as Cerne Abbey Manor ... roughly embracing all that portion of Washington City from the site of the Bureau of Engraving to 9th and K Sts, N-W, from the Anacostia River or Eastern Branch, with the Patomac along its South-East and S-W shores to the rural districts beyond the Navy Yard ... adding all the village of Anacostia to Bennings and N-E of the City to the suburb of Eckington. Preeminent distinction must be given to the same Notley Young and Daniel Carroll among the founders of the Catholic Church in the Capital of the Nation.

Notley Young was the Uncle of Daniel Carroll of Dodington, and their vast estate on the Patomac had descended on the distaff side, from the Notley Rozier, who was Godson and heir of Thomas Notley, Governor of Maryland, 1676-1679. Governor Notley came of a noble Catholic line of Dorset, England, and he had called his Patomac Manor Grant Cerne Abbey, after the famous Benedict Foundation which Aelfric, the Grammarian, ruled for many years as abbot. The Roziers were kindred of the most illustrious pioneer families of Maryland; Sewalls, who for 3 generations gave Missionary Priests to the Province; Digges, who were militant as well as religious defenders of the Faith, since the founder of the Family in Lord Baltimore's Palatinate, Sir Dudley Digges, was the gallant defender of St Mary's City (SEE OTHER SIDE).

when it was besieged by Coode in the Protestant rebellion....Penwicks, Cavaliers who stood loyally for the Stuarts in the Scottish Highlands and in the wilderness of Maryland....the Darnells....the Carrolls, the Brents, Hills, Queens, Jenkins, Mattinglys, Spaldings, Lancasters. All had intermarried with the ancestors of Notley Young and Daniel Carroll.

Of such stern and uncompromising Catholic ancestry came Notley Young, a patriarchal figure in the early days of Washington City. He was twice married, first to Mary, daughter of Ignatius Digges of Melrose, and the 2nd to Mary, daughter of Daniel Carroll of Upper-Marlboro....More than 30 years before Washington came from Mt Vernon to confer with the Proprietors along the Patomac, the Manor House of Notley Young was a shelter and a refuge for the Catholics of the vicinity. It stood on the high river bank on what is now G. Street, between 9th and 10th, S.W....Notley Young gave generously .....to the struggling Church of DC....He left 6 children....Notley, 2nd, became a Secular Priest....Nicholas and Benjamin married and left large families....Rev. Dominic Young, member....Order of Preachers....Pastor of St Dominic's Church in South Washington.

There were 2 Rev. Ignatius Penwick Youngs, Uncle and Nephew, and father, Raymond Young, in Baltimore....Notley Young died in his Manor House in 1802, buried in mausoleum on the river bank....later, Robert Brent, the Mayor, had all the remains laid in the Carroll burial ground at St John's on Rock Creek. Daniel Carroll of Duddington added the heroic strain of Carrolls, Chiefs of Ely....He was a Great-Grandson of that Charles Carroll, Immigrant, who was Provincial Attorney-General of Maryland. Was 2nd Cousin of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, the Signer, Daniel of Duddington was just entering his majority when President Washington became a familiar figure to denizens of Upper Patomac....He died in 1840....his kinsmen were William Dudley Digges, Robert Brent, William Brent of Richland, whose daughter he had married, Charles Carroll of Bellevue, his brother, and James Young....

William Dudley Digges lived in Chillum Castle Manor, Green Hill, Montgomery Co, Maryland. The chatelain (here) was the daughter of Daniel Carroll of Duddington....Robert Brent, first Mayor of Washington...was the son of Robert Brent of Woodstock, on Acqui Creek, Virginia....and Mother was Annie, eldest sister of Archbishop Carroll. Brents of Acqui were descendants of George Brent, Immigrant....who came to Virginia in the 17th Century .....not, as far as genealogical records show, related to the Maryland Brents Gyles and Hugh, who came over with Governor Leonard Calvert's Colony on the "Ark and Dove"....While Mayor, Robert Brent was Judge of the Orphan's Court, and in-charge of extensive Charities devolving on him through the Father-in-law Notley Young's Will...his handsome Country Seat, Brentwood.

YOUNG FAMILY N:

AN INTERESTING LETTER REGARDING THE YOUNGS OF BALTIMORE:

(The Compiler had corresponded (1930) with the famous Surgeon of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md, Dr Hugh H. Young, MD, regarding Youngs. This (Dr Hugh H. Young, MD, is descended from some Virginia Youngs, of just which family it is not known - but he might(?) trace back finally to this "N" family of Catholic Youngs. Dr Young was a collector of oil paintings, particularly of the Youngs and Calverts (Lords Baltimore), of early Baltimore history, and at his death, he very generously left this collection to the city of Baltimore. Following is a brief letter from him, and a letter from his "Art Expert," giving data about these "N" Family Catholic Youngs of Baltimore, etc.

"5/31/1930 - "Dear Dr O'Calla: The enclosed letter from Mr Blays explains itself. After reading and making notes from it, please return it to me. Mrs Leonard is my second cousin, and a descendent of my Great-Grandfather. Her address is Tuscany Apartments, Baltimore, Md. Sincerely yours, Dr. Hugh H. Young, MD, Baltimore, Maryland." (3/31/1930)

(Note by Paul H. McCalla (The Compiler): Dr Young, -or his Secretary,)

(was thinking so deeply of the part the Youngs played in Founding )
(the great Catholic Colony of Baltimore, that they inadvertently ) (addressed me by the good old Irish name of "O'Calla" instead of )
(the Scotch name of "McCalla" (MacCalla)).

Dr. Hugh H. Young, March 24, 1930.
Cold Spring Lane,
Baltimore, Maryland.

Dear Dr Young: In reply to yours of March 18th, would say, your letter would have been answered sooner, but it has taken several days to look up papers in respect to the Young ownership of most of the City of Washington. Benjamin Young, being Land Commissioner under Lord Baltimore, owned a number of other tracts of land, and Dr Cala refers to that section around Elk, which was probably a part of a grant. It must be also true where he states the Youngs and Lord Baltimore were friends in England and Ireland before coming to this country. When the Young family acquired that section along the Patomac, there was no thought that it ever would become a Capital.

Among the most noted of the Youngs living at this time in Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania, were Notley, Abraham, William, George and Robert. The foundation of the City of Washington began with impressive Masonic ceremony April 15th, 1791, and the Three Commissioners appointed were Daniel Carroll, Thomas Johnston and David Stuart of Virginia. Notley Young, father of Mary Young, held nearly all of the property within the center of the city, and Duddington Manor of 1400 acres became a part of the City of Washington.

In 1679 Thomas Notley willed this to his Godson, Notley Rozier. He married Jane Digges and their only child, Eleanor Rozier, married Daniel Carroll. The title to this property became vested in the only son of Daniel Carroll, named Charles Carroll, Jr. His eldest son, named Daniel Carroll, 2nd, of Duddington, became owner of 1 section.

In 1753, a section of Duddington Manor was conveyed by Charles Carroll, Jr, to his Step-Mother, Anna Young, the second wife of the first Daniel

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(6/4/1947).

Carroll. Anna Young's first husband was Benjamin Young, the Father of Notley Young. Benjamin Young died in 1734 and Notley in 1802. Benjamin Young came from England and served for a number of years as Land Commissioner under Lord Baltimore. A tract of land belonging to him, near what became the Northern original limits of Washington, was inherited by his son, Notley, and became part of that tract already owned by the said Notley Young. He married Mary Digges. His Mother, by deed of March 21st, 1762, conveyed to him a tract of what became the Southern section of the City of Washington. This was the portion conveyed in 1753 to her by Charles Carroll, Jr.

The first Daniel Carroll of Duddington, was the Great Uncle of Charles Carroll of Carrollton, the Signer. He came from Ireland and married Eleanor Darnell, daughter of Henry Darnell of near Upper Marlboro. I trust this is the information you desired. It may be interesting to know of some of the Youngs that were painted by Gilbert Stuart:

JOHN YOUNG, (1785-1825): The mezzo-tint engraver of famous English paintings. Keeper of the British Institute. Painted when he was 27 by Stuart in London in 1782. A handsome young man, done in Stuart's best style with beautiful landscape in background. Now in this country, and I believe can be bought.

JUDGE JOHN YOUNG, (1762-1840): Son of a well-to-do Merchant of Glasgow. Was in office with Sir Walter Scott's father. Came to Philadelphia in 1780. Married Martha Barclay in 1794. In 1806 appointed 10th district of Penna. A most distinguished looking gentleman. Painted by Stuart in Phila in 1800. His wife was also painted the same year.

ROBERT YOUNG, (1748-1814): Officer Revolutionary War, also War of 1812. US Senator from Virginia, painted by Stuart in Washington, 1805.

At one time I owned a portrait of Charles Calvert, the Third Lord Baltimore, by Sir Peter Lely, and I believe the Lord Baltimores were some relation of yours. I am sending the photograph of another Lord Baltimore, which painting I now have the promise of from one of the Calverts to sell to me. Although the photograph is poor, the painting is a fine one and if you are interested would be pleased to let you know as soon as I receive same. With my kindest regards, I am, Most Sincerely Yours, (COMPILER'S NOTE: Remember that Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, (daughter of William YOUNG, of Balto. & Phila), made the "Star Spangled Banner" which flew over Ft Mchenry in the war of 1812 - and that she secured permission from Charles Carroll of Carrollton to make it in his Malt House. Then remember that Francis SCOTT Key wrote the beloved Anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner" about that Flag.

TOLLEY A. BLAYS."

(Anyone who knows Young Family history, of our "A" Family, knows of the constant intermarrying, association, team-work, and burial together of the Youngs-Balders-Scotts-Stuarts (Stewarts) - tracing back hundreds of years to Ayr-Deisley-Edinburgh, Scotland. Therefore, The Compiler believes that this is just another example of the usual Young-Scott teamwork - and that someday this will be proven.

(Meanwhile, note also that the natural affinity of these 4 families seems to apply even when the other family is of the Roman Catholic faith, or of Norman-French "Jeune" extraction. For a number of our Scotch Protestantists from Ayr, Scotland, of these 4 Families, have turned Roman Catholic, and have become associated with these "A" Family Youngs, etc.

(The Compiler's Sister, Miss Helen Anna Hawkes, (1888-61), of Chicago, (about 1896 and thereafter, copied many excerpts from various books in the Newberry Library, Chicago - and from other libraries in various other cities she visited. The following is from one such book - but we do not know from which book, or in which library she found it.

This probably refers to Family "1", the Norman-French "JUNIOR" Family, (who invaded England with William the Conqueror, who settled in England, (and who anglicized their name first to "JUNIOR" and later to "JUNIOR".

This may also refer to the "JUNIOR" Family, who settled (in Virginia, who are well known to genealogical records, but whose history is not recorded in this Young Section.

This probably also refers to some of those descendants who settled in New York State - and who are not recorded in this Young Section.

"Of the ancient Anglo-Norman Family Young we learn, from the researches of John Thorpe, Herald and Chronicler of the Midland Counties, England - that said house was descended from Emma Young, Lord of Hereford - and that the spelling of this family's name was anglicized to Young during the reign of Henry the Seventh (7th), - whence, by Charter from that King, the head of this family, Robert Young, became Lord of Kinross Manor, County of Lincoln - prior to which, from the time of the Norman Conquest, this family had held demesne in said County.

Three Cadets of this house, for gallant military service to Queen Elizabeth, in the early part of that Sovereign Lady's reign - were confirmed by her Royal Charter in title to the demesne of the Barony of Aisgar, Ireland, upon which is seated Saltinbrough Castle - County of Cavan.

This family is Lord of the Manor of Burwood Park - of which the seat is Burwood Hall, County of Surrey, England.

From this branch issued the Knights William and John Young, who during the fierce rebellions at the close of Elizabeth's reign, were so harassed and persecuted by factious partisans in the County of Cavan - their estates laid waste - that they were constrained to flee to Swords County, Dublin - on some freeholds near which and also in Connaught - from a position of opulence and high respect - they were reduced to the condition of "simple Yeomen" - whence, about the year 1650 - this branch of the Young family resolved to emigrate to the Colonial Province of York, there landing at Manhattan Port, they secured a Crown settlement in Dutchess County - Thorpe - the aforesaid Chronicler, proved that some of this family were also domiciled at Winoctady, York Province, and at Worcester, Massachusetts, seeing that from both these places, letters were written by John Young to George Legge, Lord of the Manor of Aston, and to Lord Tunley, of Tunley Castle, Sunderland, both of which gentlemen owned landed estates as neighbors to the Youngs in Ireland.

These gentlemen, from the letters found in Aston Hall Archives, felt a deep interest in the welfare and prosperity of the branch of the Youngs settled in the Province of York.

The original motto of the Young Family, granted by William the Conqueror, is "Victoria, fortitudo, vortus" - but to this was added another motto in Norman.

The latter motto in Norman French, "Tallan dunn" - was presented on a golden shield, by Henry the Fifth, ten years after the battle of Agincourt. The old knight in that battle being eighty (80) years of age, still heroically, with the aid of his horse, fought over, and utterly routed the French King's "Royal Guard."

The King was so pleased with the gallantry of this aged knight as to remark in the presence of the army - that, this old knight Young was yet clearly the youngest and most spirited of all his Commanders. (see sketch).

thereupon, ordered a gold shield, with the motto "Sic ut solent" - Always young - to be the future motto of the family.

This brief sketch is copied principally from an old manuscript found in the Archives of Wimpole Castle, Wimpole, England, and also from a manuscript handed to Sir John Young, Governor of Canada - found by Anthony Barclay of the British Consulate.

It seems, also from the latter manuscript, that another branch of this family, related to Sir John Young, also settled in North State as late as seventy(70) years ago. This was of the old English family of "Grogan."

HAMILL GENEALOGY - YOUNG SECTION - FAMILY "R":

WILLIAM YOUNG, (and wife, Elizabeth Johnson) left Londonderry, Ireland, and came to America in 1790 - with 6 children.

He and his children settled in Wilmington, North Carolina - later in Lincoln County, Tennessee. The 3rd Generation moved to Texas.

Elizabeth's father and 5 Brothers came to America before 1790, settling in the Mohawk Valley, NY - and all were said to have been killed in the Battle of the Brandywine.

Data: (9/1951-11/5/1951) Mrs Charles Clyde Cartwright, (Olivia Hotchkiss), 1841 Belmont Blvd, (20 Box 2302), Amilene, Texas. (Who is a descendent of this Young Family "R" and has full records of this Family). This data originally forwarded to The Compiler by Mrs Albert James Covel, (Sylvia Ellen Salter) (8-124-115), 3415 NE 41st Avenue, Portland (15), Oregon. (Asst. Editor of The Hamill Genealogy).

This William Young family settled (1790) in Wilmington, North Carolina. Later William, and his son Samuel, lived in Lincoln County, South Central Tennessee. Samuel's children all moved to Texas.

"VERBAL TRADITION OF YOUNG FAMILY "R":

"William Young was born in Londonderry, Ulster, Ireland, and was buried in Herford Cemetery in Tennessee. A fall on the ice in Ireland caused him to have to remain in bed for 2 years, and to be a hunchback for the rest of his life. He was sneared to marry Elizabeth Johnson before he was hurt, and she married him in spite of the wishes of her father and 5 Brothers. Her son Samuel named one of his sons John Johnson Young, which makes me wonder if her father was named John Johnson.

Elizabeth Johnson (Young's) father and three brothers were in the linen business, and the English laws ruined the business and they came to America. They are said to have settled in the Mohawk Valley, and to have been killed at the Battle of the Brandywine, (Penn), in Sullivan's Command.

William Young was a Weaver and made machinery for weaving, as well as designing and weaving beautiful patterns in table cloths and other linen work. One of the reasons the Johnson men came to America is because they were displeased when their daughter and sister, Elizabeth, married William Young. William and Elizabeth's children were all born in Ireland. Samuel (Armstrong?) Young was the youngest, except a baby girl who died during the crossing, and was buried at sea. Samuel was born in 1787 and was 3 years old in 1790 when the family came to America, settling at Wilmington, North Carolina. Elizabeth the Mother, died supposedly in 1796 and is buried at Wilmington. In the later years of his life, William Young lived with his son, Samuel, in Lincoln County, Tennessee. All of his life he continued to speak with a strong brogue. After Samuel married, William taught his daughter-in-law, Jane, to weave the beautiful patterns he designed. The surviving children of William and Elizabeth are as follows:

SECOND GENERATION:

- (1) Moses Young, married: (Moses was killed by a stone thrown by a drunken man. Moses had 4 sons, as follows:
  - (a) William Young, Jr, who lived at Nashville, Tenn. (b) Frank Young, (who lived at Nashville. (c) Edward Young, who lived at Nashville. (d) George Young, (who had an invalid wife), and who lived in Lincoln County, Tennessee.

" (These 4 daughters of William and Elizabeth Young, married a Smith, a Maely, an Underwood and a Black. We do not know which daughter married which man. There was a child named Arline Underwood whom Alfred (William Young (son of Samuel), remembered as a child. Arline and Alfred played together as children. A daughter of one of William Young's (listed as "a" above) married a man named Watts. Watts was a Sharpshooter in Andrew Jackson's army at the Battle of New Orleans. He told Alfred Williams Young that he sat on a cotton bale and fired rifles for five or six soldiers, who loaded the guns. "

William Young, and wife, Elizabeth Johnson, left Londonderry, Ireland, and came to America in 1790, when their son, Samuel Young, was only 3 years old. A baby girl, (the youngest child), died on the ship during the trip to America. The family settled (1790) at Wilmington, North Carolina. The Mother, Elizabeth Johnson Young, died (1796) and is buried there in Wilmington, N.C. The Father, William, survived his wife, and later lived with his son Samuel, at _____, in Lincoln County, South Central Tennessee.

THIRD GENERATION:

Samuel (Armstrong) Young, Married: Jane Kerr, / / at _____, Kentucky. Samuel Young's middle name may be Armstrong(?), but it is not given on his tombstone. Samuel and Jane had 10 children, as follows:

- (1) Elizabeth _____ Young, Married: _____ Huff.
- (2) William _____ Young, 2nd, Married: Elizabeth _____ Baylor.
- (3) James Kerr Young, Married (1st): Laurena _____ Davidson.
(2nd): Mary Ann Train.
- (4) John Johnson Young, Married: Suteria Train.
- (5) Minerva _____ Young, Married: William Butler Freeman.
- (6) Alfred Williams Young, Married: Susan Aliza Green.
- (7) Marianne _____ Young, Married: Stephen Benjamin Shiple.
- (8) Wesley Buskin Young, Married: Armina Nehala Ivy, (half-sister of Mary ) (Anne Train).
- (9) Martha _____ Young, Married: James Harris McCollum. (Martha Young married James Harris McCollum, and she was never married but one time. She had several children, the record of whom I have, and then she died. Her widower, (James Harris McCollum) married second, Mrs Armina Nehala (Ivy) Young, who had married Martha's brother, Wesley Buskin Young (#8). Wesley Buskin Young (#8) was dead also at the time Armina Nehala (Ivy) Young married James Harris McCollum (#9), and there was one child of this 2nd marriage. Armina was a half-sister to Mary Anne Train, who became the 2nd wife of James Kerr Young (#5) (brother of Wesley (#8), Martha (#9), etc.).
- (10) David Kerr Young. (Died as a child).

The above 10 children of William Young, all had large families, and Mrs C.C. Cartwright, of Abilene, Texas, (who furnished this record), has data on them in her MSS - and will gladly furnish information to those interested.

Samuel Young grew up to be a Wagoner, making trips into the Central States, and in _____, Kentucky, he met and married Jane Kerr. He and Jane lived in _____, Lincoln County, South Central Tennessee, and his father, William Young, lived with them there. Most of Samuel and Jane's children moved to Texas, possibly all of them. Samuel Young died, and is buried, near the town of West Point, in South Texas.

Continuing the Family of William and Elizabeth Johnson Young:
" (6) Samuel Young, (youngest surviving child of William and Elizabeth), died Oct. 3, 1867, aged 79. Samuel Young was a Wagoner, and met Jane Kerr, (daughter of William Kerr and Elizabeth Williams Kerr) on one of his trips to the interior. It is thought that he met Jane in Kentucky. HAMILL GENEALOGY - YOUNG SECTION - FAMILY "R":

"Letter from Cousin Frank Clark Young, (son of Alfred Williams Young) says: "We are absolutely sure that Samuel Young met and married Jane Kerr in Kentucky. My father told us that Jane Kerr did her step-mother's laundering the day before her marriage to Samuel Young, and that the next day they set out for their home in Tennessee. They carried what they had on pack horses. I do not know whether my father meant that Samuel Young was born in Londonderry City, or just Londonderry County." I have in my mind from somewhere that the Kerrs lived near Bowling Green, Ky. But this may be wrong. Jane Kerr's mother is thought to have been related to Ephraim Williams, whose bequest went to Found Williams College in Massachusetts. Jane Kerr Young died Nov. 14, 1851, aged 57, so she was born in 1793 or 1794. Samuel Young's middle name may be "Armstrong", but it is not on his tombstone. All Samuel's children moved to Texas."

"Frank Clark Young, of Post Point, Texas, writes further:

"Great-Grandfather Young died at his home in Lincoln County, Tennessee. My brother Ted thinks his death was in 1806. The part of Lincoln County the Youngs lived in was cut off and named Moore County. Their home was in a triangle made by Winchester, Lynchburg and Fayetteville, and not far from Salem. Elk and Duck rivers were not far distant, as my father (Alfred Williams Young) crossed them to go to the grist-mills."

"The ancestors in Ireland were Presbyterian in faith - Methodists in America. Grandfather Young told us how in Ireland that in the summer, before the evening twilight fades in the West, the morning twilight appears in the East. He told how they could see the blanch greens of Scotland from the place they lived in Ireland. I do not remember how high Torr Head is, nor that of Mull in Scotland. To see the blanch greens 13 1/2 miles away in Scotland would mean good eye-sight for William Young, and considerable altitude for Torr Head."

"Samuel and Jane Young, and their sons, William, Alfred, Wesley and David, and their daughter Elizabeth, are buried in the Woods Prairie Cemetery, one and one-half miles West of Post Point, Texas."

(Letter of 2/16/1951): ".....I have been doing some work on some of my other lines, one being a Kerr line on my father's side, and a Kerr correspondent sent the enclosed Young data. I remembered at one time, your asking for Young data, or for names of persons interested in the Young family. Couldn't find in the Young Genealogy (Section), tho, where this was tied in with yours, but maybe you will be able to make the connection. Mrs G. Cartwright.... is reviving, evidently, an intense interest in her various family lines, after an interval when she thought: "G, what is the use." (Mrs Coven enclosed a brief listing of this Young Family "R").

(Post Card of 10/16/1951): "....Have written Mrs Cartwright and sent the carbon copy for her to fill in, add to, make corrections and return, and will write you when I hear from her. Evidently I copied the data in regard to Samuel Young's 9th child wrong. The 9th child was Martha Young. She married James Harris McCollum, (James Harris McCollum married (3rd) Armina Melala Ivy Young, widow of Wesley Oyskin Young). So evidently Samuel's 9th child, Martha died, leaving her husband free to marry again...." (Compiler's Note: (Wesley(78) and Martha(79) both died, and Armina, the widow of Wesley, married Mr McCollum).

Letter from Mrs Charles C. Cartwright:

(Letter of 11/5/1951): "Box 2303, (1841 Belmont Blvd), Abilene, Texas, Nov. 5th, 1951. Dear Mrs Coven: The street address is above, but get mail at box number. I have no middle name. I was christened Olive Hotchkiss. The name Olive is for my grandfather, who was Dr Nelson Abel. Olive and the Olive family is the one on which I am seeking any and all information. Would be willing to run a clearing house for Olive family information in order to work up the branches of the family. I even want names and addresses of all of this name in other city directories, etc. I will write to them.

Eliz. Johnson's family seems to have come to America some years before she did and been in the Revolution. This is borne out in the fact that her marriage is one reason they left, and she had several children before she came. I do not have any info. on the date of her marriage. The Johnson line is practically impossible to trace as a lot of them change to Johnson, when you get across the water. I have typed a couple of pages of information and tradition on the Youngs. This gives what we have on marriages of Peggy, Patsy and the other two daughters. Where I left out middle names, I do not have them. I have a 1883, which I compiled on these Young descendants, but have no extra copy any more, having sold all but my work copy. There are errors in it, of course, but I may correct and complete it some day. However, I am more interested in the Olive family first.

I have brain information also at greater length than I included in this brief copy I am enclosing. Also more Kerr information as to Jane's brothers and sisters. Also have some small amount of Hamill information (lack of the trains on Family line) - also Williams. I have quite a number of books also, and will be glad to check in them for you if you have particular problems. Have water's 'Gleanings in England', which is two volumes of English Wills. Very helpful if you find your line. Also some Wills and inventories in North Carolina. Also history of Rockbridge County, Virginia. I have a Hamill line in Virginia, on which I have done some work. Also have a Campbell line, but my cousin Mrs Edmund T. Harris of NY City has done most of the work on this line.

I am sending a copy of this letter and also of the material, to your Cousin, (Paul D. McCalla-The Compiler), as this will save time. I have been terribly busy lately, and have had no time to copy this material. kept this 1883 in my desk at the office for two weeks. I am a bookkeeper-steno. for (SEE OTHER SIDE).

This concerns the family of ROBERT RALPH YOUNG, Financier, of Canadian, Texas, New York City, NY, Newport, Rhode Island, and Cleveland, Ohio. He controls the Allegheny Corporation, which in turn controls the Chesapeake & Ohio Ry, the Nickel Plate Ry, the Pere Marquette Ry, and some 200 other affiliated companies.

The ancestors of this family came to America from England just before the Revolutionary War. During the Revolution, they moved to Canada, as Loyalists to the English Crown, and then later, moved back to the United States. Thus they were Tories.

It is thought that this is a family of English Youngs - and that they are not descended from our Scotch Youngs.

Cleveland, Ohio, etc.

Married(2nd): -----, / / at -----

Children: ( ) (Children by this 2nd wife are unknown).

David John Young was born in Chicago, Ill., in 1864. He was raised on a farm in Western Kansas, and grew up to be a cow-man in Colorado. Driving cattle to Canadian, Texas, he met and married Mary Arabella Moody, the daughter of Robert Moody, a cattle rancher of Canadian, Texas, and one of the first settlers there.

Mary Arabella Moody was the Granddaughter of Robert Ralph Moody, of Canadian, Texas. He was a Scotch-English immigrant who arrived in Texas in the 1880's, and became a rancher. In 1890, after the A.I. & S.F. Ry reached Canadian, Robert Ralph Moody quit the cattle business, and opened the 1st National Bank of Canadian, Texas, and David John Young went into business with him.

( There are No Descendants of this Line ).

Robert Ralph Young was named for his Mother's Grandfather, Robert Ralph Moody, a Rancher-Banker of Canadian, Texas. Canadian, where R.R. Young was born on 2/14/1897, is on the Canadian River, in the N.W. Panhandle of Texas. He grew up in that frontier Texas town, the son of a Banker. He attended Culver Military Academy in Indiana. He later attended the University of Virginia, but did not graduate.

R.R. Young started working in a powder mill for the duPont's at Carney's Point, N.Y. He became a Junior Engineer, and later transferred to the Treasurer's Dept. of the duPont Co in Wilmington, Delaware. He met his wife, Anita O'Neale, at Williamsburg, Virginia, where he married her in 1916. Their only child was born in a bungalow there in Wilmington, Del. In 1920 he resigned from duPont's, and lost a $5,000 inheritance on a food processing invention. In 1921 he was employed in the financial dept. of the Allied Chemical Co. In 1922 he was in the financial dept. of General Motors, working at $100. a month under Mr Donaldson Brown, his former chief at duPont's. In 1928 he became the Asst-Treasurer of General Motors, and made a salary and bonus of $35,000.

At the end of 1928, when John J. Raskob left General Motors to attend to his personal enterprises, he took with him R.R. Young as his assistant. Young left Raskob in 1931, and bought a seat on the N.Y. Stock Exchange, and started his own firm of Young, Holbe & Co. (for which Young owned 70%). Mr Frank F. Holbe had been with him in the General Motors financial dept. R.R. Young's business career began to appear in the papers in April, 1937, when he was 40 years old. In May, 1937, he secured control of the Van Sweringen's Allegheny Corporation. He paid some $4,000,000 for this - but it is estimated that only some $254,000. was actually necessary, to secure the control, which attracted much attention. The Van Sweringen's Allegheny Corporation is a giant holding corporation, controlling a great Ry. empire. It controls the prosperous Chesapeake & Ohio Ry, also the Nickel Plate (N.Y., Chicago & St Louis Ry), the Pere Marquette Ry, and is also linked with the Erie Ry, and the Missouri Pacific Ry. Also, some 200 corporate affiliates - coal companies, real estate companies, terminals - are tied into the Allegheny holding company.

R.R. Young was estimated in 1940 to have a fortune of at least 7 million dollars. His office is in the Chrysler Bldg, on 42nd St, New York. He also owned a 40-room home, "Beechwood", on Bellevue Ave, the former home of Vincent Astor, in Newport, Rhode Island. He has an apartment at - - - Park Ave, in New York, and in 1942, he bought the cliffside estate of (see other side).

"Fairholme" - originally built in 1890 for John A. Drexel - a 40-room home, also in Newport, R.I.

R.R. Young is a "stormy petrel" of finance, but is honest, fearless and independent. He is regarded as one of the shrewdest and toughest of the younger set of financiers. He endeared himself to many bondholders of the shaky Allegheny Corp. by paying off 77 million dollars of Allegheny indebtedness. In addition to his financial abilities, he is a literary amateur. He is a small man, 5 feet, 6 inches tall. He had a large head, high, rounded forehead. His eyes are pale blue, his hair prematurely white, his complexion is ruddy, and he has a strong mouth and jaw.

R.R. Young is said to have laid the principal foundation of his large fortune during the "Panic of 1929," when he is said to have extensively "sold stocks short" - and has been said, thus adding to the financial debacle of October, 1929.

Anita - - - O'Keefe lived in Williamsburg, Virginia, but came from Sun Valley, Wisconsin, where her father was a farmer. On her mother's side, she is descended from a Hungarian Revolutionist named George Totto, who came to the US after the uprisings of 1848. Her elder sister, Georgia O'Keefe, is the most famous woman painter of the modern school in the US, and is the wife of the celebrated photographer, Alfred Stieglitz.

Clubs: Newport Country; Spouting Rock Beach Assn(Dailey's Beach); Clambake; Reading Room. Office: Terminal Tower Cleveland, Ohio.

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/4/1947): "Young Seeking Pullman Co, A.A.R. Control. New York(CP) - Robert R. Young, Chairman of the Board of Chesapeake & Ohio Corp, has ambitious plans for extending his influence in railroad affairs, according to an article to be published in the New Republic next Monday. In an exclusive interview with Young, David A. Munro quotes series of questions and answers which develop that the chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway plans, if permitted to become a New York Central director, to put into effect "aggressive improvement" of the Central's passenger service, including "sending the 20th Century Limited to the Coast" through service.

If Young becomes a New York Central director, the article quoted him as saying, he will secure "virtual control" of the "Association of American Railroads and the Pullman Co, or at least a "very strong voice in these things." Moreover, he added, this would put him "in a fair way to democratize those big industrial companies which are controlled by the bankers through their control over the railroads. They have a strong voice in American Coal and Foundry, Baldwin Locomotive, the steel companies and others. Young said he hopes for a decision by the 100 on his bid for a place on the Central Board by the first of next year."

(From: Chicago Daily News-11/12/1947): "(By Leonard Lyons). New York - Robert R. Young, Railroad Man, has postponed the publishing of his autobiography for six months. He is moving back to Texas, to cement the grass-roots legend about him."

FRAGMENT # 101:

ELKTON, MARYLAND, YOUNG: (Letter 7/26/1930 to Compiler): "Your letter was forwarded here to the Shoreham, Ocean City, Md., where we are spending a couple of weeks. Sorry cannot help you much about the Young family. My Father and his family were all from Gullston County, South Carolina, and I know of no Youngs in or around Elkton who have not come there in recent years. We will return home next week, and if I can get any information about your family will let you know. WILLIAM I. YOUNG, 212 East Main Street, Elkton, Maryland. (Compiler's Note: Possibly these are descended from the Penna Youngs who went South, became members of the A.R.P. Church, went to Erskine College, due West, SC. WEST VIRGINIA YOUNGS: (Letter 4/7/1931 to Compiler): ".....My husband's father was William Young, who was born in Jackson County, Ohio, and married Mary McClellan of Green County, Pennsylvania. The father of William Young was William Young, who married Rachel Hoffman. Have not connected up the history of the Youngs, but am interested and will write again. Sincerely, MRS. GERTRUDE YOUNG, (nee John H. Young), 79 West Main Street, Buchanan, WEST VIRGINIA."

FRAGMENT # 103:

McKEESPORT, PENNA: In 1930, The Compiler met a Chicago member of the Young family, whose people came from McKeesport, Penna. He was Robert H. Young, then living at 5742 North Francisco Ave, Chicago, Ill. He was connected with The Electrograph Co, of Chicago. He knew almost nothing about his descent, and it is not known from which family of Youngs he is descended.

FRAGMENT # 104:

(From Chicago Tribune-4/5/1942): "ARTHUR YOUNG & CO. FOUNDED IN 1854 AT 85. BEGAN CAREER HERE. New York, April 4, (1942). Arthur Young, Founder and Senior Partner of Arthur Young & Co, accountants and auditors, died yesterday at his winter residence in Aiken, SC. He was 85. Born in Scotland, Young came to this country in 1890 after receiving Master of Arts and Bachelor of Laws Degrees from Glasgow University. In 1894 he began the practice of public accounting in Chicago, in partnership with C. W. Stuart, under the firm name of Stuart & Young. In 1903 the name was changed to Arthur Young & Co. The company now has offices in several of the principal cities of the United States and Canada. A pioneer public accountant in Illinois, Young helped secure the passage in 1903 of that State's first C.A. Law. He was a former President of the Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants. Since 1917 he had made his home in New York. His clubs included the Chicago and Mid Day Clubs of Chicago. He was not married."

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

1. The first part of the experiment is to determine the concentration of the solution. This is done by measuring the volume of the solution and the mass of the solute. The concentration is then calculated using the formula:  $C = \frac{m}{V}$ , where  $C$  is the concentration,  $m$  is the mass, and  $V$  is the volume.

2. The second part of the experiment is to determine the molar mass of the solute. This is done by measuring the mass of the solute and the volume of the solution. The molar mass is then calculated using the formula:  $M = \frac{m}{n}$ , where  $M$  is the molar mass,  $m$  is the mass, and  $n$  is the number of moles.

3. The third part of the experiment is to determine the boiling point of the solution. This is done by measuring the temperature of the solution as it is heated. The boiling point is then determined by the temperature at which the solution begins to boil.

4. The fourth part of the experiment is to determine the freezing point of the solution. This is done by measuring the temperature of the solution as it is cooled. The freezing point is then determined by the temperature at which the solution begins to freeze.

5. The fifth part of the experiment is to determine the density of the solution. This is done by measuring the mass of the solution and the volume of the solution. The density is then calculated using the formula:  $D = \frac{m}{V}$ , where  $D$  is the density,  $m$  is the mass, and  $V$  is the volume.

6. The sixth part of the experiment is to determine the refractive index of the solution. This is done by measuring the angle of refraction of the solution. The refractive index is then calculated using the formula:  $n = \frac{\sin i}{\sin r}$ , where  $n$  is the refractive index,  $i$  is the angle of incidence, and  $r$  is the angle of refraction.

7. The seventh part of the experiment is to determine the viscosity of the solution. This is done by measuring the time it takes for the solution to flow through a tube. The viscosity is then calculated using the formula:  $\eta = \frac{t}{V}$ , where  $\eta$  is the viscosity,  $t$  is the time, and  $V$  is the volume.

8. The eighth part of the experiment is to determine the surface tension of the solution. This is done by measuring the force required to pull a ring out of the solution. The surface tension is then calculated using the formula:  $\gamma = \frac{F}{L}$ , where  $\gamma$  is the surface tension,  $F$  is the force, and  $L$  is the length of the ring.

9. The ninth part of the experiment is to determine the osmotic pressure of the solution. This is done by measuring the pressure of the solution as it is pushed through a membrane. The osmotic pressure is then calculated using the formula:  $\pi = \frac{P}{V}$ , where  $\pi$  is the osmotic pressure,  $P$  is the pressure, and  $V$  is the volume.

10. The tenth part of the experiment is to determine the dielectric constant of the solution. This is done by measuring the capacitance of the solution. The dielectric constant is then calculated using the formula:  $\epsilon = \frac{C}{C_0}$ , where  $\epsilon$  is the dielectric constant,  $C$  is the capacitance, and  $C_0$  is the capacitance of the vacuum.

(From: Chicago Tribune - 3/19/1955): "JOHN H. YOUNG. Salem, Ill - March 18 (1955). (AP) - John H. Young, 68, who made a fortune in Illinois oilfields, died last night in the farm home where he was born in poverty. Salem townspeople remember the $100,000. checks he deposited in the local bank after the 1938 Lake Contralia oil boom centered on his 250 acre farm. By 1940, 113 wells dotted his land. He built a Hospital, School and a Church from his oil checks. He leaves his widow and a daughter, Mrs Nellie Searle of Chicago."

"JOHN YOUNG - was born 9/4/1763, in York Co, Penna. His Father, William, was of Covenanter stock, and his Mother was of remarkable intellectual endowments. About 1780 he suffered the loss of both his parents, and their farm being soon thereafter sold for Continental money, made him dependent on his own exertions. For awhile his time was employed in teaching and in writing in the clerk's office at Annapolis, Md. An Uncle became a Father to these 5 Orphans, and John soon passed to Dickenson College, where he graduated in 1783, delivering the Valedictory. Taking a course of Theology under Dr Nisbet, President of his Alma Mater, and also under Rev. Alexander Dobbin of Gettysburg, Pa, the A.R.P. Presbytery of Penna granted him license on 4/13/1791, and Ordained and Installed him Pastor of Old Providence, Augusta Co, and Timber Ridge, Rockbridge Co, Virginia, 8/20/1792. "These duties he discharged with great acceptance." He was honored with the Moderatorship of his Synod at Phila, Pa, 1798.

Soon after his settlement in the valley of Virginia, he married Miss Mary Clarke, of Greencastle, Pa, 2 sons and 2 daughters being the fruit of this marriage. One daughter became the wife of Rev. John Lind, and one son, Dr. John C., an eloquent and useful Minister in the Presby. Church, and President of Centre College, Kentucky. In 1799 he demitted this charge and, while he received calls from Lexington, Ky, and New York, settled in Greencastle, Pa, being installed 9/3/1799. Having preached 3 times a very hot day in the open air, he took fever from which he died 7/24/1803.

As a Preacher, "His enunciation was distinct and deliberate, but without hesitancy; his language clear and forcible, but not florid; the subject matter of his discourses doctrinal and instructive, but having a decidedly practical bearing. He had but little gesture, but that little was natural and appropriate. His whole manner was dignified, solemn and impressive. He was a man of good abilities, of fine mental culture and affable manners, and was always heard with gladness. As an earnest and instructive preacher he had no superior in his church." - Dr. J.B. Scouller."

Had 5 living children and 1 died. His oldest son, John M. Young, is now one of the Instructors in Sibley College, the College of Engineering in Cornell University, of which institution he is a graduate. Preached in Tenn, Fla, New Hope and Ebenezer, SC, was Principal of County High School at Lewisburg, Tenn, and Supt. of Schools of Citrus, Fla.

DAVID ELDER and ROBERT ELDER lived at Luch, Island of Luch; (Louch Stilly), County Donegal, Ireland.

In 1754-1760 they emigrated to America, settling in Fath Valley, near Dry Run, in Cumberland Co., now Franklin County, Penna., (North of Chambersburg).

Data: (1905) "The Elder Genealogy (Genealogy of David Elder & Margaret Stewart)" - 1905 - by Dr. Thomas Alexander Elder, M.A., M.D., (Elder A-22/21 - Rochester, Ohio.

(3/7/1930) Miss Helen Elizabeth Keen, (Young-Y-A- - - -), 2247 West Jefferson Ave., Detroit, Michigan. See Other Data Credits on Individual Pages.

The Elders came originally from Elderslie, County Renfrew, Scotland, near Paisley. This was their ancestral seat. Some emigrated first to North Ireland, and from thence to America, and some came direct to America. David Elder's children claimed to be Cousins of Sir Walter Scott.

According to Scotch history, the Elders were the elder or older family of the Royal Stuarts, and to differentiate themselves from the other very numerous Stuarts, they took the name of Elder - and so became the Elder Family. This is said to be fully authenticated in Scotch history.

All Elders should take note of the centuries-old affinity between the Youngs - Elders - Stuarts (Stewarts) - Scotts. This marked affinity of these 4 families, in Scotland and in the early days in America, is discussed more fully in the Young Section.

The Youngs came from Ayr, Scotland; the Elders came from Elderslie, as stated above; the Scotts came from Ayr also, and were of the Sir Walter Scott family of Ayr and Buccleuch, Scotland, and Kinfolk of a generation ago spoke of Sir Walter as "Cousin." The locality in Scotland from which the Stuarts (Stewarts) came is not known to the Compiler.

Due to this affinity, these 4 families intermarried for centuries, clear back into Scottish history; they met and liked each other; they helped each other in various ways; they went into business together and did team-work together; and they are buried side-by-side and row-on-row in old graveyards. This affinity is frequently mentioned in the records of these 4 families - and a most interesting case is the fact that a Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, (daughter of William Young), made the flag that flew over Fort Mifflin - and a Francis SCOTT Key wrote our beloved "Star Spangled Banner" about it. All this is not just a happenchance. It is a definite affinity - which has been at work for centuries, clear back into Scottish history.

Note that Fath Valley, near Dry Run (North of Chambersburg), where these Family A Elders settled in 1754-60, is in Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Pa. Note that another Robert Elder, who emigrated in 1752 to Pottung, Penna., had a son, James Elder (Born 1712), who settled in Bennett Township, Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Pa. - just South of Dry Run. (See Dr. Eggle's "Elder Family" in "Penna. Genealogies"). Note also that an Young, Dr. (See Young Sect. (100-Family - Page Y-A-2), of Baltimore and Head-of-Rick-Rickton, Maryland, evidently went over to stay with his relatives, or some of his children, and died while there in 1753, in Marion Township, Franklin Co., Penna. So here are 5 different families of Youngs living near each other, in the 1700's, in Franklin County, Penna.

Nothing is known of the Father of Robert and David Elder. He may have been born in Scotland, and may have fled to Ireland with his family, due to one of the numerous wars in Scotland. His two sons, so far as known, were the only ones who emigrated to America in 1754-60. The 2 sons were living, before they emigrated, at Lough, Island of Inch, (Lough Swilly), County Donegal, Ireland.

(From Page 3-"Elder Genealogy" (1905) by Dr. Thos. A. Elder, MSA, MD): "The ancestral seat of the Elders was Elderslie, County of Renfrew, near Paisley, Scotland. They had a "Coat of Arms". Some of them came directly to America, others first emigrated to Northern Ireland, and thence to America. Probably the first of the name to come to America was Robert of Paxtang, who, according to Dr. W. H. Eagle's genealogy, was born about 1679 in Scotland, emigrated from Lough Swilly, County Antrim, Ireland, where he had previously settled about 1730, to America, locating in Paxtang Township, then Lancaster, now Dauphin County, Penna, five miles North of Harrisburg.

The subject of this work, David Elder, with Robert Elder, probably his brother, came to America 1754-1760, from Lough, Island of Inch, or Lough Swilly, County Donegal, Ireland. His wife, Margery, (or Margaret, all the family names following appear as Margaret) Stewart, is said to have been a nobleman's daughter, to have been highly educated, and to have been very skillful in fancy needle work.

David and Robert Elder settled in Path Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin County, Pa, near Dry Run.

David Elder's children claimed to be cousins of Sir Walter Scott, but whether the relationship was through the Elders or the Stewarts, we have been unable to determine. All of the descendants of David Elder have long ago left Path Valley, but many of Robert Elder's descendants still live there. The early Elders were all Presbyterians. "

The MacCandless record is that a William Elder was the father of Mary Elder, (A-21) - but this is doubtless a mistake.

OTHER RECORDS OF DAVID ELDER(A-2).

(This Version shows a different record from ours as given in this Elder Section. This version is from the data of Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Elean) (or Hamill-A-125-6-The Compiler's Mother). It was copied by her sister, (Mrs Robert G. Horne (Nancy Hamill-A-125-5) of Boone, Iowa). The (first generation of this record is taken from "Penna Genealogies," from Dr (Wm.H.Egle's "Elder Genealogy." See Compiler's Notes at end. This record (was typed-on-Dr Robert G. Horne's stationery.

First Generation:

ROBERT ELDER was born about 1679 in Scotland, emigrated from Lough Neagh, County Antrim, Ireland, (where he had previously settled) to America about 1730, locating in Paxtang Township, (then Lancaster), now Dauphin Co, Penna, on a tract of land near the 1st ridge of the Attocentiny mountains, five miles North of Harrisburg. He died there the 28th of July, 1743, and is buried in the old Church graveyard. He married in 1703, Eleanor (She born 1684, and died Oct. 25, 1742). Their children were: Robert, (born 1704 in Scotland, and had children); Mary John, (born 1706, graduated University of Edinburgh, married (1st) Mary Baker, (and) Mary Simpson); Thomas, (born 1708, married Mary Patterson, daughter of William Patterson of Paxtang); David, (born 1710, and married Hannah Anderson in 1730); James, (born 1712, and settled in Fannett Township, Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna).

(COMPILER'S NOTE: The foregoing is copied from Dr. Egle's record in "Penna-Genealogies" - but it relates to Robert of Paxtang (Family B), and (not to our Family-A Elders. The two families were undoubtedly the (same back in Scotland - but they were of two different migrations.

Second Generation:

JAMES ELDER settled in Fannett Township, Cumberland Co, now Franklin County Penna. He settled on a farm now known as the Ayder farm. He was known as "Supple Jimmy," was captured by Indians, and kept until of age. He was taught to be a very fine pole-vaulter.

(COMPILER'S NOTE: Unfortunately, Dr Egle's record gives no further data (about this James, except that he settled in Fannett Twp. But someone (has dug up some further data - that he settled on the Ayder Farm - and (Mrs Horne and Mrs McCalla have copied it down. One of the James Elder (name in this family, probably this one, was called "Supple Jimmy" and (was captured by Indians, raised by them, taught to be a famous pole- (vaulter, returned to his family as a young man, and then organized a (troop of his Indian Scout friends, which rendered valiant service in (the French-Indian Wars.

Third Generation:

DAVID ELDER, (our ancestor), whose Will we have, had a son David(?), who was the father of Noah Elder, (?) of Mifflin, in the County of Juniata, and the said Noah Elder had a son, Dr Thomas Elder, and a daughter, Mrs Stokes, both of whom are now living.

(COMPILER'S NOTE: Our David(A-2) had no son David. It was William(A-22 (who had a son Noah Abraham, and a grandson, Thomas Alexander Elder, who (wrote the Elder Genealogy. All this is explained on pages 21-22 of (the Elder Genealogy. But the point is that this 3rd generation David (was not the son of James (from Paxtang). According to our records, (our David emigrated in 1754-60, while the Paxtang Elders came in 1730.)

ROBERT ELDER, and his son, JAMES ELDER were said to have been in the French and Indian Wars. James was a Scout and Interpreter, and said to have been under Capt. Abraham.

(COMPILER'S NOTE: This again refers to Family B of Paxtang.

RESEARCHES ON DAVID ELDER, (A-2).

The Compiler's Mother, Mrs Albert McCalla, (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6), and her Sisters, made many researches on early Elder and Young history, from 1893 and later. In their attempt to compile a draft of the antecedents of David Elder, (A-2), they wrote down the following possibilities.

Of course, they were working on the theory that James Elder, son of Robert Elder of Paxtang, (who emigrated in 1730), was our immediate ancestor, instead of a "Cousin," as we now believe. But for purposes of record the data they suggested is saved and written down here.

The principal value of this, so The Compiler believes, lies in the fact that they suggested the names of 2 women whom they believed married Elders, (Miss Curtis and Miss Eleanor Guild(or Gield)), which may be found to fit in some missing wife's name. It is possible, for example, that the "Eleanor — — —", who in 1703 married Robert Elder of Paxtang, might some-day be found to be this Eleanor Guild(Gield). Otherwise, The Compiler does not believe that this suggested descent is correct. Here is the suggested descent as they had written it down:

" David Elder, (or Robert Elder), was the father of James Elder, and the Grandfather of David Elder. He married a Miss — — — — — Curtis(?). His son was James Elder.

This James Elder married Eleanor Guild(Gield) in 1730. Their son was David Elder(?) who married Marjorie Stuart(Stewart).

Note: Either this James Elder, or his Father or Grandfather, was known as "Supple Jimmy" Elder, who was one of the first (white) pole-vaulters in the USA. He was stolen by Indians as a child, and trained by them. "

COMPILER'S NOTE: It is now (1947) believed that there were 2 separate Elder families. Family A was our David(A-2) and Robert(A-1), who emigrated in 1754-1760, and who settled at Dry Run, Path Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna(North of Chambersburg).

This Family B of the Elders had Robert Elder of Paxtang, (Harrisburg), Penna, who was born in 1679 in Scotland, and who emigrated from Lough Neagh Co. Antrim, Ireland, in 1730, and settled at Paxtang, 5 miles North of what is now Harrisburg, then in Lancaster Co, now Dauphin Co, Penna.

This latter Robert of Paxtang did have a son James Elder, (born 1712), who did come over to Fannett Township, then Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna. But he was of a different migration - although undoubtedly of the same Elder family back in Scotland.

Bear in mind that in the 1700's, there were at least 3 different Elder and Young Kinfolk settled in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna, who were: Our David, (A-2), with his brother Robert(A-1), came in 1754-1760, to Dry Run, Path Valley.

This James, of Family B, came sometime after 1730, and settled in Fannett Township - possibly the present town of Fannettsburg, Penna.

William Young, Sr, (Young-Y-A-2) evidently came from Baltimore to visit with his relatives in Turpin Township, and died there in 1755.

So here are 3 separate Kinfolk in Cumberland, now Franklin County.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

BY

JOHN F. JOHNSON

The history of the United States is a story of growth and development. It begins with the first settlers who came to the New World in search of a better life. They found a land of opportunity, but also a land of challenges. The early years were marked by struggle and hardship, but the spirit of the pioneers was unyielding. They built a nation from scratch, one that was based on the principles of liberty and justice for all. The story of the United States is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the ability of a people to overcome adversity.

The early years of the United States were a time of great change. The country was young and full of potential. The people were determined to build a nation that was different from the ones they had left behind. They wanted a government that would protect their rights and ensure their future. The story of the United States is a story of a people who were willing to sacrifice for a better life.

David Elder (Emigrated in 1754-60), was a Farmer and Justice of the Peace, at Dry Run, Path Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin County, Penna. (North of Chambersburg). He was supposedly in the Revolutionary War, but in 1947, we have no record of his War service. Other old records suggest that he was on the "Committee of Correspondence" during the Revolutionary War. David was well-to-do, owned much land, and made his will in 1800. Margery (Stewart) Elder was a Scotch Highlander's daughter, highly educated, and skilled at fine-needlework.

Data Page on DAVID ELDER - MARGERY STUART (Stewart).

David Elder, with (supposedly) his brother, Robert Elder, came to America in 1754-1759, from Lough, Island of Inch, (Lough Swilly), County Donegal, Ireland. They settled at Dry Run, 3rd. Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin County, Penna, (North of Chambersburg). Some old records speak of them as living in Fannett Township, which, if true, is probably the present town of Fannetsburg, Penna, (N. of Chambersburg) - but this is not known definitely. At any rate, David and Margery, and several of the other Elders, are buried at Dry Run, Penna.

The dates given on David and Margery are of unknown origin. They are not given in the Elder Genealogy. They are not included in Miss Keep's letter of 3/7/1930 - but were most likely furnished in another letter from Miss Keep. Miss Keep might have taken them from their tombstones at Dry Run. We give them here for whatever they may be worth: (David: B: 1720, Died: ) (6/10/1800 in Fannett Twp, and Margery: B: 1724, D: 1799 in Fannett Twp. ) The Elder Genealogy says both are buried at Dry Run. The Compiler does not know if Fannett Twp. and Dry Run are the same locality.

The MacCandless records, (See Data Page A-5 - Family A - MacCandless Section), speak of Mary Young as coming from (probably living there for a time) Cumberland Valley, Penna, in Franklin Co, and between Shippenburg and Strasburg. Mary Young (Y-A-215) was the daughter of Capt. Wm. Young, Jr (Y-A-21, and Elder A-21). This would be North of Chambersburg, East of Fannetsburg (Fannett Twp), and S.W. of Dry Run. Remember that Wm. Young, SENIOR (Y-A-2), was evidently on a visit from Baltimore to his Kinfolk, or to one of his children, and died there in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, in Huron Township - in 1753. Search should be made for Youngs in that locality - for many missing Young records could probably be found there.

Some old records list the marriage of Mary Elder-Capt. Wm. Young, Jr, in 1777 as occurring in Mercer Co, Penna, (now Wilmington (Newcastle), and now in Lawrence County). However, 1777 was before he came to Lawrence Co. So it must have occurred either in Maryland, or more likely at the bride's home in Dry Run, Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna. The Baltimore Youngs (Family A) evidently did a lot of travelling and visiting. It is probable that some of the Baltimore Youngs branched off and went to such places as York, Carlisle, Lebanon, etc, in Penna - and that some went to settle with their Elder Kinfolk here in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna. Capt. Wm. Young, Jr (Y-A-21) might have been visiting among these Young-Elder Kinfolk at Dry Run, (and other nearby places), and might have met and married Mary Elder. Through Elder-Young sources, we have the correct date of the marriage as 1/30/1777 - not just as 1777, as the Elder Genealogy gives the date.

SUBJECT: RECOMMENDATION FOR THE NOMINATION OF DR. J. K. STILLE TO THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

DR. J. K. STILLE is a distinguished chemist and a leading expert in the field of organic chemistry. He has made significant contributions to the understanding of the structure and reactivity of organic molecules, particularly in the area of the synthesis of complex organic compounds. His work has been recognized by numerous awards and honors, including the National Science Foundation Award for Meritorious Achievement, the American Chemical Society Award for Creative Achievement, and the Robert B. Woodward Award for Organic Chemistry.

Dr. Stille is currently a Professor of Chemistry at the University of Chicago, where he has been working for over 20 years. He has supervised the work of many graduate students and postdoctoral fellows, and has published over 100 papers in the field of organic chemistry. His research interests include the synthesis of complex organic molecules, the study of the reaction mechanisms of organic compounds, and the development of new synthetic methods.

Dr. Stille is also a member of the National Academy of Sciences, the American Chemical Society, and the International Union of Pure and Applied Chemistry. He is a past president of the American Chemical Society and has served on numerous committees and boards, including the National Science Foundation and the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

It is my pleasure to recommend Dr. Stille for nomination to the National Academy of Sciences. His exceptional contributions to the field of organic chemistry and his leadership in the development of new synthetic methods make him a highly qualified candidate for this honor.

Sincerely,
J. K. Stille

(Compiler's Note: Bear in mind that this history was published in 1905, and that Miss Helen Elizabeth Keep, (Young Y.A. 253-611), of Detroit, had probably just started to collect genealogical information. So naturally, there are many errors. Our records are taken from the Elder Genealogy, and we believe them to be more correct. The Elder Genealogy was just being published also in that same year 1905 - and Miss Keep had probably not as yet heard of it. The following quotation was mailed to the compiler on 9/24/1951 by Mrs. J. H. Berg, (as above). The first part of the notes (above her signature) were made by Miss Keep. Then the last 2 paragraphs are notes by Miss Berg in transmitting this letter to the compiler. Also, the Compiler has added his own notes at the bottom.

William Young, (Elder Y.A. 2), was taxable on the list of Surgen County, Penna (then a part of Cumberland County) in 1753. He died March 6th, 1753. His wife was Elizabeth. (Compiler's Note #1). Their children were:

- William (Young, Y.A. 21) married Mary Elder.
- John (Young, Y.A. 25) married Elizabeth Elder.
- Elizabeth (Young, Y.A. 22) married John McConnell.
- Gilsey (Young, Y.A. 24) married Daniel Daymaker.
- Margaret (Young, Y.A. 23) married Andrew Hemphill.
- Another daughter (Mary) (See Note #2).

David Elder's, (See Elder A-B-Elder Section), Grandchildren mentioned in the Will were David (Elder A-221), son of William Elder, (A-22), Noah Elder (A-222) and Elizabeth Elder. (See Note #3). He was David Elder? Was he the son of James Elder of Lexington? (See Note #4).

David Elder, (Elder A-2), in 1783 was Justice of the Peace in Fannett Twp, Franklin County, Penna. In his Will dated 1807, he bequeathed to his children and grandchildren about 700 acres of land. His children were:

William (Elder A-22) married Sarah Abraham, and had Noah Abraham, (A-222), who lived near Germantown.

Elizabeth (Elder A-25) who married John Young, (Young Y.A. 25).

Mary (Elder A-21). (It seem to have mis-copied something here). (Note #5).

James (Elder A-26) born 1776. (See Note #6).

Who was John Young? (See Note #7). Family tradition says that he was a son of John Young and Mary White of Young County (Penn), and that he was killed by Indians.

(Added by Mrs. J. H. Berg): In 1905, 753 Jefferson Ave, was occupied by Wm. J. Keep, Supt of the Michigan-Tova Co. In 1923, there was no 753 Jefferson, but Frances, widow of Wm. lived at 2247 Jefferson Ave. William T. Keep lived at 6337 Parkman. In 1930, Helen E. Keep lived at 2247 Jefferson. It was she who made the inquiry. Unless there is something in the current telephone book, I have no way to trace this further, except having the census records checked and that is rather expensive. It might be worth while if we can locate someone who would have H.E.A.'s records. Copies to: Paul Hamill McCall, 2320 Cottage Grove Ave, Chicago; George H. The above letter of 3/7/1930, from Miss Keop, differs in many items from the facts as we have them. She gives no dates on David & Margery - and neither does the Elder Genealogy - but from some source unknown, we have these 4 dates. Possibly Miss Keop sent in these dates at another time. The dates show David born in 1720, and died 6/10/1800 in Fannett Twp, and Margery born 1724, and died in 1799.

David Elder lived and is buried at Dry Run, Path Valley, Cumberland, (now Franklin) County, Penna, (North of Chambersburg). Miss Keop, however, lists him as living and dying in Fannett Twp - which may be the same as the present town of Fannettsburg, Franklin Co, Penna, which is just South of Dry Run.

She also claims that David was the son of James Elder, who removed from Paxtang, Penna. This we believe to be a mistake. The James she mentions was the son of Robert of Paxtang ("Parrishburg"), Penna, and did come to Fannett Twp. to settle, but he was of the Family A Elders. (See Dr. Wm. H. Egle's "Elder Genealogy" in the Penna. Genealogies). Our David, (and brother Robert) came in a separate migration in 1754-1760 and were probably "Cousins" of James, whose father, Robert of Paxtang, emigrated in 1730. (See Elder Family "B"). This James Elder of whom she speaks, was a brother of Rev. John Elder, the famous "Fighting Parson of Paxtang" - but he was of a separate family from Paxtang, and until further proof is obtained, we do not believe he was the father of our David. This James was born in 1712 in Ireland or Scotland.

Miss Keop says that our David was in the Revolutionary War. From other sources we learn that he was probably on the Committee of Correspondence.

Capt. William (A?) Young, Jr. (A-21) was a farmer, and lived at Indian Run, Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna. He was born at Head-of-Elk (Elkton), Maryland, and lived there and in Baltimore, Md., in his early life. He came to Wilmington somewhere between 1792-1800, and is thought to have spent intervening years in Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna, near Dry Run, or Pannetsburg, or in Lyggon Township, or at a spot between Shippensburg and Strasburg, Penna. He was a Captain in the Revolutionary War. He and his wife are buried in Neshannock Cemetery, at Wilmington, 8 miles North of Newcastle, Penna. (

Data Page on MARY ELDER - CAPT. WILLIAM YOUNG, JR.PENNSYLVANIA LOCALITIES:

Some old records list the marriage of Mary Elder-Capt. Wm. Young, Jr., in 1777, as occurring in Mercer Co., Penna. (now Wilmington (Newcastle), and now in Lawrence County). However, 1777 was before he came to Lawrence Co. So it must have occurred either in Maryland, or more likely at the bride's home in Dry Run, Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. The Baltimore Youngs (Family 40) evidently did a lot of travelling and visiting. It is probable that some of the Baltimore Youngs branched off and went to such places as York, Carlisle, Lebanon, etc., in Penna. - and that some went to settle with their Elder Kinfolk here in Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) might have been visiting among these Young-Elder Kinfolk at Dry Run, (and other nearby places), and might have met and married Mary Elder. Through Elder-Young sources, we have the correct date of the marriage as 1/30/1777 - not just as 1777, as the Elder Genealogy gives it.

The MacGandless records, (See Data Page A-5-Family 4-MacGandless Section), speak of Mary Young as being born in, and as coming from (probably living there for a time) Cumberland Valley, Penna., in Franklin Co., and between Shippensburg and Strasburg. Mary Young (Y-A-213) was the daughter of Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21), and Elder A-21. This would be North of Chambersburg, East of Emmetsburg (Pennett Twp), and S-W of Dry Run. Remember that Wm. Young, SENIOR (Y-A-2), was evidently on a visit from Baltimore to his Kinfolk, or to one of his children, and died there in Cumberland, now Franklin Co., in Lurgan Township - in 1753. Search should be made for Youngs in that locality - for many missing Young records could probably be found.

The exact time of the Youngs' coming to Wilmington (Newcastle), Penna., is not clear. It was sometimes around 1797-1800. In the early days, pioneers often went ahead to "spy out the land" for 1 or 2 years before they brought their families to settle. We know that Mary Young (Y-A-213) was born in Baltimore in 1791 - so the family must have been there then. We know that some of them were in Wilmington in 1797, because Judge John Young (of Young Family 5), secured their help (as told in Family Legends) when he founded Youngstown in 1797. However, the Judge first left his home at Whitestown, NY, and came to what later became Youngstown, Ohio, the year before - in 1796. He came ahead to spy out the land too, and it is probable that Capt. Wm. Young, Jr. (Y-A-21) was also there at nearby Wilmington, Penna., in 1796, also to similarly spy out his own land.

We have many references to our Baltimore Youngs as being at various points in Penna. - notably at Dry Run and Pennett's Twp., Cumberland, now Franklin Co., Penna. Remember that Capt. Wm. Young, SENIOR (Y-A-2) died there in 1753, in Lurgan Township. So it would seem probable that our Baltimore Youngs came by easy stages to western Penna. They may have left Baltimore in say 1792, and may have spent several years in the vicinity of Dry Run, and Pennett Twp., and Lurgan Twp. - while the menfolk prepared the ground, built cabins, etc., at Wilmington. Then they may have finally assembled at Wilmington, Penna., say from 1796 to 1800. But during the intervening years, from say 1792 to 1800, they should be searched for in these Franklin Co., Penna., localities. It might be possible to locate many other Baltimore Young descendants there also.

Miss Helen E. Keep, (See Data Page Y-A-21) speaks of these Youngs as coming to Indian Run, near Wilmington, Penna. She says they are buried at Heshannock Cemetery, 6 miles north of what is now Newcastle, Penna. She says Mary Young died near Unon Valley, Penna., of heart disease, at 70-77 years of age.

Julia A. Suloff, or Sulooff, was the Daughter of Henry Suloff and Elizabeth Aughey. The Suloffs came from Holland. Elizabeth Aughey descended from Ache d'Agur, or Normandy, France, who was one of the slain in the St Bartholomew's massacre. The Mother, with 3 sons, escaped to Switzerland, where they remained until the death of the Mother, when the 3 sons came to America, landing at Philadelphia, where they took an oath of allegiance to the British Crown. The Aches were of the nobility, and had a Coat of Arms - a fasces d'arg, de trois cursours d'or. The oldest son, John Ludwig Ache, was the first Professor of modern languages in the University of Pennsylvania."

Margaret Elizabeth Elder received her early education in the Aurora, (Illinois) High Schools. She graduated in 1903, with the BA Degree, from the College of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority.

Margaret served as Teacher (1904-1909) in the East Aurora High School, Aurora, Ill. After her marriage (1909) to Dr. Weld, they went (1909) as Presbyterian Missionaries to India.

(Outside Interests-Clubs-Organizations-Offices held(years), etc):

Margaret and her family had visited many times in The Compiler's home, (then at 2316 Calumet Ave), in Chicago. They were most welcome and joyous visitors and kinfolk. Margaret is a woman of much charm, intellectuality and kindness, and with her very talented husband and children, they make a splendid American family.

Rev. Dr. William Ernest Weld, Ph.D., is the son of Mr Theodore Dwight Weld, who was a Hardware Merchant in Marysville, Ohio, and his wife, Matilda Smith, (Weld). He is the Grandson of Mr. Ludovious Weld, who operated a woodyard in Vermont, Missouri and Arkansas, and his wife (Hidden Name) (Weld).

Dr. Weld received his early education in the Marysville, (Ohio) Public Schools. He graduated (1903) with the BA Degree; from Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio. He graduated (1909) with his Ministerial Degree; from Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey. He was awarded (1920) the Supplemental Ph.D. Degree; by Columbia University, New York, NY. He was awarded (1927) the Supplemental LL.D. Degree, by Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio.

Dr. Weld, and his wife Margaret, went (1909) as Presbyterian Missionaries to India, serving at various points such as Simla, Bandour, Allahabad, etc. They were very successful as Missionaries, particularly in reaching the upper class natives of India - the Princes and other Officials, who were previously unresponsive to the usual Missionary efforts. They secured many conversions to Christianity, and were able to open up many territories to Missionary work, due to their friendships with native Princes. They were also very successful in securing conversions among the children of Indian Princes, and in inducing them to attend Christian Schools and Colleges - and thus pave the way for future Christian families of those Princes.

Dr. Weld's three children were each born in India, and so speak the dialects of India, as well as many European languages. He and his family returned to the US in 1913. From 1919 to 1929 he was Professor of Economics at Columbia University, New York, NY. From 1929 to June 1936, he served as Dean, and Professor of Economics at the University of Rochester, NY. He became President (June 1936 to June 1946) of Wells College, (for Women); at Aurora-on-Cayuga, New York. He retired on 7/22/1946, and for the 6 years following, he and his wife lived at the Brunswick Inn, Waterville, NY, which is 10 miles from Clinton, NY - where their daughter Helen, and son "Bill" live.

Wells College was founded in 1872 by Dr. Henry Wells, of Wells-Targo Express Co. fame - and is one of the famous Colleges for Women in the US. Here he and his family lived in century-old and beautiful "Taylor House" on the Campus of Wells College; located on the shores of scenic Cayuga Lake. As President of Wells College, he succeeded the former President, Dr. Kerr Duncan MacMillan. And when he retired (6/1946), after 10 years of splendid service, he was succeeded by Dr. Richard Leighton Greene. On 12/14/1949, Dr. Weld was engaged in writing a Biography of Herbert E. Harkness, the former Dean of Columbia University.

Dr. Weld and his wife, while spending their Summers at Waterville, NY, (10 miles from Clinton, NY), and since 1947-1947, spent the winters at 229 Annis Boulevard, Gainesville, Florida - the "University City."

Dr. Weld and his wife Margaret, now (1953) have their Summer home in Clinton (SEE OTHER SIDE).

New York, on the Hamilton College Campus. Their winter home is (1953) at 3601 Riverview Blvd, W. Bradenton, Florida.

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/21/1947): ".....Fitting the shoe neatly on the other foot, Wells College Alumnae have invited their husbands and beaux to dinner that same night in the Electric Club. The College's new President, Dr. Richard Leighton Greene, will be the speaker. Dr. Greene, national President of Alpha Delta Phi, and his wife, live in Aurora, NY, in a century old home known as Taylor House, which was presented to the College in 1929 by Myron C. Taylor. Mrs. A.R. Martin, Jr., of Northbrook, a Vice-President of the Wells College Alumnae Association, is in charge of the dinner. Reinold Herrenrath, of Highland Park, will serve as Toastmaster. Among those at the speaker's table will be Miss Pauline Jones of Youngstown, Ohio, President of the Association, and Dr. Franklyn Bliss Snyder, President of Northwestern University."

(Excerpts from Letters from Mrs. W. E. Weld, Sr (Margaret Eliz. Elder), to Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (A-125-61), Chicago, Ill): (12/20/1940): "Dear Helen: We are eagerly looking forward to having our young folks home for the holidays. While Helen lives only 90 miles away, we don't see her as often as that short distance would indicate. Her interests are still mainly in-

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the financial system and for providing a clear audit trail.

In the second part, the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes how these methods are applied to different types of transactions and how they help in identifying trends and anomalies.

The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in modern financial systems. It discusses how advanced software and hardware solutions are used to streamline processes and improve efficiency.

In the fourth part, the document addresses the challenges faced by financial institutions in the current market environment. It highlights the need for innovation and for staying ahead of regulatory changes.

The fifth part of the document provides a detailed look at the internal controls and risk management practices of leading financial institutions. It explains how these practices are designed to protect assets and ensure compliance.

The sixth part of the document discusses the impact of global economic events on the financial system. It analyzes how these events have affected different sectors and what strategies are being used to mitigate risks.

In the seventh part, the document explores the future of the financial industry. It discusses emerging trends such as digital banking, blockchain, and artificial intelligence, and how they are expected to shape the industry in the coming years.

The eighth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations. It emphasizes the importance of continuous improvement and of staying informed about the latest developments in the field.

tellectual, but she is learning to be domestic, too. Frances is in New York, a Junior Editor of the Reader's Digest. And Bill is at Columbia Univ for the second year, trying to finish the work for his Doctorate in English Literature before he has to go into military training. "Heck! I'm practically in the trenches now!" he says, for being physically fit, having no family obligations and getting a low number in the draw, he is sure to be called early. "At fearful times we're living in! With many good wishes and love. MARGARET E.W."

(12/17/1945): "Dear Helen and Paul: The (Christmas Card) Picture shows a bit of our College Campus, with a group of our nice girls. Ernest and I are retiring next summer, but we don't know where we shall live. Bill returned from service in Europe last August. He has taken his lovely wife and sweet baby (who made their home with us for a year) to live in Clinton, NY, where he will continue his graduate studies. Helen also lives there on the Hamilton College Campus. She has 2 little girls now. Frances came home last March, after 2 1/2 years service with the Red Cross in India and China. Her fiance is expected home from the far East next month, and they will probably be married soon after that. Much love to you both. MARGARET."

(12/16/1946 - from Waterville, NY): "....we retired from Wells College last June (1946), and are enjoying our freedom from official, social and domestic duties. We are only 10 miles from Clinton, (NY), where Bill is teaching in Hamilton College, and where Helen lives with her Professor husband. We see much of the 3 Granddaughters, and "Grandma" does their mending. Frances' husband has been in the newspaper-business in Cleveland, but they are moving to Washington (DC) soon. With all good wishes, MARGARET ELDER WELD."

LETTERS FROM MRS. WM. ERNEST WELD:

(Letters from Mrs William Ernest Weld, (Margaret Eliz. Elder) (Elder A-221-233) (of Waterville, NY - on Winter vacation in Florida:

-- (12/20/1947-With Christmas Card): "Hotel Thomas, Gainesville, Florida. We are enjoying our first visit to Florida. Saw our newest Grandchild in Washington, Sally Weld Shaffer, (Elder A-221-233-31), Frances' first baby. Ernest and Margaret Weld."

(12/14/1949-With Christmas Card): "229 Annis Blvd, Gainesville, Florida. "We have come South again to spend the Winter in the "University City of the Sunshine-State". It is a busy, attractive place. Fortunately we are located in a pleasant bungalow on the outskirts, near woodland, the Univ. Campus and the Golf-course. We stopped in Washington, of course, to see Frances (A-221-233-3) and Jack. The latter is still working for the Government, in the Central Intelligence Agency."

-- Bill, (Elder A-221-233-2) and family spent last year in Paris, where he was gathering material for his PhD Thesis, "Kipling's Influence in France". He is now in New York, writing his book. Their little girl, my namesake, 5 years old, came home from Europe speaking beautiful Parisian French. Helen (Elder A-221-233-1) "stays put" in Clinton, NY, where her husband is a Professor of English in Hamilton College. Ernest, (her husband) is writing a biography of Herbert H. Hawkes, former Dean of Columbia University. So sorry to hear of Tom's, (William H-125-32) death. (Tom McCall was brother of the Compiler). Love and sympathy to you both. Ernest joins me in warm greetings. Margaret E. Weld."

(12/16/1950-With Christmas Card): "The Monavista Hotel, Bradenton, Florida. "We have come South as usual for the Winter. Made our customary stop-over in Washington (DC). Frances, (A-221-233-3) and Jack have recently moved into their charming new Ranch-type house. Bill, (A-221-233-2) and family leave soon for Greece. He is to be Cultural Attaché at our (US) Embassy in Athens. Margaret E. Weld."

(12/12/1951-With Christmas Card): "Bradenton, Florida. Our son, Bill, (A-221-233-2), is now Cultural Officer at the American Embassy in Athens (Greece). He and his family are having a very interesting experience. Ernest and Margaret Weld, 3601 Riverview Blvd, (A), Bradenton, Florida."

(12/14/1952-With Christmas Card): "Dear Paul & Helen: How wonderful of you to remember all our children, their situation, and activities! Helen (A-221-233-1) "stays put" in Clinton (NY), as the wife of a College Professor, and she is an intelligent, helpful and active member of the College and Town and Community. Bill, (A-221-233-2) and Jane love it in Athens (Greece), and from all reports (one from our Ambassador there), he is doing a splendid job. They see and entertain all sorts of "visiting firemen", from such celebrities as Pres. Conant and Secy. of the Navy Kimball, to Marla Oberon of Hollywood! The Weld, Jrs, (Bill-A-221-233-2) vacationed in Switzerland last Summer, and while there, Bill won the Champéry Tennis Tournament, which his Father had won 47 years ago!"

A cablegram two days ago brings us the news of a wonderful Christmas present - a brand new Granddaughter out there. She is to be called Helen Elder! (A-221-233-22).

Last Summer, Frances' (A-221-233-3) husband flew around the world in the interest of his Governmental Dept, (C.I.A). We are back in our "Winter Quarters" in Florida, and from now on, we shall probably be spending more and more time in the South, for we sold all our household goods last Summer. They had been in storage for the past six years - since we left Wells College. Affectionate greetings to you both. Ernest and Margaret Weld. (3601 Riverview Boulevard, West, Bradenton, Florida).

LETTERS FROM MRS. M. ERNEST WELD:

(Letter of July 5, 1953): "College Hill, (Hamilton College), Clinton, NY.

"July 5, 1953. Dear Paul: I long last am sending you the genealogical data which you asked for. I hope you will be able to make it out - altho the sheets don't look too legible. I have written some items on the back. You probably won't want to use the information, but I included it just for your own personal interest. Probably before this you have looked up Ernest in "Who's Who," so I haven't put in everything of interest in his career. On a separate sheet, I have listed the members of Helen's, Bill's and Frances' families - this tho, just for you and Helen's information. Our seven Grandchildren are wonderful!

As Compiler of the Hamilton Genealogy, you must have a big job on your hands but you must find it also an engrossing piece of work. We were interested in hearing of your Bruce, (H-125-33) Cousins in Clearwater, Florida. We have been there several times; it is a charming place. - It is also interesting to us to know that Mr Ralph Lourie (H-125-33) was once an Official in Deere & Co - for we have a small investment in that company. And they (the Bruce's) are connected with the Achesons of Reader's Digest fame!!! Leila Acheson's husband, D. M. Wallace, had relatives in Wooster, Ohio. In fact, his Uncle, (by marriage), Jonas Molestain, was Professor of Latin there for many years, and a favorite of ours. His daughter, Mary Wallace-Molestain, graduated Summa Cum Laude. She was one of my best friends. Sincerely yours, Margaret E. Weld."

(List of Grandchildren enclosed with this Letter): Children of George Lyman Nesbitt, (Helen Elder Weld) (Elder A-221-233-1): Frances Elizabeth Nesbitt, Born Apr 20, 1942. Margery Weld Nesbitt, Born Jan 5, 1945.

Children of Dr. Ernest Weld, Jr. (Jane Anna Jones) (Elder A-221-233-2): Margaret Anne Weld, Born Aug 15, 1944. William Ernest Weld, 3rd, Born June 1, 1947. Helen Elder Weld, Born Dec 8th, 1952. -

Children of John G. Shaffer, (Frances Mary Weld) (Elder A-221-233-3): Sally Weld Shaffer, Died at 3 mos. of age. ("Their 1st child, Sally Weld Shaffer, died at 3 months of age"). Susan Weld Shaffer, Born May 6th, 1949. John Griffith Shaffer, 3rd, Born May 10, 1951.

(Letter-7/5/1953-to The Compiler's Sister, Miss Helen Wayne-McCalla-(H-125-61)-Enclosed with the above Letter): "Dear Helen. It was ever so nice to have a letter from you too. Your penmanship is just as steady and beautiful and distinctive as it was many years ago; and your manner of expression just as charming. Also, if you can still do all that serving for the hospital, you must be able to see, even if it's only with one eye - and that's something to be thankful for. I have two elderly friends in Bradenton, who, because of failing vision, can't do a thing, all day long, but play solitaire. By the way, I still have some of the things you made for me, with beautiful, fine stitches - over forty years ago - notably the silk roll-up pin-case! And the material isn't even worn. "Bill" (Elder A-221-233-2) and family, arrived in New York from Greece on July 2nd. Jane and the children came direct to Clinton, NY. "Bill" had to report to Washington, DC, at once, but he will join the family in a few days. And they are to live very near us this Summer on the Hamilton College Campus. Love from us both, as ever, Margaret."

(Letter of 7/27/1953): "College Hill, Clinton, NY: 7/27/1953. Dear Paul: - I am enclosing the data on Grandchildren. We enjoyed greatly your recent letter, with Helen's scintillating additions, also. But I am much too busy at the moment, to write a real letter in reply. For we are surrounded by offspring. The whole clan is here: G. & H. Nesbitt, (Elder A-221-233-1) and 2 children; Bill and Jane Weld, (Elder A-221-233-2) and 3 children; Frances Shaffer, (Elder A-221-233-3) and 2 children. Also Ernest's brother from Ithica, NY, and a few days ago we also had my sister Mary, (Elder A-221-234) with husband and daughter from Washington. What a jamboree! The little Cousins are having a grand time together. At the notice of Maude Adam's

DEATH I thought of you, Helen, and recalled your beautiful tribute to her when she was playing in "Quality Street". Love to you both, Margaret T. Held.
(Postcard-3/4/1934-from Bradenton, Florida): "Yesterday 3 good friends dropped in on us - W. and M. Notstein, daughters of our favorite Professor at Wooster, Ohio. They had just come from seeing the Laurie's (H-125-33) and Martha Bruce, (H-125-34), at Clearwater, Florida. We're surprised to hear I knew something about that family. As ever, Margaret T. Held."

(Ernest is visiting his son, Prof. William, in Athens, Greece):

"82 Tatal Street, Kifissia, Athens, Greece, Dec. 21, 1954. Dear Helen and Paul: Your nice letter was forwarded to me from Florida and reached me this morning. I have been "eating shame" ever since your letter came. This is the reason: Margaret died in a hospital of Utica, N.Y., on September 13th, (1954). Immediately after her death I made a list of more than 100 names of her friends with a few relatives, and wrote letters to all of them telling them of Margaret's death. Your name was on this list. We were uncertain of your address but I recalled that you had moved or were thinking of moving. I was operating on my address book for in two recent movings her book had been mislaid. I do not know why my letter did not reach you; perhaps because of my uncertainty it did not get mailed before I left for Greece, or else it was sent to the old address and was not forwarded to you. I am very sorry.

As you must have been told by Margaret, she has suffered a lot during the last 7 years, but her suffering grew more acute during the last 2 years. We ran down the line in Hospitals, Clinics and Medicines, but no one was able to give her much relief, for none knew the cause of her trouble. One Doctor had said years ago that M. had suffered a coronary occlusion, but other Doctors denied that she had ever had an occlusion. We returned to Bradenton, Florida, on Nov. 1st as usual, but the back pains grew worse about a year ago. In March, she found it difficult to eat food and what little she was able to eat, she seemed unable to digest. Her weight fell slowly from 140 to about 105. She spent much time in the Hospital during May and June. We had stayed on in Florida because of her condition, but by the middle of June the weather was so hot, so it seemed a good idea to get her North if we could. Helen came down and took her mother on the train to Clinton, (NY), where we had rented an apartment for the Summer. I drove the car North with our luggage. Mary and Jim Michael came in August and were a great help, for Mary was able to persuade her sister to eat a little. But it was evident that she was slowly losing ground.

On Sept. 3rd, we took her to St Luke's Hospital in Utica, where she grew worse rapidly. The 3 Doctors who worked efficiently as a team, did not agree what her trouble was, but their care of her was magnificent. She died after 9 days. The Doctors asked for an autopsy and my first inclination was to refuse, but I finally yielded by asking myself the question: "What would she want?" She, being a Doctor's daughter, had no interest in what was done with her body after the spirit had departed. Then if her years of suffering could help someone else, I knew she would want it that way. The post mortem revealed that her only primary trouble was deterioration of heart muscle due to an occlusion. Everything else was secondary.

Her body was cremated. A Memorial service was held in Aurora, N.Y. The Minister was our old and loved friend, as was the Organist who played her favorite music. Frances (A-221-233-3) and her husband, Jack Shaffer, came from Fairfax, (Virginia), the Michaels, (A-221-235) returned from Silver Spring, (Maryland), the Nesbitts, (Helen and George), my brother Mike Weld, Wells College teachers, many village friends, some of Bill's friends represented him as he was in Greece; all of these were there to give us courage to go on without her who was, as you and all of her family know and realize, a very fine lady.

As soon as I could wind up affairs connected with Margaret's will, I came straight to Greece and have been living with Bill, Jane his wife and three interesting Grand-children. This letter has been interrupted and I am now finishing it at the end of a beautiful Christmas day. When I begin to be filled with self-pity, I remember that she no longer suffers, and that I had her for 45 years in good understanding comradeship. Happy New Years,
Ernest Weld

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. From the first settlers to the present day, the nation has evolved through various stages of development. The early years were marked by exploration and settlement, followed by a period of rapid expansion and industrialization. The American Revolution was a pivotal moment in the nation's history, leading to the establishment of a new government and the declaration of independence. The 19th century was a time of great change, with the Civil War and the Reconstruction era shaping the nation's future. The 20th century has been a period of significant progress, with the United States becoming a world superpower and a leader in many fields.

(From: Rochester, N.Y., Democrat & Chronicle--Monday-6/19/1939): "Miss Helen Weld Says 'I do' in 'Home City'. Miss Helen Elder Weld, daughter of Dr. William H. Weld, President of Wells College, and Mrs. Weld, became the bride of George Lyman Nesbitt of Clinton in a ceremony Sunday afternoon in Taylor House, home of the bride's parents, at Aurora-on-Cayuga.

The house was beautifully decorated with blue delphinium and pink peonies. The ceremony, performed by Mr. Weld, took place before the fireplace in the drawing room, which was decorated with white peonies and greens. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William H. Weld, Jr., wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin with a tulle veil, and carried a bouquet of gardenias, white pansies and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Weld, who wore a gown of aquamarine chiffon, and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies, double nasturtiums and lace flowers.

Robert Hicks of Troy was best man. A wedding reception was held following the ceremony. After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt will make their home in Clinton, where Mr. Nesbitt is on the faculty at Hamilton College. The bride, a graduate of Wells College, studied at the University of Toulouse, France, and did graduate work at the University of Rochester and Radcliffe College. Mr. Nesbitt received his Doctor's Degree at Columbia University."

(Letter-6/25/1939-from Mrs. Rev. Wm. H. Weld, DD, to Miss Helen Wayne McCalla, (H-125-61)-Chicago, Ill):

"Taylor House-Aurora-on-Cayuga, New York. June 25, 1939:

"Dear Helen Wayne: In this fine old house, with its high ceilings, and white walls, and with a very lovely bride and bridesmaid, it was a perfect wedding, in every respect. The bridal party came down the long hall stairway, entered the living room by the front entrance, and proceeded through the room to the back, where the ceremony was performed before the fireplace, over which and in which were massed great quantities of white peonies syringa and dutzia. George's best man, Robert Hicks, played piano selections while the guests were gathering; and then, at the close of the wedding-march, rose and stood beside the groom for the ceremony. Ernest conducted a beautiful, impressive service - partly his own and partly from the book.

The whole house (with the exception of the dining room and the place of the ceremony) was filled with great, gorgeous bouquets of tall blue delphinium and pink-peonies. The dining room service was all in green and white. The table had a lovely centerpiece of white snapdragons, laurel, etc, and tall white candles. Refreshments: Chicken salad, hot (baby) rolls and coffee, rolled sandwiches (with green cream cheese filling); ice cream (in individual green and white moulds of lilies, bells and slippers), small cakes, decorated in green and white, salted pecans and dainty bon-bons in shapes of wedding rings and bells. There was also a 5-tiered wedding cake containing the usual tokens, ring, thimble, coin, etc. In long window boxes about the dining room were also masses of field daisies. All the decorations were arranged by my sister-in-law, Martha Weld of Athica. It was simple but very lovely.

Helen, wearing the gown I wore 30 years ago, aroused within me many sweet and vivid memories. She carried the lace handkerchief you sent, and the coronet for the long veil was made from your rose-print. It was exquisite - as is all the beautiful old lace which you have passed on to her. She will treasure it I know. And may she have a daughter, who will one day wear it also. The verses arrived just as she was leaving. I didn't even get a chance to read them, as she carried them with her. Frances, in aquamarine chiffon, with her blond, fluffy hair and against the yellow drapes of the living room, looked particularly lovely. Helen and George have had a whole island in the St. Lawrence to themselves this past week. And now they are going over into Canada for a month.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

(7/22/1947).

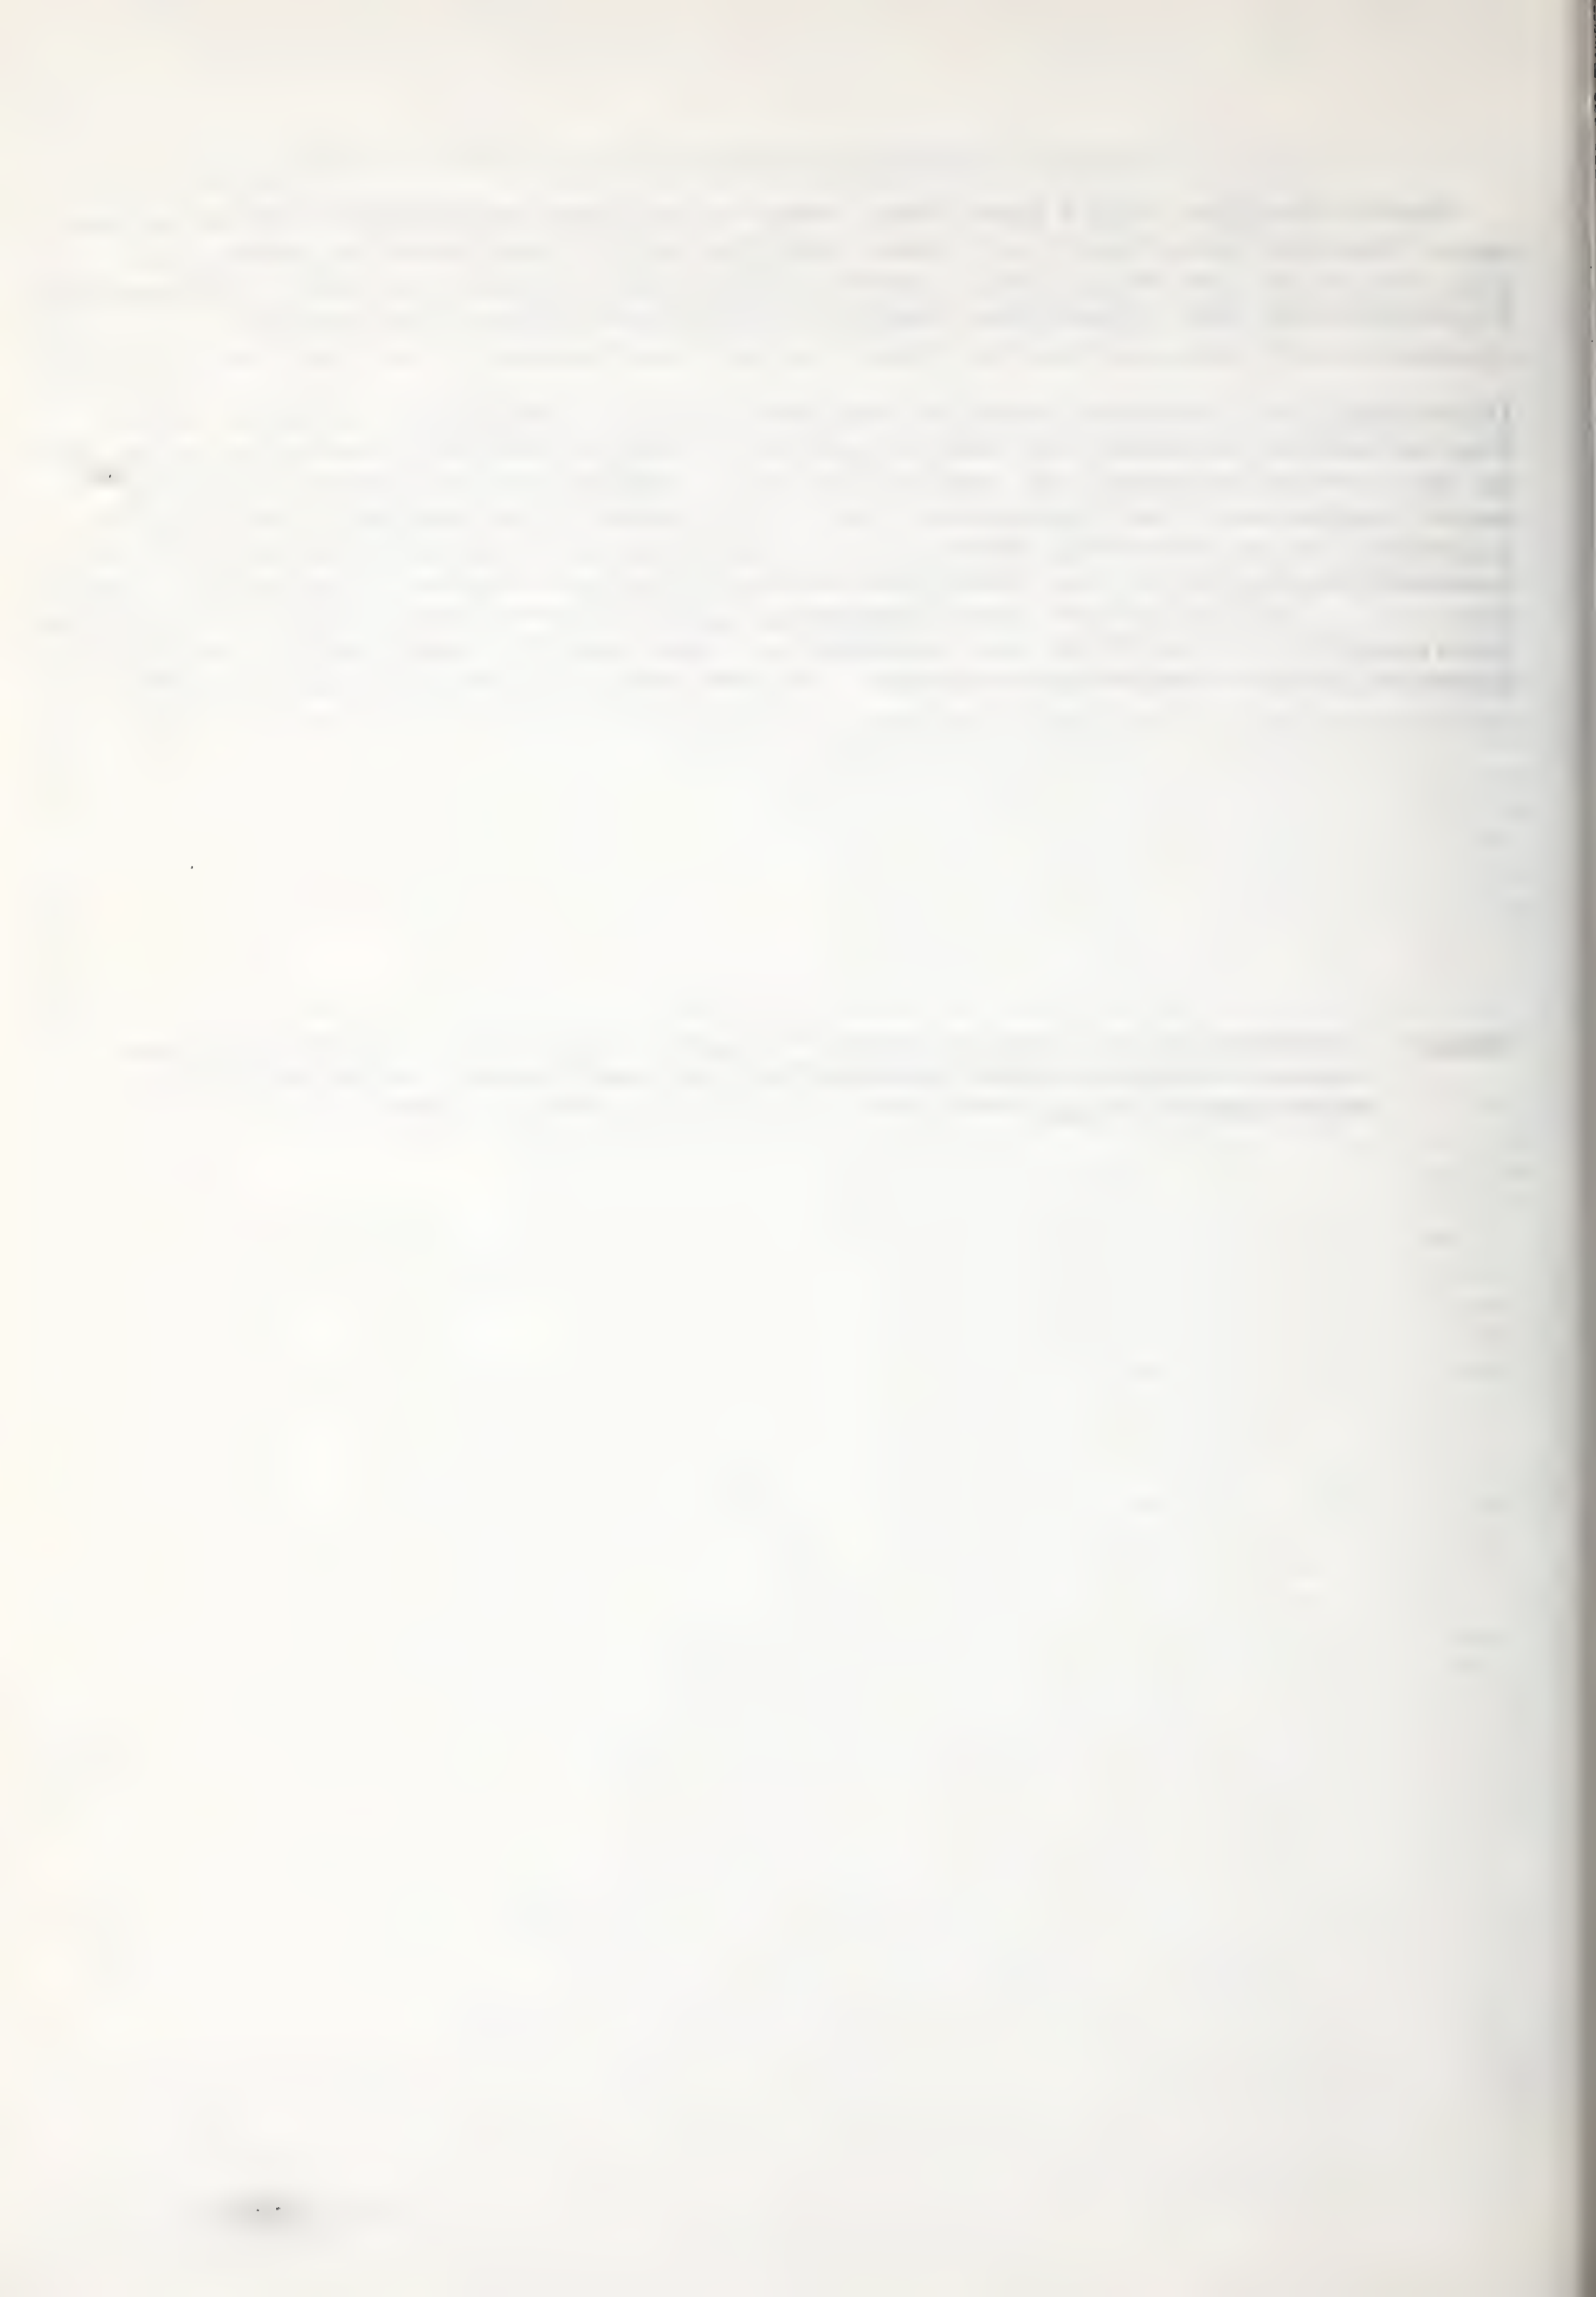

- We do wish you might have been here to help us celebrate this happy event. We all had a very gay time, and the bride and groom departed in a rain-storm of confetti. Much love, Margaret E. Elder (Margaret E. Elder - Mrs. Wm. E. Weld - Wells College - Taylor House, Aurora-on-Cayuga, New York).

(Excerpts from Letters from the Mother, Mrs. Wm. E. Weld, Jr., to Miss Helen (Wayne McCalla (A-125-61), Chicago, Ill): (12/20/1940) "...While Helen lives only 90 miles away, we don't see her as often as that short distance would indicate. Her interests are still mainly intellectual, but she is learning to be domestic, too...." (12/17/1945) "...Helen also lives there (Clinton, NY) on the Hamilton College Campus. She has two little girls now...." (12/16/1946 - from Waterville, NY) "...We are only 10 miles from Clinton, (NY), where Bill is teaching in Hamilton College, and where Helen lives with her Professor husband. We see much of the 3 Granddaughters...."

The first part of the book is devoted to a general history of the United States from its discovery by Columbus in 1492 to the present time. It covers the early years of settlement, the struggle for independence, the formation of the Constitution, and the growth of the nation. The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed history of the United States from 1789 to the present time. It covers the early years of the Republic, the struggle for the abolition of slavery, the Civil War, and the Reconstruction. The third part of the book is devoted to a detailed history of the United States from 1865 to the present time. It covers the Reconstruction, the Gilded Age, the Progressive Era, and the modern era. The book is written in a clear and concise style, and is suitable for use in schools and colleges.

(Wedding invitation-1/21/1946-to Miss Helen Wayne & Paul Hamill McCalla, (H.) (125-61 and 65), Chicago, Ill):

Mr and Mrs William Ernest Weld request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Frances Mary, to John Griffith Shaffer, Jr, Lieutenant Colonel, Army of the United States, on Thursday, the twenty-fourth of January, (1946), at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Taylor House, Aurora, New York.

(From: Auburn, NY, Citizen-Advertiser-1/25/1946): "President Weld of Wells Officiates When Daughter Frances Weds Colonel. Miss Frances Weld, daughter of President William E. Weld of Wells College, and Mrs Weld, was married on Thursday, January 24, to Lieut-Col. John G. Shaffer, Jr, son of Dr and Mrs John G. Shaffer of Altoona, Pa. The ceremony, which was performed at Taylor House, the President's home in Aurora, was attended by members of the two families and by a few intimate friends, with President Weld officiating. Given in marriage by her Uncle, Prof. W. P. Weld of Ithaca, the bride wore white satin, a Juliet cap of lace and pearls and a half-length veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

Mrs Helen Weld Nesbitt and Mrs Jane Jones Weld, the bride's attendants, were gowned in silver gray satin and carried arm bouquets of red roses. Lieut. Richard Shaffer, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Miss Weld, who received her earlier education in Switzerland and in the Bartley School in Rochester, NY, was a member of the Class of 1937 at Wells College. From November 1942 until the Autumn of 1944, she worked for the Red Cross in Kunming and Kweilin, China, and in New Delhi, India. During her last eight months in New Delhi, she was with the State Department.

Lieutenant Colonel Shaffer is a graduate of Altoona High School, of Penn State College and Antioch College. Before his induction, he was a newspaper reporter for the Cleveland Plain Dealer. On terminal leave after four years in the Army, he has served since April 1944, as assistant to the Assistant Chief of Staff, Training and Operations, in the Chinese Affairs subsection of Headquarters 15, (India-Burma) theater. The reception which followed the ceremony was attended by friends of the bride and members of the Wells College faculty.

(Excerpts from Letters from the Mother, Mrs Wm. E. Weld, Sr, to Miss Helen W. ) (McCalla (H-125-61), Chicago, Ill): (12/20/1940): "...Frances is in New York, a Junior Editor of the Reader's Digest." (12/17/1945): "...Frances came home last March, after 2 1/2 years service with the Red Cross in India and China. Her fiancé is expected home from the Far East next month, and they will probably be married soon after that...." (12/16/1946): "...Frances' husband has been in the newspaper business in Cleveland, but they are moving to Washington, DC, soon...."

HAMILL GENEALOGY - ELDER SECTION - FAMILY B:

ELDER FAMILY B:

ROBERT ELDER, (Born 1679 in Scotland), lived in Lough Neagh, County Antrim, Ireland.

In 1730, with his Family, he Emigrated to America, settling in Paxtang (Harrisburg), then Lancaster Co, now Dauphin Co, Penna, (five miles North of Harrisburg).

Note: "Pennsylvania Genealogies" - (Pages 151 to 176) - "The Elder Family" by Dr. W. H. Egle, M.D., Librarian, Pennsylvania State Library, Harrisburg, Penna. (Year of publication unknown).

This is the Family of "ROBERT ELDER of Paxtang,"
- of REV. JOHN ELDER, the famous "Fighting Person of Paxtang"
- of "Supple Jimmy" ELDER - Pole Vaulting & Leader of Indian Scouts.

This Elder "B" Family were well known to, and accepted as "Cousins" by the Elders of Family A, (1754-80), as well as the Louisa-Elders-McGandlesses-Mills descended from Family A. The B Family were of the same family back in Scotland - but of an earlier migration, (1730).

Rev. John Elder, (Elder B-2), was the famous "Fighting Person of Paxtang" well known to early Penna history. When the French-Indian war came, he very reverently laid away his Bible, took his musket off the wall - and fought like a tiger in the defence of the settlements. After the war was over, he again hung up his musket, again took out his Bible, and again "preached Christ" to his Congregation.

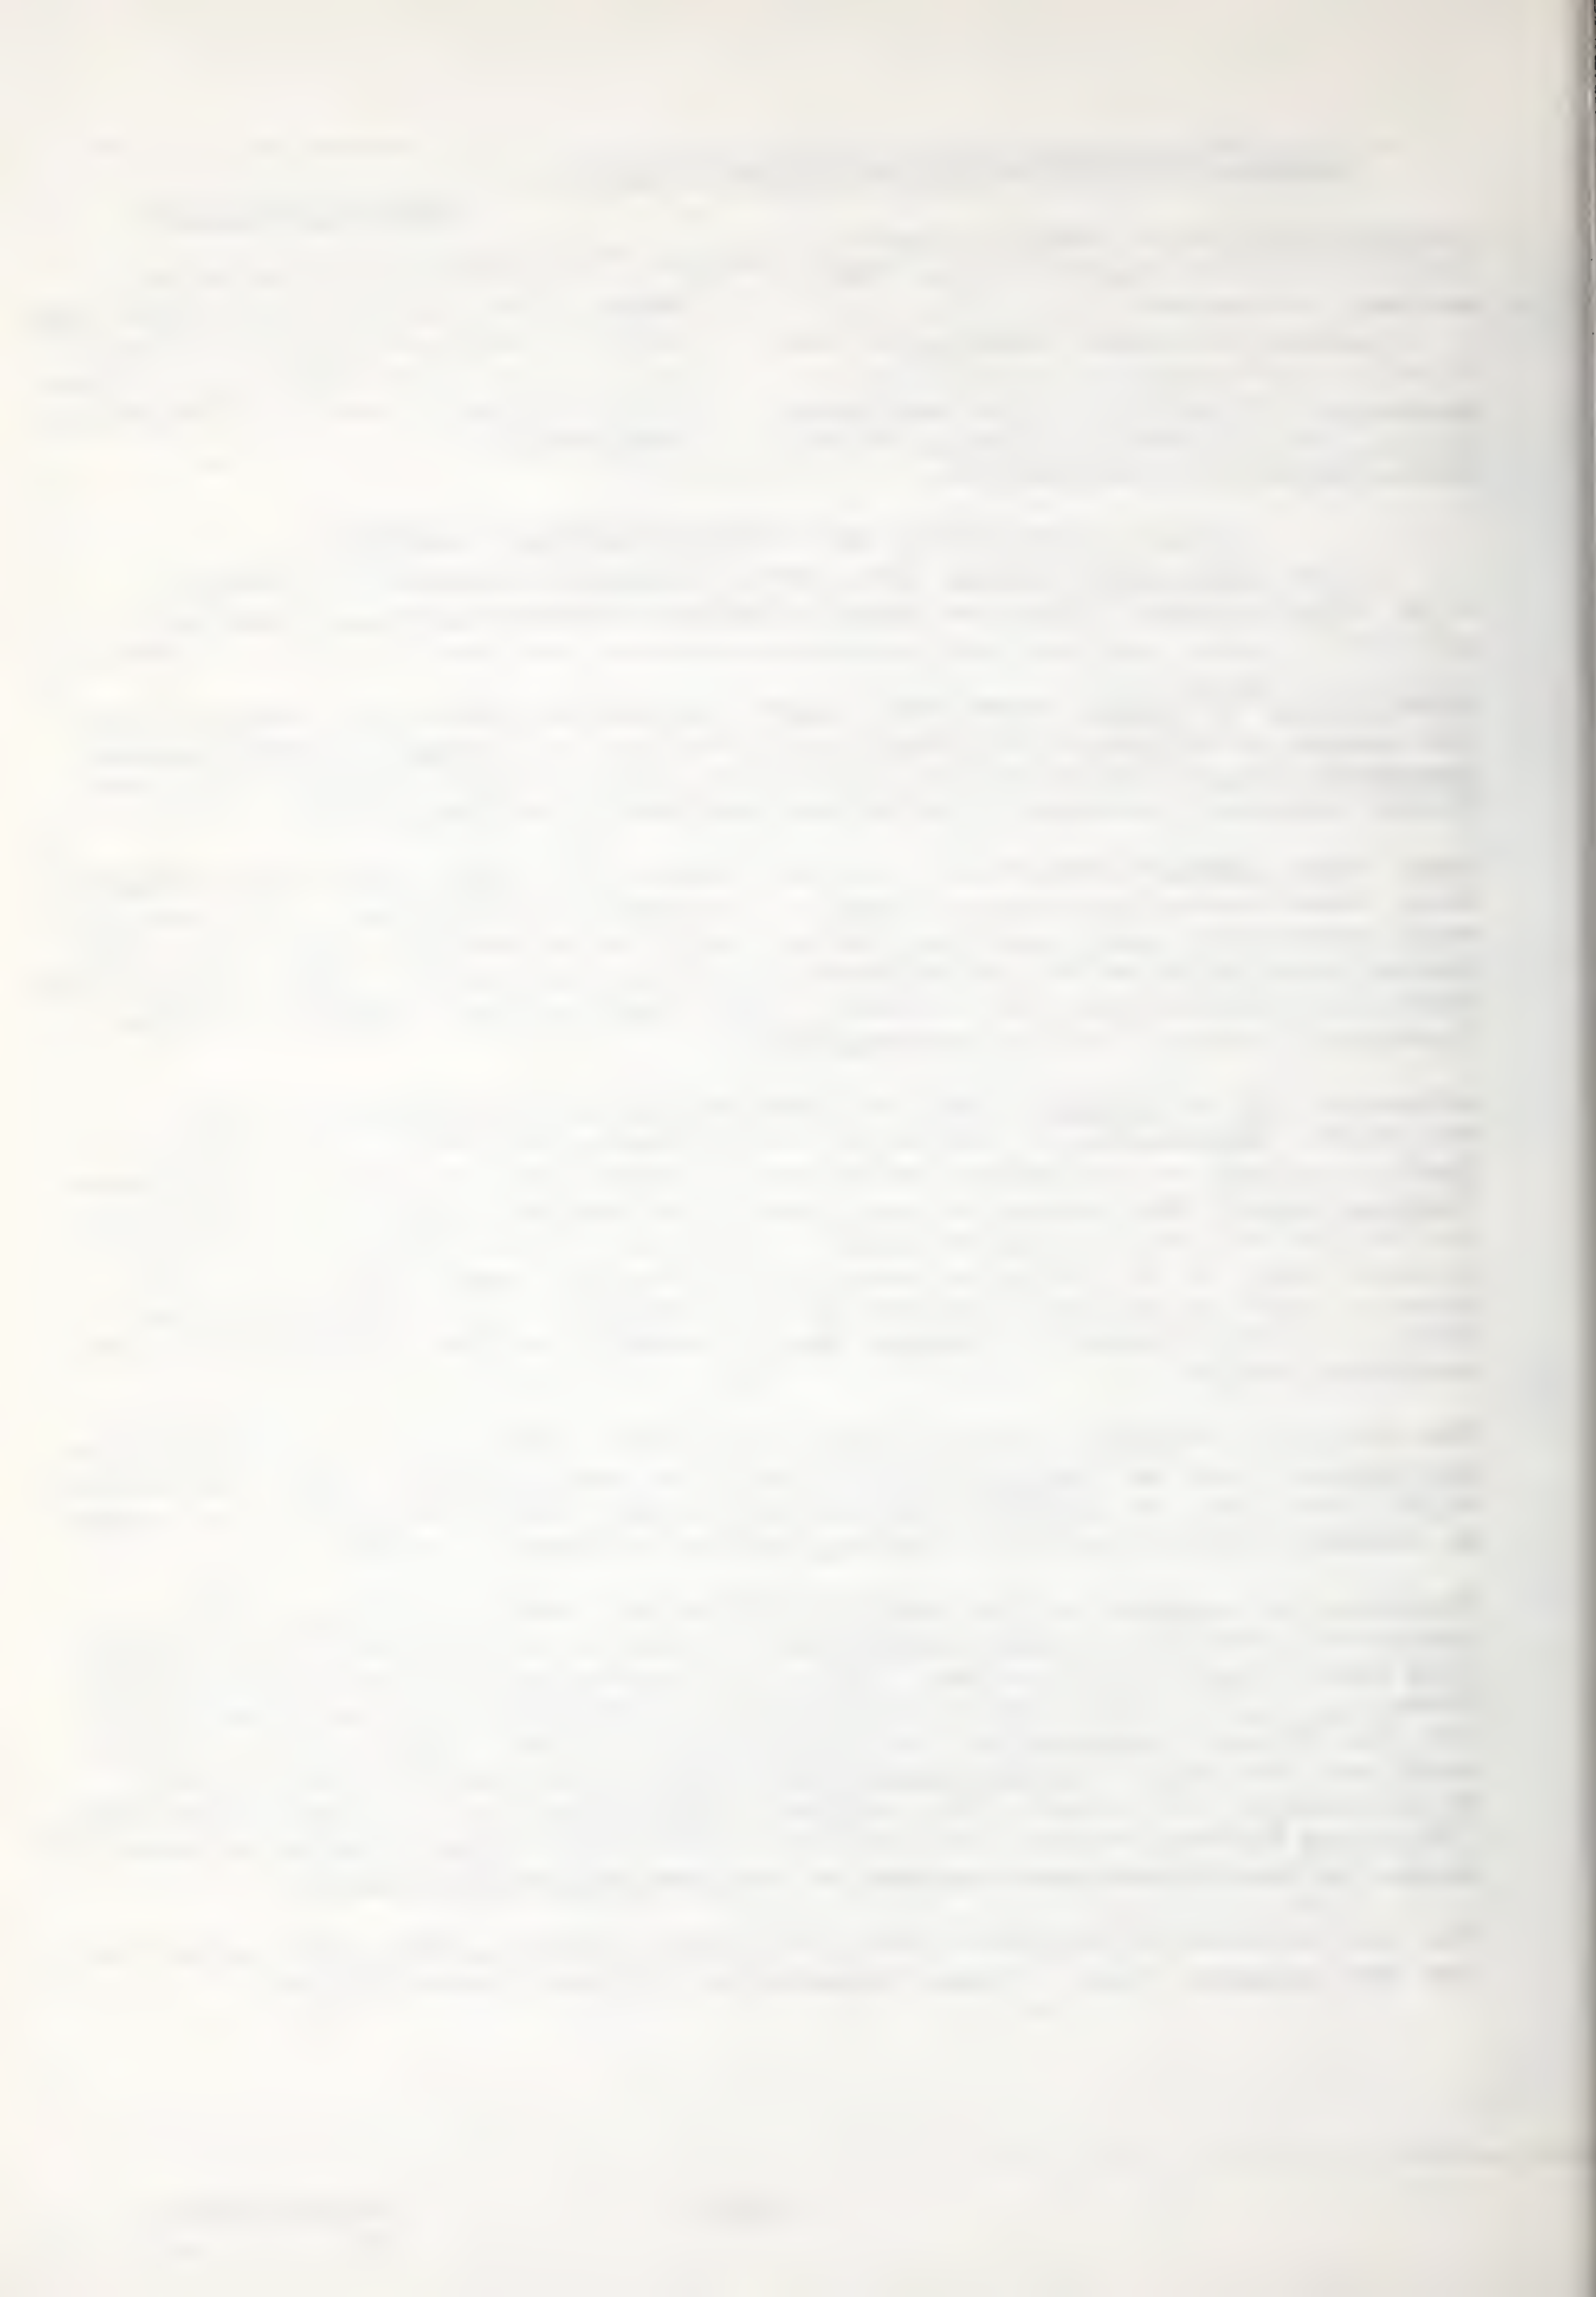

Likewise, it is thought that his brother, James Elder, (Elder B-5), was the noted "Supple Jimmy" of early Pennsylvania history. According to Family Legends - substantiated in many particulars by Penna historians - "Supple Jimmy" was kidnapped as a child by Indians, raised by them and taught to be a noted pole-vaulter. Returning again to his own family as a young man, he organized a Troop of his Indian Scout friends, which Scouts rendered valiant service to the Colonies in the French-Indian Wars. He was nicknamed "Supple Jimmy" because of his agility and pole-vaulting skill.

The Compiler - since he was a small boy - has heard tales of "The Fighting Person" and of "Supple Jimmy," from his mother, aunts, and Grandmother Hamill (A-125). So there is no doubt but that this Family B was accepted as Kinfolk by our Family A Elders, and well known to them.

However, one member of the Kinfolk wishes to show our Family A Elders as descended from this James Elder, (Elder B-5), of Family B. The Compiler does not believe this is so. This was Miss Helen Elizabeth Keop, (Young - Y-A- - - -), of Detroit, Michigan. She at one time was Genealogist for the Boston Transcript. On 5/7/1960 she wrote: "David Elder, (Elder A-2) was the son of James Elder (Elder B-5), who removed from Paxtang, (Harrisburg), to Wanquet Top, Penna. This James was the brother of the "Fighting Person," John Elder, (Elder B-2)*." (See both Data Pages after.) (Page "A" - Family A Elder section - for comment on the above).

For the present, (7/15/1947) only the first 2 Generations are copied here. For the balance - see "Penns Genealogies" by Dr. W. H. Egle, M.D.

NOTES on ELDER FAMILY "B":

(Letter-1/28/1952-from Robert William Evans, (Davidson A-121-311-1), then a) (Student at the Univ. of Chicago, living at 6032 So. Englewood Ave, Chicago) (37), Illinois. Permanent Home Address: 131 Lakeside Drive, New Concord, O.) (Letter of 1/28/1952): "....I have just received an expensive and useful book which I thought you might like to know about. It is L.L. Egle's "Penn. Genealogies," the 1893 edition, which is supposedly superior to the 1886 edition which they have at Newberry (Library-Chicago).....The book originally belonged to a lady in Crawfordsville, Indiana, who traced her descent through this Elder-family, (Elder Family B), so she has written in quite a few marginal notes relating to her own close relatives. Her name, by some strange coincidence, was Eliza Elder Davidson. I had gone to school with a boy named Franklin Davidson, from Crawfordsville, and we had tried to see if we couldn't establish some link between our families, but hadn't managed it. As soon as I saw this lady's name, though, I checked with Frank, and sure enough she was his Grandfather's Half-brother's wife. Which just goes to show that it's a small world after all."

Rev. John Elder was a Presbyterian Minister, serving mostly in Paxtang, Lancaster, now Dauphin County, Penna, (5 miles North of Harrisburg, Pa). He graduated from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and followed his parents to America about 5 years after they came in 1750.

With his sons, Robert and Joshua, he served as a Ranger of the Frontiers, in the French-Indian wars. He was the famous "fighting Ranger of Paxtang, Penna." It is said of him that when the French-Indian wars began, he reverently-laid away his Bible, took his musket off the wall - and fought like a tiger in the defence of the settlements. After the war was over, he again hung up his musket, again took out his Bible, and again "preached Christ" to his congregation. This is substantiated by Family

(From: "The Elder Family", 1873, in the city of Edinburgh, Scotland; d-duly 17, 1732, in Paxtang township, Dauphin County, Pa. He received a classical education, and graduated from the University of Edinburgh. He subsequently studied divinity, and in 1732, was licensed to preach the Gospel. Four or five years later, the son followed the footsteps of his parents and friends, and came to America. Coming as a regularly licensed Minister, he was received by New Castle Presbytery, having brought credentials to that body, afterward to Donegal Presbytery, on the 5th of October 1737. Paxtang Congregation having separated from that of Derry in 1735, and Rev. Mr. Portman adhering to the latter, left that of Paxtang vacant, and they were unanimous in giving Rev. John Elder a call. This he accepted on the 12th of April, 1738, and on the 22nd of November following, he was ordained and installed, the Rev. Samuel Black presiding. The early years of Mr. Elder's ministry were not those of ease; for in the 2nd year the Whitfield excitement took a wide spread over the Presbyterian Church. He preached against this religious furor, or the "great revival," as it was termed, and for this he was accused to the Presbytery of propagating "false doctrine." That body cleared him, however, in December 1740; "but a separation was made," says Webster, "and the conjunct Presbyters answered the supplications sent to them the next summer, by sending Campbell and Rowland to those who forsook him. He signed the protest. His support being reduced, he took charge of the "Old Side" portion of the Derry Congregation." Following closely upon these ecclesiastical troubles came the French and Indian war. Associations were formed throughout the Province of Pennsylvania for the defense of the frontiers, and the congregations of Mr. Elder were prompt to embody themselves. Their Minister became their leader - their Captain - and they were trained as Scouts. He superintended the discipline of his men, and his mounted rangers became widely known as the "Paxtang Boys."

During two Summers, at least, every man who attended Paxtang Church carried his rifle with him, and their Minister took his. Subsequently, he was advanced to the dignity of Colonel by the Provincial authorities, the date of his commission being July 11, 1763. He had command of the block-houses and stockades from Easton to the Susquehanna. The Governor, in tendering this appointment, expressly stated that nothing more would be expected of him than the general oversight. "His justification," says Webster, "lies in the crisis of affairs.... Jay at York, Steel at Conococheague, and Griffith at New Castle, with Burton and Thompson, the Church Missionaries, at Carlisle, headed companies and were actively engaged." During the latter part of the Summer of 1763, many murders were committed in Paxtang, culminating in the destruction of the Indians on Conestoga Manor and at Lancaster. Although the men composing the company of Paxtang men who exterminated the murderous savages referred to belonged to his obedient and faithful rangers, it has never been proved that the Rev. Mr. Elder had previous knowledge of the plot formed, although the Quaker pamphleteers of the day charged him with aiding and abetting the destruction of the Indians. When the deed was done, and the Quaker authorities were determined to proceed to extreme lengths with the participants, and denounced the frontiersmen as "riotous and murderous Irish Presbyterians," he took sides with the border settlers, and sought to condone the deed. His letters published in connection with the history of that transaction prove him to have been a man of judicious, firm, and decided. During the controversy which ensued, he was the author of one of the pamphlets: "Letter from a Gentleman in one of the Back Counties to a Friend in Philadelphia." He was relieved from his command by the Governor of the Province, (indirect- (See other side)).

ed that Major Asher Clayton take charge of the military establishment. Peace, however, was restored - not only in civil affairs, but in the Church.

The union of the Synods brought the Rev. John Elder into the same Presbytery with Messrs. John Roan, Robert Smith, and George Duffield, they being at first in a minority, but rapidly settling the vacancies with New Side men. By the leave of Synod, the Rev. Mr. Elder joined the Second Philadelphia Presbytery May 10, 1738, and on the formation of the General Assembly, became a member of Carlisle Presbytery. At the time the British Army overran New Jersey, driving before them the fragments of our discouraged, naked, and half-starved troops, and without any previous arrangement, the Rev. Mr. Elder went on Sunday, as usual, to Paxtang Church. The hour arrived for church-service when, instead of a sermon, he began a short and hasty prayer to the Throne of Grace; then called upon the patriotism of all effective men present, and exhorted them to aid in support of liberty's cause and the defense of the country. In less than thirty minutes, a company of Volunteers was formed. Colonel Robert Elder, the parson's oldest son, was chosen Captain. They marched next day, though in winter. His son John, at sixteen years, was among the first. His son, Joshua, sub-lieutenant of Lancaster County, could not quit the service he was employed in, but sent a substitute. Until his death, for the period of fifty-six years, he continued the faithful minister of the Congregations over which he had been placed in the prime of his youthful vigor, passing the age not generally allotted to man - that of fourscore and six years. His death was deeply lamented far and wide. Not one of all those who had welcomed him to his early field of labor survived him.

Charles Finer, the historian of Wyoming, gives this opinion of Rev. John Elder: "I am greatly struck with the evidences of learning, talent, and spirit displayed by him. He was, beyond doubt, the most extraordinary man of Eastern Pennsylvania. I hope some one may draw up a full memoir of his life, and a narrative, well digested, of his times.... He was a very extraordinary man, of most extensive influence, full of activity and enterprise, learned, pious, and a ready writer. I take him to have been of the old Cameronian blood. Had his lot been cast in New England, he would have been a leader of the Puritans." He had, with one who well remembered the old Minister, "a good and very handsome face. His features were regular - no one prominent - good complexion, with blue eyes..... He was a portly, long straight man, over six feet in height, large frame and body, with rather heavy legs..... He did not talk broad Scotch, but spoke much as we do now, yet grammatically."

His remains ~~rest~~ quietly repose amid the scenes of his earthly labors, in the burying-ground of old Paxtang Church, by the side of those who loved and revered him. Over his dust a marble slab bears the inscription dictated by his friend and neighbor, William Maclay, first United States Senator from Pennsylvania. The Rev. Mr. Elder was twice married; m first, in 1740, Mary Baker, b 1715, in County Antrim, Ireland; d June 12, 1749, in Paxtang; dau of Joshua Baker, of Lancaster, Pa. They had issue:

HAMILL GENEALOGY ELDER SECTION FAMILY B:

ELDER FAMILY B:

JAMES -- ELDER, (5th child of Robert Elder, Emigrant) -- ELDER B. - 5.
(The famous "Supple Jimmy" - Leader of Indian Scouts) ..

Born: / /1712 at ----- (Probably Ireland-Scotland) Died:

Married:

Born:

Died:

Children: (Unknown).

James -- Elder emigrated with his family and parents in 1730, settling in Paxtang, Lancaster, now Dauphin Co, Penna. He was probably a Farmer. Later he moved to Fannett Township, Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Penna - near the Elders of Family A, and he was well known to them.

(From: "Penna Genealogies"-the "Elder Family"-Page 151): "James, b 1712 settled in Fannett Township, Cumberland, (now Franklin County), Penna."

This James is supposedly the same as the famous "Supple Jimmy" Elder - famed in early Penna history, and in the legends handed down among the Hamills-MacCandlesses-Youngs-Elders. According to the legends, "Supple Jimmy" was kidnapped as a child by Indians, raised by them and taught to be a noted pole-vaulter. Returning again to his family as a young man, he organized a troop of his Indian Scout friends, which Scouts rendered valiant service to the Colonies in the French-Indian wars. He was nicknamed "Supple Jimmy" because of his agility and pole-vaulting skill. This is said to be substantiated in many particulars by Penna historians.

Miss Helen Elizabeth Keep, (Young-Y-A- ), 2247 S. Jefferson Ave, Detroit, Mich, in a letter to The Compiler on 3/7/1950, wrote: "David Elder, (who married Margery Stewart-See Family A) was the son of James Elder, who removed from Paxtang(Harrisburg), to Fannett Township(Franklin Co)Pa. This James was the brother of the "Lighting Parson", John Elder." (B-2).

The Compiler believes this is a mistake. James was of Family B, who came over in 1730. David, of Family A, was of a separate migration, and came over in 1754-1760. However, James later came to live among our Family A Elders in Franklin Co, Penna - and became well known to them - hence the many family legends about his exploits in the French-Indian wars, while he was still back in Paxtang(Harrisburg), with the "Paxtang Boys." This assertion of Miss Keep's is more fully discussed on the Data Pages- "A"-Family A-Elder Section..

(Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill H-125-6) (Mother of The Compiler (received this letter dated 2/6/1903 from the wife of Rev. George S. Rice, (DD, (Elizabeth Elder), of 1012 North J. Street, Tacoma, Washington.

"Tacoma, Washington, February 6th, 1903.

"Mrs Albert McCalla, Chicago, Illinois. My Dear Mrs McCalla: Your letter sent to Mrs Dewey was forwarded to me for answer. I am her oldest sister, and am a woman of 75 years of age. I am very much interested in our genealogy, but can tell you nothing scarcely of importance, besides what I shall copy from the old Bible of my Father's.

My Grandfather, Thomas Elder, lived in Pa. He laid out Eldersville, in Washington Co, Pa. I think he was brought up in York or Cumberland Co, Pa. He was considered a "well to do" man. I do not know how we came by the name of Elder. I heard my Father claim the Starrs, Wilsons, Youngs, etc, as relatives. He died in Council Bluffs, Iowa, 31 years ago. He married Sarah Moore in Hancock County, West Virginia, in 1825. They had 8 children, 6 daughters to grow to womanhood, 5 to marry, viz: Elizabeth married Rev. George S. Rice, (both living); Harriet to George H. Lee, (Lawyer in Cincinnati), both dead; Sarah to George Dewey, (he dead); Vashti to Dr David Reed, (both dead); and Maddassah to Herman E. Lee of New York, then to F.A. Crandell of Pa, (both husbands now dead).

I hope you can read what I have written, and if you learn who we are, please address me as Mrs G.S. Rice, 1012 North J Street, Tacoma, Washington Record of family of Thomas Elder, Sr., (My Grandfather), as told to my Father, Thomas Elder, Jr., when quite old. My Father's name was Thomas, died in 1771. Mother's name was Mary Lyons, died in 1799. They came from Ireland about 1760, and brother John was born the night they landed in America. Father was mixed with Scotch blood, was a Presbyterian, and clerked. They had 7 children, 3 of whom grew to maturity. James died in the Army, in Philadelphia, aged 23. John and myself were the only ones who married.

I was born May 14th, 1769, married Elizabeth Starr, Feby 15th, 1798, who was born in York Co, Pa, Feby 17th, 1776, and was Granddaughter of Robert Stewart or Stuart on her Mother's side, said to be descended from the Starrs claiming the crown of Scotland. My wife died March 1821. Their children are as follows, and are all dead: Rachel, Maria, John, Thomas, (my Father), Moses Starr, Elizabeth (lived 2 months), James Cook, Robert Stuart, David Lyon, Elizabeth and Nancy. My Grandfather, Thomas Elder, was married a second time to Margaret Campbell, of Washington Co, Pa."

For another Nellie Starr - See Page H-121-4.

" NOTES on ELDERS "

In 1924-1930 there was a very attractive girl named Katherine Elder, who visited a Katherine Manning, in Evanston, Ill., (Chicago suburb). Her Father, Mr Elder, was in the Contracting and Real Est. to business in Pittsburgh, Penna. She was thought to be a descendent of our David Elder, of Elder Family A. Miss Manning, her hostess, was a friend of David Dysart, (H-125-412), of Evanston, Ill., and the two girls often visited in the Dysart home in Evanston, then at 731 So. Michigan Ave, and they discussed Elder family descent with David's Mother, Mrs Paul L. Dysart, Sr., (Louise D. Hamill), (H-125-41)

The ancestor was Thomas (Sharp), but the 1st to come to America was his son Robert (Sharp). He came over at a very early age, and soon returned to the North of Ireland, where they had emigrated at some previous period from Scotland, and persuaded his Father to bring his family over. This was not later than 1746. Thomas Sharp, the Father, had married MARGARET ELDER, the daughter of a Scottish Laird, by whom he had 5 sons and 5 daughters. All of these owned land afterward in Cumberland County (Penna), in the neighborhood of Big Spring. The sons were Robert, Alexander, Andrew (killed by Indians), John and James (Sharp). Of the daughters, one married John McCune, another married JAMES HEMPHILL, another married Fullerton, and another married John Smith of Lurgan Twp, now Franklin but then Cumberland County (Penna), and another married _____ Harper....."

REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK DURING THE YEAR 1954

The work of the Physics Department during the year 1954 has been characterized by a number of important developments. The first of these is the discovery of the new particle, the  $\Omega^-$ , by the Brookhaven National Laboratory group. This discovery has opened up a new field of research in particle physics, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The second important development is the discovery of the  $\Lambda^0$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The third important development is the discovery of the  $\Sigma^0$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The fourth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^0$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The fifth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^-$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The sixth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^+$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The seventh important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^0$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The eighth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^-$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The ninth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^+$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies. The tenth important development is the discovery of the  $\Xi^0$  particle by the CERN group. This discovery has also opened up a new field of research, and has led to a number of new experiments and theoretical studies.

HAMILL GENEALOGY - STUART(Stewart) SECTION:

The STUARIS - STEWARTS:

These Stewartis, if traced far enough back into Scotland, would probably be found to be descended from the same Royal Stewartis as Family A.

The Stuaris were a numerous, prolific and powerful Clan in Scotland. Some there in Scotland started to spell the name as Stewart, and some here in America also started spelling the name as Stewart - instead of Stuart. Also, Thomas A. Elder, in his "Elder Genealogy," seems to spell all Stuart names as Stewart. His book starts out by recording the marriage of David Elder to Margerie Stewart, (should be Stuart), stating that Margerie was highly educated, very skilled at fine needle-work, and was a Scotch Nobleman's daughter. However, the family legends of the Hamills-Youngs-Elders indicate that Margerie's name was Stuart. So the beautiful Scotch name of Stuart, is now in so many cases rendered in the plainer form of Stewart.

Not all Stuart(Stewart) Kinfolk are familiar with the following facts - but they should be. There has always been a strong affinity between the Youngs - Elders - Stuarts(Stewarts) - Scotts. The Elder family were the elder or older family of the Royal Stuarts, and to differentiate themselves from the other very numerous Stuarts, they took the name of Elder - and so became the Elder Family. This is fully authenticated in Scotch history. All Stuarts(Stewarts) should note the centuries-old affinity of these 4 families, and should familiarize themselves with the Young Section of this book, which discusses the matter more fully.

The Youngs came from Ayr, Scotland; the Elders came from Elderslie, in County Renfrew, Scotland, near Paisley; the Scotts came from Ayr also, and were of the Sir Walter Scott family, of Ayr and Buccleuch, and Kinfolk of a generation or so back spoke of Sir Walter as "Cousin." The locality from which the Stuarts(Stewarts) came is not known to The Compiler.

So these 4 families intermarried for centuries, clear back into Scottish history; they met and liked each other; they helped each other in various ways; they went into business together and did team-work together; and they are buried side-by-side, and row-on-row in old graveyards. This affinity is frequently mentioned in the records of these 4 families - and a most interesting case is the fact that a Mary YOUNG Pickersgill, (daughter of William Young), made the flag that flew over Ft Mifflin - and a Francis SCOTT Key wrote our beloved "Star Spangled Banner" about it. All this is not just a happenchance. It is a definite affinity - which has been at work for centuries, clear-back into Scottish history.

This Stuart(Stewart) Section, however, is largely concerned with intermarriages with the Hamills - Davidsons - Sillmans, etc. When we start to list intermarriages with the Youngs - Elders - Scotts, etc, this Section will have to expand to a large size indeed.

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65).

(In Chicago Public Library-B-1077): "History of Plymouth, Massachusetts," by Joseph Thatcher-Page 44. This gives a list of the passengers who came over on the ship Mayflower, which landed at Cape Cod 11/3 (probably 1621). In this list is James Stewart (or Stewart). This book should be examined carefully, as it might give more data about this man.

HAMILL GENEALOGY - STUART(Stewart) Section:

STUART(Stewart) FAMILY A:

A Scotch Nobleman had a daughter, MARGERY STUART, who is found the wife of DAVID ELDER, who Emigrated from County Donegal, Ireland, to America in 1732-1760.

DAVID-MARGERY settled in Dry Run, Path Valley (North of Chambersburg), Cumberland, now Franklin Co, Pennsylvania. They died and are buried there; they had 8 children.

(listed as "Stewart" in the Elder Genealogy - Pages 3 & 4).

Died: / / 1799(?) Dry Run, Penna. Died: / / Dry Run, Penna.

Had 8 Children. David was a Farmer & Justice of the Peace - lived near Dry Run, in Path Valley, Cumberland Co, now Franklin Co, Penna (North of Chambersburg). Margery's name is spelled as "Stewart" in the "Elder Genealogy" - She was highly educated, a Scotch Nobleman's daughter, and skilled in fancy needlework.

Almost nothing is known of the Father of Margery Stuart. The fact that he was a Scotch Noble is in itself proof of the fact that he was of the Royal Stuarts, and this means that his name should be spelled as Stuart. Legends among the Hamills-Youngs-Elders-Stuarts (Stewarts) always say that both Margery and her father were of the Royal Stuarts - but these legends give almost no clue as to their history.

Margery Stuart, (Stewart), was thought by some members of the Kinfolk, (according to a statement by Miss Helen Wayne MacCalla-H-125-61), to be a daughter of a Colonel Lazarus Stuart (or Stewart), who is well known to history, and who was in the French-Indian wars in New York. This would seem possible, yet the probabilities are that Margery was born in either Ireland or Scotland.

There is also another supposition among the Kinfolk, that a Robert Stewart married a Mary Stuart (not a close relation). There was also talk of a Margaret Davidson who had married into this line - which is easily explained by referring to B-1, of Stewart Family B, which marriage occurred about a generation later, and so has nothing to do with Margery.

In an old Memorandum, source unknown, Margery's birth data is given as "1724" (?) and her death date as "1799" (?). Of the correctness of these dates The Compiler knows nothing. Of course, it is perfectly possible that some member of the Kinfolk might (?) have taken these off Margery's headstone in the cemetery at Dry Run, Penna. So The Compiler lists these dates for whatever they may be worth, subject to future investigation.

David Elder was a Farmer and Justice of the Peace at Dry Run, Path Valley, (North of Chambersburg), in Cumberland Co, now Franklin Co., Penna. David, and his brother Robert Elder, emigrated to America in 1754-1760 from Lough, Island of Inch, County Donegal, Ireland.

Margary Stuart, (Spelled "Stewart" in Elder Genealogy), was the daughter of a Scottish nobleman, was highly educated, and was very skillful in fancy needlework. Nothing additional is known about her family history.

They had a "Coat of Arms." Some of them came directly to America, others first emigrated to Northern Ireland, and thence to America. Probably the first of the name to come to America was Robert of Paxtang, who, according to Dr. W. H. Egle's Genealogy, was born about 1679 in Scotland, emigrated from Lough Neagle, County Antrim, Ireland, where he had previously settled about 1730, to America, locating in Paxtang Township, then Lancaster, now Dauphin County, Pa, five miles North of Harrisburg.

The subject of this work, DAVID ELDER, with Robert Elder, probably his brother, came to America 1754-1760, from Lough Island of Inch, or Lough Swilly, County Donegal, Ireland. His wife Margery, (or Margaret, all the family names following appear as Margaret) Stewart, is said to have been a Nobleman's daughter, to have been highly educated, and to have been very skillful in fancy needle work.

David and Robert Elder settled in Path Valley, Cumberland, now Franklin County, Pa, near Dry Run. (Note: This was North of Chambersburg).

David Elder's children claimed to be Cousins of Sir Walter Scott, but whether the relationship was through the Elders or the Stewarts we have been unable to determine. All the descendants of David Elder have long ago left Path Valley, but many of Robert Elder's descendants still live there. The early Elders were all Presbyterians.

William Young, and John, his brother who married Elizabeth Elder, were sons of William Young and Mary White. William Young lived in Murgan Township, Franklin County, Pa, in 1753. His other children were: Elizabeth married John McConnell; Margaret married Andrew Hemphill, and Gilsey married Daniel Slaymaker.

The Youngs were Scotch. They were wealthy land owners in the North of Ireland, whence they came to America, and settled in Maryland. They removed to Mercer County, Pa, about 1800. They were slave owners, and their slaves, Bob and Peg, are buried in Neshannock Cemetery. They are said to have been Baronets. They were involved in the Roman Catholic persecutions and came to America to escape them.

HAMILI GENEALOGY - STUART(Stewart) SECTION - FAMILY B:

STUART(Stewart) FAMILY B:

ROBERT STEWART, with brothers SAMUEL & HAMILTON STEWART, and sister NANCY STEWART, emigrated in 1789-90 from County Down, Ireland, to Carlisle, Penna.

In 1797 they moved to McKeesport, Penna. In 1815 ROBERT and family moved to Mt Jackson, Lawrence Co, Penna.

Data: (1930) Mr Thomas M. Stewart, (Stewart B-135) RD 1-Box 61-Enon Valley, Penna. (Who has many Stewart records).

(3/3/1947 Genealogical Chart) Mrs. Albert James Caven, (Sylvia Ellen Walker) (H-124-115)-1635 Nevada St, Gering, Nebraska.

The FAMILY B STEWARTS:

This Family B migration of Stewarts were said to have come in 1789-90 from Ireland with their related Kinfolk, the Family A Davidsons. (See Letter on Data Page B).

A fact that is not generally known is that they very possibly settled first in Carlisle, Penna, because there was another family of Stewarts who were also settled at Carlisle - who had migrated earlier, in 1750.

The "Elder Genealogy" by Dr. Thomas A. Elder, BSA, MD, tells on Page 30 of a Robert Stewart, a Lawyer, who in 1803 married (1) Mary Young, and (2) in 1830 married a Mrs Sarah Essington Shipler, and all 3 are buried at Mercer, Penna. This Robert was the son of William Stewart, (married Mary Gass), who emigrated in 1750 from Green Hill, Donegal, Ireland, and settled near Carlisle, Penna. Robert Stewart and his 2 wives had a total of 13 children, and left a large line of descent.

So it is easy to assume that, as was common in the early days, our Stewart Family B located at Carlisle, Penna, in order to be near those whom they knew were Kinfolk.

Speaking of the well-known affinity of the Youngs-Elders-Stuarts (Stewarts)-Scotts - here again is an example. Here another Stewart, of another migration, promptly meets and marries a Mary Young.

"Miss Helen Wayne McCalla, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Miss MacCalla! My brother, Thomas M. Stewart, (Stuart(Stewart)
(B-135) mailed to me, a short time ago, a letter which you had written him, making inquiry in reference to relatives who resided in Western Pennsylvania, and within a few days past I have received your second letter, addressed to him, which is, indeed, a very interesting communication. When time permits I shall study it over carefully, as it contains important items concerning the Hamill family, which are new and interesting to me. I enclose herewith a statement relating to the name Stewart, which may be of interest to you. The writer is Rev. W.B. Stewart, (-----
-----, of Philadelphia.

I did not know until I received your letter that your grandfather Hamill, (H-125) was dead. I had the pleasure of spending a day or two at his house in Keokuk, Iowa, in the Fall of 1866, and shall always remember, with pleasure, the kind treatment and cordial welcome which he and his family gave to me. Uncle Joseph Taylor, who resided at that time near Keokuk, (Iowa), was a brother of my mother's, (B-13). He died several years ago and his wife and some of the children now live in the State of Washington. My Mother (B-13) died when I was 6 years of age.

Among my earliest and most pleasant recollections, as a school boy, I can recall Thomas Hamill, (H-129), one of my first teachers, if not the very first. He was always very kind to little folks and I often think of his school in the stone school house on the hill-side near my old home in Lawrence County, Pa. My father (who died in 1870) (B-13) was an intimate friend of the Hamills of his time. I am sorry to say that I do not know much about my father's people. The only living member of my father's family is an Aunt, (B-13), who is over eighty-three years of age.
She cannot recall much of what she once knew in reference to our grandfather (B-1), as her memory is not good.

My Grandfather, Robert Stewart, (B-1) came to this country about 1789 or '90, or it may be a few years earlier, and was married to Margaret Davidson, (Davidson 5), in the town of Carlisle, Penna, in 1790. I have always understood that grandfather and grandmother Stewart (B-1) came to this country together, and that they came from the same locality in which the Hamill and Davidson people lived in Ireland, but were not here until after the close of the Revolutionary War. (See Note A).

Grandfather Stewart(B-1), with his two brothers, Samuel(B-2) and Hamilton(B-3), and one sister, Nancy(B-4), finally settled in Allegheny County in or near the town of McKeesport, which is now a flourishing city. His brother Samuel(B-2) was accidentally drowned in the Ohio River. I think he left a family of young children, some of whose descendants, with those of his brother Hamilton, (B-3) are still residing in the locality of Pittsburgh. Nancy Stewart(B-4) married a man by the name of Robert Whigham in the same locality and some of their grandchildren are probably living in Allegheny County at this time.

Grandfather Stewart(B-1) went to Beaver County with his family after residing a number of years in Allegheny County and settled in the Northern part of the county. That part of the county of Beaver with the Southern part of Mercer, was formed into a new county called Lawrence and in that County the Hamills, Davidsons and Stewarts resided. Both our grandparents (B-1) lived to be quite aged and all their children too. One of my father's sisters, (B-17) was married to a Hamill, (H-122). Her home was somewhere in the State of Michigan. Your mother's Uncle, Thomas Hamill(H-129) must know about that family. My father's sister, Aunt Lydia McGeehon, (B-18), remembers something of the Davidsons in early years.

Grandmother Stewart(B-7), who was Margaret Davidson, (Davidson A-5), had 3 brothers, Robert, James and William, and 4 sisters, Sally, Polly, Lydia and Hester. Sally married John Blaine, but had no children. Polly married a Mr Irwin and had two sons who lived in Youngstown, Ohio. Lydia married John Gibson who lived near Youngstown, Ohio. They had several daughters and one son named Findley. One of the daughters, Ella, married a man named Jas. Sproat. This daughter, Ella, was Aunt Minerva Taylor's step-mother. Aunt Minerva Taylor was the wife of Uncle Joseph Taylor who lived near Keokuk, Iowa, and who knew your Grandfather, (H-125), of course, quite well. Our Aunt Lydia McGeehon(B-18) does not know anything of Hester Davidson.

Robert Davidson had a family and lived in or near a place called Cadiz, which my Aunt(B-18) says was in Pennsylvania, but I am inclined to think was Cadiz, Ohio, but do not know positively. James Davidson was married and lived near Youngstown, Ohio. Some of his descendants now reside in Lawrence Co, Penna, and in Kansas. Wm. Davidson lived in Western Penna. I remember very well his son, James, who lived on a farm adjoining my father's place, and which is still in the Davidson family. I know personally nearly all the members of that family. All are now dead. Jane, the last one to survive, died a few months ago at an advanced age.

I knew Charles Silliman and his brother Thomas, to whom you refer in your letter. They left several children, some of whom are now deceased, and others living in different parts of the country. My father's (B-13) first wife was a Silliman(B-13), a sister of Charles and Thomas, and I have 3 half-brothers living, sons of Isabella Silliman, one in Iowa, one in Kansas and another in Pennsylvania. Alexander Silliman, brother of Charles and Thomas, referred to in your letter, lived in Ohio and his children and grandchildren still reside somewhere in that State.

I have recently been gathering some facts in reference to my mother's people and have found it very interesting, but it takes more time than I can give to the subject. I do not wonder that you are so much interested in this line. I regret that I cannot throw any additional light on the subject. If you were to ask me something about the Civil War, I would feel more at home in that line of investigation, as I had, I think 20 full cousins in the Army and 2 brothers, and was in myself during the latter part of the war. John Smith Hamill, (H-123), a cousin of your mothers, was in the same Company that I was in. My letter is already too lengthy, and I fear contains little or nothing of value to you. With kind regards, I remain, Very truly yours, JOHN L. STEWART. (Stewart(Stewart) B-134).

Robert Stewart, with his 2 brothers, Samuel and Jonathan Stewart, and his sister, Nancy Stewart, emigrated from Ireland to America in 1789-90. They settled first at Carlisle, Penna, where Robert married. In 1797 all four brothers and sister moved to McKeesport, Allegheny Co, Penna, and here all except Robert remained.

Robert was a Weaver, and also a Teacher in Ireland, and when at McKeesport he had married. In 1793, he had married, at Carlisle, Penna, Margaret Clendenning Davidson, the daughter of William and Mary Clendenning Davidson. These Davidsons and the Stewarts were said to have come from Ireland together. (See Davidson Section) (See also Letter on Data Page "B").

In 1815, Robert, with his wife and 8 children, moved on west from McKeesport, to near Mt Jackson, then in Beaver Co, now Lawrence Co, Penna, where they spent the rest of their lives. At Mt Jackson, Robert did Weaving, Farmed and Taught School. Both Robert and Margaret are buried in the UP Cemetery, near Mt Jackson, North Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna.

Betsy Stewart (B-17) - Nathaniel Hamill, 3rd (H-122) settled in Michigan. A son, Joseph Hamill (H-122-1) served in the Civil War. A daughter, Minerva, married a James Wortman, and they lived in Newcastle, Penna, having no children. This family supposedly moved to Michigan in 1850-60, but trace of them has been lost. It is also said that they moved on to Kansas (?) later on. (See Page H-122, Hamill Genealogy).

A LETTER FROM MISS ANNA STEWART, (D-156-B).

(NOTE: There is a Mountain near Snow Valley, Pennsylvania). Many of the (persons) mentioned in this letter are in Davidson Family A, so the pre- (fix "D-A-" before a number will refer to this Davidson Family A.)

"Mount Air, Pa, Jan 17, 1896.

"Dear Miss McCalla, (H-125-61):

My bros.(brothers), John,(Stewart B-154) and Thomas H. Stewart(Stewart (B-155) asked me to give you all the information I could in regard to our ancestry. I have met a good many of our friends. Recently, a Grand-daughter, (Mrs Russell)(D-A-144), of Wm. Davidson, (D-A-1) told me that her Mother(Polly Davidson)(D-A-14), told her that Wm. Davidson(D-A-1) Mother (D-"A"), with her family, came to America all at the same time. Her husband(D-"A") having died some time before. One incident she(Mrs Russell) (D-A-144)said I shall never forget. This was Wm. Davidson's Mother(D-A), was so poor she could not pay the passage from Western Pennsylvania to this place, just in sight of our home. They, or she, had to sell one of the daughters, a girl about 16 years, to a man and his wife. After some time, do not know how long, this girl stayed and worked enough to pay the way. Wm. Davidson(D-A-1) went after and wished his sister to come home with him. The man would not give her up. However, after his death, the girl came home. She married a Mr Irwin(D-A-9) in Youngstown, Ohio, and had two boys. Now her great-grandchildren live in that neighborhood.

I feel proud of our Irish blood - don't you? Mrs Russell(D-A-144) says she does not know Wm. Davidson's(D-A-1) Mother's(D-"A") name. She said I remember well my Grandmother-Davidson. She was Rosanna Davidson Hamill's(D-A-11) Mother(D-A-1). Wm. Davidson(D-A-1) and his wife are buried in a Cemetery not far from their old home. It seems Wm. Davidson (D-A-1) married a widow, (she) had two children. I do not know where they landed(the children).

Had you undertaken this work two or three years ago you could have learned much more about your Grandfather's people. I will get the address of Mrs Martha McKim(D-A-142). She knows more of the past history than her sister, Mrs Russell(D-A-144). Those two sisters are daughters of Mrs Polly Silliman(D-A-14). Mrs McKim lives in Topeka, Kansas - I don't know her so. Sometime I will give you a record of all the Silliman names if you wish me to do so. Rosanna Davidson Hamill(D-A-11) and three of her sisters have been at our house quite often - Polly(D-A-14), Mattie, (D-A-16) and Lydia(D-A-15). I never saw Rester(D-A-13), although she lived about four or five miles from us. One of her daughters lives very near us. I intend to see her soon.

I have a Cousin, Mrs Duff, whom I think can give us some light on the subject. I can write, but would rather see her as it will be more satisfactory. I have written to a daughter of James Hamill(H-124)(Mrs Crawford)(H-124-1). No doubt she can give us some new ideas. How we would enjoy having those dear old friends with us again.

I remember your Great Grandmother(H-12) well, and enjoyed her company when I was a little girl. She would come and have a long talk with my father(Stuart(Stewart) B-13). Such a dear good woman!

I feel as though your patience will be completely worn out with this scrawl. My bros.(brothers) are engaged in school work and are very busy. We are all enthused in your work, and hope you may succeed. We will try to help you. Tomorrow I will start out to interview more of the Davidson people. One more thought comes to my mind. Did you know Rosanna D. Hamill(H-12) had a brother, James Davidson(D-A-12)? You have left him off your list. He was married to Betsy Houston. Two of his Grandsons live near us in the old home.

THE HISTORY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

From its first settlement in 1630 to the present time, the city of Boston has been a center of commerce, industry, and culture. Its history is marked by significant events, including the founding of the city, the American Revolution, and the growth of its economy and population. The city has played a pivotal role in the development of the United States, and its legacy continues to shape the nation today.

The city of Boston was founded in 1630 by a group of Puritan settlers. They established a colony on the eastern shore of Massachusetts Bay, which was then a part of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The settlers were seeking a place where they could practice their religion freely and build a community based on their shared values. Over the years, the city grew and became a major center of commerce and industry. It was a hub for trade with the West Indies and Europe, and its port was one of the busiest in the world.

Boston played a central role in the American Revolution. It was the site of the Boston Tea Party in 1773, a protest against British taxation that led to the American Revolution. The city was also the site of the Battle of Boston in 1775, a decisive battle in the war. After the war, Boston became a center of industry and commerce, and its population grew rapidly. It was a major center for the textile industry, and its factories produced goods for export throughout the world.

Boston has a rich cultural heritage, and it is home to many of the most important cultural institutions in the United States. It is the home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Boston Opera House, and the Boston Museum of Science. The city is also home to many of the most important universities in the United States, including Harvard University and MIT. Boston's cultural and educational institutions have played a major role in the city's development, and they continue to shape the city's identity today.

Boston is a city of many firsts. It was the first city to have a public library, the first city to have a public school system, and the first city to have a public hospital. It was also the first city to have a public park, and the first city to have a public library. Boston's history is a story of innovation and progress, and its legacy continues to shape the city and the nation today.

I do not wish to weary you more, but old memories come back. I remember well your Mother's (A-125-6) parents (A-125). They gave us a morning call. I was only a little girl, and I cannot remember how long ago. Later, two eldest daughters came and spent some time with their Grandmother. A third daughter, too, with her father came to Pennsylvania. Two of my brothers called to see the Hamill family (A-125) of Boone, Iowa. Both were delighted with their visit.

Mrs Russell (D-A-144) is so interested in your work, and will help you with all the little incidents she can recall. She is a Cousin of Mrs Smith Hamill (A-125). After seeing more of our friends, I will write you again. Yours sincerely, Miss Anna Stewart.

 (From: "Elder Genealogy" - Pages 30-31): Robert Stewart was the son of William and Mary Gass Stewart. William Stewart was a first lieutenant in Col. William Hazen's regiment, "Congress' Own, in the Revolutionary War, in 1777, he was Adjutant. For his services he was given 200 acres of land in Indian Run, Mercer Co, Penna, where he lived until his death. Robert Stewart was a Private in the War of 1812. The Stewarts, like the Elders and Youngs, were Scotch. William Stewart came from Green Mill, Donegal, Ireland, about 1750, and settled near Carlisle, Penna.

Mary Gass was the daughter of Benjamin and Eleanor (Galbraith) Gass, whose issue were Prudence, Mary, William and Benjamin. Their Guardians were Benjamin Chambers and John Potter, of Chambersburg, Penna. Benjamin and William Gass, brothers, came to America between 1690 and 1700. They had been fullers, on the River Bann, Ireland. They landed at Philadelphia.

The children of William and Mary Gass Stewart were: John (b. 1761, d. young); Benjamin (b. 1762); Prudence (married _____); Simpson; Galbraith (married Elizabeth Scott - they lived in Washington Co, Pa); John (born 1769); Rebecca (b. 1771, married _____ Forbes); Mary (b. 1774, married James Anderson). Their Grandson, Rev. John Dunsmore, was a Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly; William (b. 1778, married Eleanor Knox and settled in Ohio); and Robert (who is Y-A-253). The early Stewarts were all of the Presbyterian faith.

(On 3/7/1930, Miss Helen Eliz. Keep, (Y-A-253-611)-2247 Jefferson Ave, East, Detroit, Mich, sent the following to The Compiler):

FRAGMENTS of GENEALOGICAL DATA:

(Those Fragments of the History of various unknown Stuarts(Stewarts) are listed here for purposes of record. The Compiler.

FRAGMENT # 101:

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/3/1947): "Robert W. Stewart, 79, former Chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, who died Feb'y 24, (1947), left an estate of $5,615,239. according to an inheritance tax return filed yesterday in County Court. He left $50,000. to Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The bulk of the remainder was left in trust for his Widow, Maude, 181 Lake Shore Drive and four sons. The return was filed by Albert L. Hopkins and the Continental-Illinois Nat. Bank & Trust Co, executors. Federal estate tax was placed at $1,219,449, and State inheritance tax $234,158."

FRAGMENT # 102:

"James Maitland Stewart, Movie Actor. James Maitland Stewart was born May 20th, 1908, at Indiana, Pennsylvania. He is a Movie Actor, in Hollywood, Cal. He is the Son of Mr Alexander Maitland Stewart, a Hardware Merchant of Indiana, Penna, (whose store was Founded in 1863), and his Wife, Elizabeth Ruth Jackson(Stewart). This Father was a Senior at Princeton, and was in the Spanish-American and World War 1. James studied at Mercersburg Academy, and entered Princeton in 1928. He married Gloria _ _ _ Hatrick McLean, at Indiana, Penna. They have twins.

(From: Chicago Tribune-5/21/1935-"Front Views & Profiles" Column-by June ) (Provinces.)

".....on the morning of May 17: In your column today (May 17) you cite Vincent Starrett as a Stewart cadet, a royal Stewart with the right to wear a Stewart tartan. He arraigns the Stewarts according to historians for their duplicity, licentiousness and general dissedness. I wonder what historians he has been reading - surely English historians.....who hate their friends and fawn upon their foes. Robert Burns, no respecter of mere titles, says to the Earl of Galloway:

"No Stewart art thou, Galloway, The Stewarts all were brave."

Besides, the Stewarts were but fools. Not one of them a knave."

"The Stewarts were but fools.....James IV at Flodden, James I and his bitter feuds with the Grahams, James V and his similar feuds with his nobles, but all their "foolishness" was chivalric idealism. James IV, refusing to use the seven canons - first cannon cast in brass - at the English crossing the Till, James I and his attempt to discipline the clans, James V in his creating of new nobles for mental ability as against the ancient reward for bravery.

"Perhaps Starrett was thinking of the Stuarts, descendants of Stuart, Earl of Darnley and Mary Stewart, daughter of James V.....a glimpse of that line: James VI, their son - the "Scottish Solomon" - could not have been much of a slouch and have held the two thrones in those turbulent times.... Charles I showed the foolish stubbornness of the family in trying to enforce the divine right of Kings only to be dethroned and decapitated by another stubborn fool member of the family, Cromwell, whose mother was a Stewart.....James VII displayed the foolish streak in his persistence in favoring the Roman Catholic hierarchy.....Charles II, who "never said a foolish thing nor ever did a wise one".....letting off steam after the rigid, rigorous rule of Cromwell. No man ever made a more kingly figure on his way to his doom.....Vincent Starrett should read less biased history, not that of the sycophants of the Georges. Yours for better history, Fred A. Hammond."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/5/1948):

"BRITONS KEEP MEMORIES OF BONNIE PRINCE. Stuart History is Cherished.

London-2/4(1948)-Altho Shakespeare has it that "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown," King George is free from at least one worry that besets other European monarchs - there is no "pretender" menacing his throne. The royal house of Stuart, which George's ancestors ousted more than 200 years ago is extinct since "Bonnie Prince Charlie," who made such a gallant bid for the British crown in 1745, died in exile without legitimate heirs. But despite the fact that no Stuart king has reigned in England since 1688, memory of the ill-starred Stuarts still is cherished in the hearts of some of the romantic men and women in this country. These latter day "Jacobites" are grouped in the Royal Stuart Society, which holds sessions in London and whose proclaimed aim is "maintenance of the Stuart tradition."

No Seditious Aims. Members of the Society include many descendants of the old cavalier and Jacobite families in England and Scotland who suffered for their loyalty to the Stuarts. It is headed by a "Governor General" and has numerous officers, including a Recorder and Historian, a High Steward, who is also a Master of Ceremonies, a Chief Bard, and Honorary Pipers. There is nothing about the Society's activities calculated to excite the suspicions of Scotland Yard. It has no seditious aims. Altho it deplors the accession of the present royal family to the throne, it cannot very well conspire to restore the House of Stuart as there is no Stuart prince left.

Directly Descended: The nearest thing to a royal Stuart which devotes of this picturesque lost cause can raise is Charles Henry Fitzroy, Duke of Grafton, who is an outstanding member of their society. Were it not for the "bar sinister" which marks his coat of arms, the duke would be an ideal Stuart pretender, because he is directly descended from a natural son of King Charles II and the fair Barbara Villiers, Duchess of Cleveland. The blood of the "merry monarch" flows in the veins of two other English dukes - Osborne de Vere Beauchamp, Duke of St Albans, who is directly descended from Charles II, and the famous Nell Gwynn; and Frederick Charles Gordon-Lennox, Duke of Richmond, whose maternal ancestor was Louise de Keroualle, Charles II's beautiful French mistress.

HAMILL GENERAL BY-DAVIDSON SECTION - FAMILY A:

MRS MARY CLEMMERING DAVIDSON, (Mrs Ch. Davidson, 22), with her 3 children
- Emigrated from Co. Derry, Ireland, to America in 1722-1723. They settled first near Carlisle, Penna.

Supposedly with them in the party came Robert Stewart with 2 Brothers and 1 Sister, (of Stewart-Stewart) Family B). This Robert Stewart afterward married a daughter of Mrs David-idson, who was Margaret Clemmerring Davidson, (See Davidson A-5).

NOTES ON EARLY HISTORY OF DAVIDSON FAMILY A:

The Davidsons are of Scotch descent, and probably fled to North Ireland from Scotland in previous generations, to escape persecution.

There is a Family Legend among our Davidsons to the effect that our Davidson Family were in the Siege of Londonderry.

Other Davidson families trace their genealogy back to various Scottish Chiefs, as detailed in the next paragraph. This information may be useful in case we ever try to trace our ancestry clear back!

("American Ancestry"-Volume 2-Page 41): "Nicholas Davidson, (born Dingwall, Castle, Scotland; 1530). Moved to Lynn, England, 1605. Was son of Malcom Davidson, Chief of Clan David, or Davidson. Chiefs of this Clan are descended from the first Chief, David, 2nd son of King David I, of Scotland, who upon the ascension of his brother to the Scottish throne, took the headship of part of the Clan Chattan, and thereupon assumed the name of MacDhai, or Davidson. (David married a daughter of the Lord of the Isles)."

Also, it is highly probable that William Davidson, Sr's (7A) widow, with her children, came to this country to join other members of her family who had been here for some time, and who lived in the vicinity of Carlisle, Penna.
It is thus highly probable that the Davidsons who had been here for some time, were earlier members of the same general family as the Ch. Davidson, Sr (7A) family. It is also possible that Ch. Davidson, Jr (A-1), or his father, (7A), may have been here before, and may have gone back again to the Old Country, as so many of the early settlers did.

Nancy MacCandless Hamill, (Mrs Smith Hamill-A-125); said that her mother-in--law, Rosanna Davidson Hamill (A-12 & Davidson A-11), told her again and again that the Davidsons were from King David of Scotland, and that they came "in the beginning" of the USA. That some of each generation would go back to be educated, but except for business, they always felt that America was their home. (Told by Nancy Eleanor Hamill (Mrs Albert McCalla-A-125-

This Davidson Family A, (Margaret C. Davidson-A-5), and Stewart (Stewart) Family B, (Robert Stewart-A-1), are said to have come originally from North Ireland, settling first at Carlisle, Penna. (See Letter from John A. Stewart at

They may have been led to settle first at Carlisle, Penna, because some Stewart ~~Stewart~~ had settled there years before, (in 1750), and they wished to be near them. (see ~~Stewart~~ ~~Stewart~~ Family 2) - (see also Title Page (to ~~Stewart~~ ~~Stewart~~ Family 2)).

It is said that these ~~Stewart~~ ~~Stewart~~ were also associated with ~~Stewart~~ ~~Stewart~~, Penna.

The Compiler - ~~Paul~~ ~~Paul~~ McCalla (M-125-65).

HAMILL GENEALOGY - DAVIDSON SECTION:

Data Page on WILLIAM DAVIDSON, JR - MARY CLENDENNING.

To Follow Page
Davidson A.

Mary Clendenning Davidson (Davidson A), was left a widow in Ireland, and came with 3 children, (including William Davidson, Jr (#1)), who had 3 young children, (son, Rosanna (#11) and James (#12)), to America in 1786-87. Another record, probably more correct, says that they started from Belfast, Ireland, May 17th, 1790. They settled at Redstone, near Carlisle, Penna. Later (April 1794), they moved to Lawrence County, Penna.

"Mrs Mary Clendenning Davidson (#A), her son, William Davidson, Jr (#1), his wife and 2 children, Rosanna and James, and Wm. Jr's 2 brothers, James (#2) and Robert (#3), and 5 sisters, came to America in 1786 or 87, and first settled at Carlisle, Penna." (Iron Genealogical Chart of Mrs Albert) (James Caven. (#C)).

"The Davidson-family started from Belfast about the 17th of May, 1790. This is what is in the old bible that I have." (The author of this Memo.) (is Unknown - but it is very possibly from the bible of Nathaniel Hamill, Jr (#11), for it is with records of that family) (See Data Page H-11).

Rev. Thomas L. Sexton, D.D. (#1-125-1) claimed that James Davidson was the Father of William Davidson (Jr-#11) and the rest, and that he died at Carlisle, Penna, before 1798 - but most others believe that this is wrong.

Mrs Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6) said that her Grandmother, Rosanna Davidson Hamill (#11 & H-12), talked a great deal about 3 Davidson men who were in Carlisle, Penna, when Rosanna Davidson was a little girl. One was General William Lee Davidson, who lived in Carlisle, and after the Revolutionary War was said to have moved to North Carolina, and married Mary Brevard, daughter of Dr Brevard. There might have been a relationship there. (See letter on page following from War Dept. mentioning Revolutionary Davidsons). Mrs McCalla (H-125-6) also believed that some Davidsons were shipbuilders. Mrs Lizzie A. Davidson wrote 10/19/1924:

"William Davidson was over 90 when my daughter wrote him over 15 years ago but he has no record of his ancestry. He lived in the West. We have 3 or 4 different groups of Davidsons in Lawrence County, not directly related to our group."

For Data on Davidsons see: "History of The McAulis Family" in Volume 1 of "History of Beaver County, Penna."

William Davidson, Jr - Mary Aiken Ramsey Ramsey (#1): See Descent Page #1, which follows, for data on this family.

James Davidson (#2): The son, James (#2), settled near Cadiz, Ohio, and had a large family, and only one Grandson living (1924-30) near Grove City. However, Mrs Thomas L. Sexton (H-125-1) claims James was the one who married Betsy Houston (see #12), and that he lived near Coitsville, Ohio. (?) There is a Family Legend that Esther Findlay (or Finley) also married into this generation. This seems to be supported by the name of William Findlay Davidson, son of James Davidson ( _ _ ), having the name of Findlay. Esther Findlay's people are said to have founded Findlay, Ohio, and she is buried at Youngstown, Ohio. James (#2) is also said to have lived at Youngstown, Ohio, and descendants live in Lawrence Co, Penna, and in Kansas.

Robert Davidson (#3): Robert settled near New Bedford, Penna, and there are 3 Granddaughters now (1924-30) living there - Miss Anna Davidson, Mrs Mary Cowden, and Mrs Fred Stewart, all aged. Mrs Thomas L. Sexton (H-125-1) claimed that it was Robert Davidson (#3) who settled near Cadiz, Ohio, and died after 1857. Mrs Lizzie A. Davidson ( _ _ ), however, claims it was James (#2) who settled there.

Sally Davidson (#4): Sally married Matthew Blaine, was left a widow, and childless, and lived with Robert Stewart (#5) at Anon Valley, near Mt Jackson, Penna.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of growth and change. It begins with the first settlers, who came to the Americas in search of a new life. They found a land of opportunity, but also one of challenge. The early years were marked by conflict and struggle, as the settlers fought to establish their communities and defend their rights. Over time, the United States grew from a small colony into a powerful nation. It was a process of constant evolution, shaped by the dreams and aspirations of its people. The story of the United States is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the ability of a nation to overcome adversity and build a better future.

The early years of the United States were marked by a series of challenges and struggles. The settlers faced a harsh environment, with limited resources and a constant threat of conflict with the Native Americans. Despite these difficulties, they persevered and established a new society. The United States was born, and it was a nation of great promise. The story of the United States is a story of growth and change, of a nation that has overcome adversity and built a better future.

The United States has a long and rich history, one that is filled with great achievements and challenges. It is a story of a nation that has grown from a small colony into a powerful world leader. The United States has been a beacon of hope and freedom for people around the world. Its history is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the ability of a nation to overcome adversity and build a better future.

Margaret(Perry) Davidson(#3): She married Robert Stewart. See Descend page #5, which follows, for data on this family.
Lydia Davidson(#5): Married James Alexander, Sr, and lived at Beaver, Penna. Alice May Sexton(H-125-12) wrote: "Lydia Davidson-James Alexander, Sr, had a son, James Edward Alexander, who had a daughter, Edna Harrison Alexander, 2003 Cameron St, Alexandria, Virginia). She wrote Alice May Sexton(H-125-12) on 4/7/1922. The father, James Edward Alexander, frequently spoke of "Uncle Jimmie"(Possibly _____), who lived on a farm at Enon Valley, Penna."

Ezra Davidson(#7): She married John Gibson, whose father was said to have been James Gibson (Born 1747 at Carlisle, Penna, Died 1817), and his mother was Anna Belle _____ (Born 1748, Died 1831), buried at Youngstown, Ohio. Ezra Davidson-John Gibson(#7) had several daughters, and one son, Lindlay Gibson. One daughter was Eleanor Ellender(Alander) Gibson, who married General James Sproat, of the Mexican and Civil Wars(they had no children). Nancy Eleanor Hamill(Mrs Albert McCulla-H-125-6) was named for her. Chauncey Gibson, who worked for S.Hamill Co, of Rock, Iowa, (See page H-125), was a son of Ezra Davidson-John Gibson(#7).

Ann Davidson(#9): There was supposedly a Folly or Ann, who married a Mr Irwin, of Youngstown, Ohio, and had 2-sons. Another family legend claims that the girl who married Mr Irwin was one of the daughters of Mary A. Ramsey(#1) by her 1st husband, and that her Great-Grandchildren still live in Youngstown, Ohio. (#C).

Lydia Davidson(#6)-James Alexander, Sr, were married by Rev _____ Nisbett, of the Presbyterian Church, and President of Dickinson(Presby) College, at Carlisle, Penna.
